A History of the 21st Independent Parachute Company, the Original Pathfinders of British Airborne Forces, 1942-1946.... Ron Kent,      The First Bridge Too Far Mark Saliger, 2018-07-30 A vivid chronicle of the first battle between British and German paratroopers the unsung battle that prefigured the Battle of Arnhem From July 13 to 16 1943 British paratroopers fought for control of a strategically important bridge in Sicily Now the Battle of Primosole Bridge is brought to life in the first narrative solely dedicated to one of the bloodiest and hardest fought battles for British airborne troops of World War II The British paratroopers of the famed 1st Parachute Brigade known as the Red Devils fought their equally esteemed German paratrooper opponents known as the Green Devils during the Allies first invasion of Hitler's Fortress Europe The paratroopers found themselves cut off behind enemy lines with dwindling ammunition as they faced ever growing enemy forces Yet they courageously maintained the fight until ground forces arrived to capture the bridge before it was destroyed The hard won experience of the 1st Parachute Brigade was then tested only a year later in an almost identical battle on a larger scale The Battle of Arnhem the battle christened a bridge too far While Arnhem is well documented the events at Primosole Bridge deserve to be told at last      First In! Ron Kent, 1979      Aarugha! Ray W. Stubbe, 1990      Arnhem William F. Buckingham, 2019-03-15 Explore this gripping day by day combat narrative of the infamous battle for a bridgehead over the Rhine      Gunners from the Sky Paul Chrystal, David Chrystal, 2023-10-12 This is the story of the 1st Air Landing Light Regiment RA and its role in the Italian campaign and at the Battle of Arnhem It is also the story of one of its soldiers 14283058 Gunner Eric Wright Chrystal father of the authors Eric joined the army in September 1942 and after training joined the newly formed glider borne regiment the following year He first saw action in Italy in 1943 where he was seriously wounded On 17 September 1944 two years to the day since he enlisted he and the regiment were landed by glider near to Arnhem in the Netherlands The authors recount set their father's experiences in context by describing the formation of the unit and the many months of training in England Their involvement in the Italian campaign where Eric served with E Troop 3 Battery is then recounted detailing their actions at Rionero Foggia and Campobasso where Eric was wounded It then moves on to describe 1st Air Landing Light Regiment's preparation for and involvement in Operation Market the Airborne half of Market Garden This very detailed account of the fighting highlights the regiment's pivotal but often neglected role near Arnhem bridge Here after nine days of intense combat Eric was among the many captured and held until the end of the war The inclusion of Eric's own eyewitness testimony lends a very personal touch to this excellent account of the regiment's experience of combat and life in the PoW camps      First to Jump Jerome Preisler, 2015-09-01 With firsthand accounts of WWII heroism from the US Army Pathfinders New York Times bestselling author Jerome Preisler chronicles their escapades scouting behind enemy lines ahead of the Band of Brothers When you land

in Normandy you will have only one friend God General Jumpin Jim Gavin to the Pathfinders of the 82nd and 101st Airborne divisions before D Day June 1944 When the invasion of Sicily almost ended in disaster General Jim Gavin was determined to form a unit of special operations commandos who would jump ahead of the airborne forces including the now legendary Easy Company stealing across enemy terrain to scout and mark out drop zones with a unique array of homing equipment The first into combat and the last out their advance jumps were considered suicide missions by those who sent them into action Sporting Mohawk haircuts and war paint they were the best of the best Their heroic feats behind enemy lines were critical to nearly all of the Allies major victories from Normandy to Bastogne where they saved the day for thousands of American troops in an operation almost forgotten by history to the attack on the Ruhr Valley in Germany This is the story of the U S Army Pathfinders their training bonding and battlefield exploits told from the perspectives of the men who jumped and those who risked everything to fly them into action INCLUDES PHOTOS      The Riviera at War George G. Kundahl,2017-05-30 During World War II three distinct forces opposed the Allies Germany Italy and Japan Few areas of the world experienced domination by more than a single one of these but southeastern France the region popularly known as the Riviera or Cote d Azur was one Not only did inhabitants suffer through Italian Fascism and German Nazism but also under a third hardship at times even more oppressive the rule of Vichy France Following a nine month prelude the reality of World War II burst onto the Riviera in June 1940 when the region had to defend itself against the Italian army and ended in April 1945 with a battle against German and Italian forces in April 1945 a period longer than any other part of France In this book George G Kundahl tells for the first time the full story of World War II on the French Riviera Featuring previously unseen sources and photographs this will be essential reading for anyone interested in wartime France      Allied Special Forces Insignia, 1939-1948 Peter Taylor,2013-05-20 As early as 1940 political leaders and military commanders responsible for the conduct of the Allied operations realised that after a string of disastrous setbacks national morale could only be restored by taking offensive action against the enemy With the limited resources available Churchills stirring call to set Europe ablaze called for unconventional solutions and action From these uncertain beginnings was born a plethora of Allied Special Force units Inevitably some are household names but others are little known having had brief and covert existences in far flung parts of the world rnrnAll however had distinctive identities and their proudly worn insignia represent a fascinating and often elusive challenge for militaria collectors This is due not just to the scarcity of items in many cases but to the mystery of their origin a number of these units were established on an ad hoc and spontaneous basis Peter Taylors aim in compiling Allied Special Forces Insignia 1939 1948 is to fill a gap in the growing bibliography of militaria collecting At the same time Brigadier Bryan Watkins introduction sets in context the growth and development of Allied Special Forces during the global conflict 1939 45 Lavishly illustrated this work will prove an essential reference work and companion guide for the expert collector and all interested in military history      First In: The Airborne Pathfinders Ron Kent,2015-10-30 The First World War as a living

Once a Grenadier Oliver Lindsay, 1996-03-14 An eminent writer has said that regiments great in history have this in common with mortals through old in glory and honour they have yet the vigour of youth To none may the remark be more truthful applied then the Grenadier Guards Thus wrote Chichester and Burges Short in 1900 and judging by the Regiment s history over the last fifty years the words ring as true as ever For this history of Grenadier Guards is indeed a microcosm of all the proud endeavours of the British Army There are few places of significance where the Regiment has not served after the round up of Nazis in 1945 in Germany and Austria Grenadiers saw action in Palestine and in the jungles of Malaya and subsequently served during emergencies in Cyprus the Cameroons British Guiana Belize Northern Ireland the Gulf and with the United Nations to indicate but some of the over seas postings which included the Falklands and Hong Kong Grenadier have also been responsible for the protection of British Sovereigns and the great ceremonial events in London including the funerals of King George VI and Winston Churchill Oliver Lindsay has produced a rigorous work of history his fourth book rich in quotation after interviewing Grenadiers serving and retired of all generations Drawing on their accounts as well as his own experiences for he was a regular soldier for thirty five years he has written a book of extraordinary interest Unique among such historians he tells of the experiences of wives in such places as war torn Germany in 1945 Tripoli and Cyprus The story of Grenadiers who served with the Guards parachute Company and in the SAS is included Five years in the writing this comprehensive record included coverage of training tactics the pronounced changes in the armed forces and the views and anecdotes of the Non Commissioned Officers and Guardsmen Profusely illustrated and with 14 detailed maps this is a dedicated history of the senior infantry Regiment in the British Army and what is probably the most famous Regiment in the world after Normandy British field marshal Bernard Montgomery launched Operation Market Garden to secure the lower Rhine Germany's last great natural barrier in the west and passage to Berlin Though Allied soldiers outnumbered Germans two to one they suffered devastating casualties and were forced to retreat Then in March 1945 Montgomery orchestrated another airborne attack on the Rhine called Operation Plunder This time the Allies overwhelmed the German defenses secured the eastern bank and began their final march into the heart of the Third Reich Including detailed maps and personal accounts from those on both sides of the battle this vivid war story examines Allied attempts to breach Germany's borders and illustrates how lessons learned from failure helped form the second plan of attack and seal Germany's defeat Publishers Weekly     Arnhem the Fight to Sustain Frank Steer,2000-10-21 On the ground the airborne logisticians at the battle of Arnhem fought to the bitter end indistinguishable from their paratroop comrades In the air their deeds and sacrifice were shining examples of duty done under the most desperate circumstances Witness the account of Flight Lieutenant H J King navigator of Dakota KG 374 of 271 squadron RAF Down Ampney These men were not volunteers like aircrew They received no flying pay yet were without doubt superb in their fulfilment of duty even though KG 374 was burning for the whole period over the dropping zone Arnhem The Fight To Sustain tells the stirring story of the men and the methods employed in sustaining 1st Airborne Division It is the first account of forming corps of today's Royal Logistic Corps in action together Following extensive research the story draws heavily on contemporary documents and eyewitness accounts and is lavishly illustrated     Pathfinder David Blakeley,2012-05-10 Nine men 2 000 enemies No back up No air support No rescue No chance First in the official motto of one of the British Army's smallest and most secretive units 16 Air Assault Brigade's Pathfinder Platoon Unofficially they are the bastard son of the SAS And like their counterparts in Hereford the job of the Pathfinders is to operate unseen and undetected deep behind enemy lines When British forces deployed to Iraq in 2003 Captain David Blakeley was given command of a reconnaissance mission of such critical importance that it could change the course of the war It's the story of nine men operating alone and unsupported fifty miles ahead of a US Recon Marine advance and head straight into a hornet's nest teeming with thousands of heavily armed enemy forces This is the first account of that extraordinary mission abandoned by coalition command left with no option but to fight their way out of the enemy's backyard And it provides a gripping insight into the Pathfinders themselves a shadowy unit just forty five men strong that plies its trade from the skies Trained to parachute in to enemy territory far beyond the forward edge of battle freefalling from high altitude breathing bottled oxygen and employing the latest skydiving technology the PF are unique Because of new rules introduced since the publication of Bravo Two Zero there have been no first hand accounts of British Special Forces waging modern day warfare for nearly a decade And no member of the Pathfinders has ever told their story before Until now Pathfinder is the only first hand account of a UKSF mission to emerge for nearly a generation And it could be the last     At Close Quarters: SOE Close Combat Pistol Instructor Colonel Hector Grant-Taylor David Armstrong,2014-03-27 The Special
