Women Karen Nelson, 2013-07-11 This volume considers women's roles in the conflicts and negotiations of the early modern world. Essays explore the ways that gender shapes women's agency in times of war, religious strife, and economic change. How were conflict and concord gendered in histories, literature, music, and political, legal, didactic, and religious treatises? Four interdisciplinary plenary topics ground this exploration: Negotiations, Economies, Faiths, Spiritualities, and Pedagogies. Scholars focus upon many regions of the early modern world: the Atlantic world, the Mediterranean world, Granada, Indonesia, the Low Countries, England, and Italy, inflected by such religions as Islam, Catholicism, and Reformed Protestantism as they came into contact with indigenous spiritualities and with one another. Essays and workshop summaries analyze how gender and class are implicated in economic change and assess the ways gender and religion map onto voyages of trade, exploration, or imperialism. They investigate how women, as individuals and as members of political or family networks, were instrumental in transmitting, promoting, supporting, or thwarting different religions during times of religious crises. This volume also offers methods for teaching and researching these topics. It will be invaluable to scholars of medieval and early modern women's studies, especially those working in history, literature, languages, musicology, and religious studies.      Cross-cultural

Literacy Steven F. Arvizu, Marietta Saravia-Shore, 2017-11-28 Originally published in 1992, this book advocates and demonstrates the benefits of an anthropological approach that recognizes the centrality of culture in the educational process. This approach encompasses knowledge and understanding of other cultures, patterns of interaction, values, institutions, metaphors, and symbols, as well as cross-cultural communication skills. Ethnographic studies of multi-ethnic classrooms and schools in their community context are presented in this excellent volume with a view to informing practice and policy concerning the education of language minority students and teachers, and anyone with an interest in foreign language education and bilingual education.      Annual Report of the American Bible Society American Bible Society, 1884

Hildebrand, 1995-07-24 With the conclusion of the Civil War, the beginnings of Reconstruction, and the realities of emancipation, former slaves were confronted with the possibility of freedom and with it a new way of life. In The Times Were Strange and Stirring, Reginald F. Hildebrand examines the role of the Methodist Church in the process of emancipation and in shaping a new world at a unique moment in American history. African American and Methodist history: Hildebrand explores the ideas and ideals of missionaries from several branches of Methodism: the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, and the northern-based Methodist Episcopal Church, and the significant and highly charged battle waged between them over the challenge and meaning of freedom. He traces the various strategies and goals pursued by these competing visions and develops a typology of some of the ways in which emancipation was approached and understood Focusing on individual church leaders such as Lucius H Holsey Richard Harvey Cain and Gilbert Haven and with the benefit of extensive research in church archives and newspapers Hildebrand tells the dramatic and sometimes moving story of how missionaries labored to organize their denominations in the black South and of how they were overwhelmed at times by the struggles of freedom Survey, 1910 Gender and Conversational Interaction Deborah Tannen, 1993-09-23 The author of the best selling You Just Don't Understand Deborah Tannen has collected twelve papers about gender related patterns in conversational interaction The theoretical thrust of the collection like that of Tannen's own work is anthropological and sociolinguistic female and male styles are approached as different cultural practice Beginning with Tannen's own essay arguing for the relativity of discourse strategies the volume challenges facile generalizations about gender based styles and explores the complex relationship between gender and language use The chapters some previously unpublished and some classics in the field address discourse across the lifespan including preschool junior high school and adult interaction They explore such varied discourse contexts as preschool disputes romantic and sexual teasing among adolescent girls cooperative competition in adolescent girl talk conversational storytelling a faculty committee meeting children in an urban black neighborhood at play and a legal dispute in a Tenejapan village in Mexico Two chapters review and evaluate the literature on key areas of gender related linguistic phenomena interruption and amount of talk Gender and Conversational Interaction will interest general readers as well as students and scholars in a variety of disciplines including linguistics sociolinguistics anthropology sociology psychology women's studies and communications A Will to Choose J.
