Picturing the Apocalypse Natasha O'Hear, Anthony O'Hear, 2015-06-25 The book of Revelation has been a source of continual fascination for nearly two thousand years Concepts such as The Lamb of God the Four Horsemen the Seventh Seal the Beasts and Antichrist the Whore of Babylon Armageddon the Millennium the Last Judgement the New Jerusalem and the ubiquitous Angel of the Apocalypse have captured the popular imagination One can hardly open a newspaper or click on a news web site without reading about impending financial or climate change Armageddon while the concept of the Four Horsemen pervades popular music gaming and satire Yet few people know much about either the basic meaning or original context of these concepts or the multiplicity of different ways in which they have been interpreted by visual artists in particular The visual history of this most widely illustrated of all the biblical books deserves greater attention This book fills these gaps in a striking and original way by means of ten concise thematic chapters which explain the origins of these concepts from the book of Revelation in an accessible way These explanations are augmented and developed via a carefully selected sample of the ways in which the concepts have been treated by artists through the centuries The 120 visual examples are drawn from a wide range of time periods and media including the ninth century Trier Apocalypse thirteenth century Anglo Norman Apocalypse Manuscripts such as the Lambeth and Trinity Apocalypses the fourteenth century Angers Apocalypse Tapestry fifteenth century Apocalypse altarpieces by Van Eyck and Memling D rer and Cranach s sixteenth century Apocalypse woodcuts and more recently a range of works by William Blake J M W Turner Max Beckmann as well as film posters and stills cartoons and children s book illustrations The final chapter demonstrates the continuing resonance of all the themes in contemporary religious political and popular thinking while throughout the book a contrast will be drawn between those readers of Revelation who have seen it in terms of earthly revolutions in the here and now and those who have adopted a more spiritual otherworldly approach

Chronicles of the End Times Mark Davidson, 2018-10-05 Mark Davidson author of Daniel Revisited has created a unique interpretation of end time Bible prophecy using the ancient concentric reading method known as chiastics Lost centuries ago it was rediscovered by seminary scholars in the eighteenth century This reading method reveals the form of the scripture text via the flow of its words giving us a heightened sensitivity to the words in the text When combined with the words meanings we receive a greater understanding of prophetic scripture In Daniel Revisited Davidson showed us the four signposts four events prophesied in Daniel 7 and 8 and Revelation 6 to occur in the Middle East prior to the Rapture and Tribulation Now in Chronicles of the End Times chiastic reading has been applied to all of Daniel Revelation and other books pulling back the veil further to expand our view from four events to all the main events from the Middle East to the ends of the earth A chiastic reading of Daniel Zechariah 1 6 Matthew 23 25 and Revelation all shown in ninety illustrations yields many solid answers to the following questions as well as to many others How do Daniel 2 and 7 interact and why are the kingdoms metals and beasts What s the purpose of Daniel s Aramaic chapters and how do they affect the end times Which parts of Daniel 11 are to be fulfilled in ancient times versus end times What is the real identity of Mystery Babylon and how does this help us in the end times How do the two scrolls of Revelation give greater understanding of the trumpets and bowls What are the Seven Events of the end times and which one is next This all may seem incredible for one book but is nevertheless true The chiastic reading of Bible prophecy revolutionizes our view of the end times and how we read Bible end time prophecy

The Apocalypse of John Francis J. Moloney, SDB, 2020-09-08 In this major paradigm shifting commentary on Revelation internationally respected author Francis Moloney brings his keen narrative and exegetical work to bear on one of the most difficult mysterious and misinterpreted texts in the biblical canon Challenging the assumed consensus among New Testament scholars Moloney reads Revelation not as an exhortation to faithfulness in a period of persecution but as a celebration of the ongoing effects of Jesus's death and resurrection

Foreword by Eugenio Corsini

Revelation and the End of All Things Craig R. Koester, 2001-04-02 Craig Koester provides commentary on each section of the book of Revelation drawing on the best recent scholarship and contemporizing his discussion with references to events like the siege at Waco the phenomenal sales of the Left Behind series and the use of Revelation in hymnody and art Based on two decades of teaching Revelation to seminary students pastors and lay groups this discussion strikes a balance between taking the text's first century context seriously and making Revelation relevant to twenty first century readers

The Time in the End in the Book of Revelation Thomas C. Nixon, 2002-11-15 Exchanging Pleasantries begins in a fictional version of a town known as Beverly Massachusetts and takes a trip to the streets of New York City where MC takes a chance at re arranging his life style by fibbing to his long time companions about a job offer concerning his life's dream writing He lands in what becomes a new world of all work chasing dreams and exchanging pleasantries with a mixture of new found characters It is a fun feel good taste of the North East with a sprinkle of romance and a dash of racial tension

And Then Shall the End Come... John Bisagno, 2007-08 Nothing authenticates the Christian faith as does the fulfillment of clearly stated prophecy And Then Shall the End Come is a concise chronological guide to understanding topically and sequentially what is happening today and what will happen tomorrow

A Commentary on the Revelation of John Reverend Randy Thames, 2021-03-05 We live in an extremely troubled world We face epidemics racism violence protests and a lack of strong leadership in government Crisis on a global level natural disasters and the ever spreading criminal activity through the Internet have left us strained in our resources and vulnerable to all sorts of attacks More succinctly the world has lost touch with Jehovah the Creator of the universe and the only one who can bring about any positive global change As mankind turns his back on his Creator he becomes more carnal more primal and without restraint He becomes disobedient to authority unthankful for what he has and incapable of judging right from wrong He challenges that which gives him the right to issue the challenge in the first place The fact that our world has lost all control should not be a shock to anyone Jehovah laid out the chain of events that would lead to the depravity of man millennia ago Mankind watches the downward spiral and when there is no other alternative they cry out to God expecting that He will magically turn men's hearts back to Him Prophecy is seldom God telling us what He is going to do Most often it is God through His foreknowledge seeing what is to come and reporting it to us The prophecy of God through John Paul

Matthew and the prophets of old is simply God showing us what is to come He is relating for our benefit what is to come as the result of the failure of mankind The Revelation of John is a love letter from God to His people in which He forewarns us of the unchangeable future so that we might prepare ourselves for the inevitability of its appearance In this book the author has tried to rightly divide the truth of this prophecy in relation to the entirety of prophecy so that we might be able to see it unfolding before our eyes and awaken from our sleep to serve the living God
