First Glance Childhood Creations Of The Famous:

The Works of Allen Ginsberg, 1941-1994 Bill Morgan, 1995-02-28 Avant garde poet and popular culture icon Allen Ginsberg has been one of the world's most important writers for over 40 years. This comprehensive bibliography covering the years 1941 to 1994 was prepared with the cooperation of the poet himself. All books, periodicals, photographs, recordings, films, and miscellaneous appearances are listed here. Entries are grouped in chapters according to type of work, and each entry provides full descriptive bibliographic information. Allen Ginsberg is perhaps the most famous poet of our time, as well as one of our most prolific writers. His subjects range from Buddhist studies to drug research to gay rights to political issues of every description, from Vietnam to censorship. Ginsberg gave the author access to personal files, and as a result, every appearance of Ginsberg's writings in the English language is noted. This bibliography is a comprehensive descriptive record of all of Ginsberg's works. The volume contains descriptive annotations of every book, pamphlet, and broadside by Ginsberg. It also contains complete descriptions of every contribution by Ginsberg to the works of others. In addition, all periodical contributions, recordings, films, and miscellaneous publications are listed. Due to Ginsberg's recent acceptance as a photographer of note, a special section identifies all of his published photographs. Entries are arranged in chapters according to the type of work to facilitate ease of use. As a result, this book presents a history of Ginsberg's works and traces the evolution of his writings over a period of publications and revisions. First Words Paul Mandelbaum, 2013-06-17 This unique literary anthology presents the childhood writings of some of America's greatest authors, including Stephen King, Joyce Carol Oates, and more. Most kids write stories. A few of them grow up to be successful authors. Before Stephen King created Carrie, he created Jhonathan at age nine. And before there was Rabbit Angstrom, there was Manuel Citarro, the detective in John Updike's hard-boiled mystery written at fourteen. Before Jurassic Park, there was young Michael Crichton's story about the mysteriously wounded man lying unattended in the street. Editor Paul Mandelbaum persuaded our most popular American authors to share their childhood writings and their treasured photographs. What he's gathered is a fascinating, delightful collection of writing and early snapshots that reveal young minds at work, wrestling with early versions of ideas that were to take hold of their writings in later years. Of course, the young Madeline L. Engle would wonder about space and the meaning of eternity. Of course, Margaret Atwood would question conventional female behavior, arguing for the right to smoke cigars. Other writers featured in this volume include Amy Tan, Paul Bowles, Michael Crichton, Ursula K. LeGuin, Tobias Wolff, and more. The Rockin' 60s: The People Who Made the Music Brock Helander, 2001-01-01 The Rockin' 60s is a comprehensive guide through the decade that produced the greatest music of all time. The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, Bob Dylan, Jimi Hendrix, Led Zeppelin, Phil Spector, The Beach Boys, Aretha Franklin, and hundreds more emerged from this era. Delve into a narrative history of each group and examine the people behind the music, along with an analysis of key recordings, discography, and archival photos throughout. Eileen Sylvia
