First Lady Of Upper Canada:

The First Lady Wharncliffe and Her Family (1779-1856) Caroline Grosvenor, Charles Beilby Stuart-Wortley baron Stuart, Charles Beilby Stuart-Wortley Baron Stuart of Wortley, 1927 Mrs. Simcoe's Diary Elizabeth Simcoe, 2007-10-12 Elizabeth Simcoe's diary describing Canada from 1791 to 1796 is history written as it was being made an account instilled with excitement and delight The Heiress vs the Establishment Constance Backhouse, Nancy L. Backhouse, 2005-01-31 In 1922 Elizabeth Bethune Campbell a Toronto born socialite unearthed what she initially thought was an unsigned copy of her mother's will designating her as the primary beneficiary of the estate The discovery snowballed into a fourteen year battle with the Ontario legal establishment as Mrs Campbell attempted to prove that her uncle a prominent member of Ontario's legal circle had stolen funds from her mother's estate In 1930 she argued her case before the Law Lords of the Privy Council in London A non lawyer and Canadian with no formal education or legal training Campbell was the first woman to ever appear before them She won Reprinted here in its entirety Campbell's self published account of her campaign Where Angels Fear to Tread is an eloquent first person view of intrigue and overlapping spheres of influence in the early twentieth century legal system Constance Backhouse and Nancy Backhouse provide extensive commentary and annotations to illuminate the context and pick up the narrative where Campbell's book leaves off Vibrantly written this is an enthralling read Not only a fascinating social and legal history it's also a very good story The Toronto Book of Love Adam Bunch, 2021-01-19 Exploring Toronto's history through tantalizing true tales of romance marriage and lust Toronto's past is filled with passion and heartache The Toronto Book of Love brings the history of the city to life with fascinating true tales of romance marriage and lust from the scandalous love affairs of the city's early settlers to the prime minister's wife partying with rock stars on her anniversary from ancient First Nations wedding ceremonies to a pastor wearing a bulletproof vest to perform one of Canada's first same sex marriage ceremonies Home to adulterous movie stars faithful rebels and heartbroken spies Toronto has been shaped by crushes jealousies and flirtations The Toronto Book of Love explores the evolution of the city from a remote colonial outpost to a booming modern metropolis through the stories of those who have fallen in love among its ravines church spires and skyscrapers The Toronto Book of the Dead Adam Bunch, 2017-09-16 Exploring Toronto's history through the stories of its most fascinating and shadowy deaths If these streets could talk With morbid tales of war and plague duels and executions suicides and ancestors Toronto's past is filled with stories whose endings were anything but peaceful The Toronto Book of the Dead delves into these from ancient First Nations burial mounds to the grisly murder of Toronto's first lighthouse keeper from the rise and fall of the city's greatest Victorian baseball star to the final days of the world's most notorious anarchist Toronto has witnessed countless lives lived and lost as it grew from a muddy little frontier town into a booming metropolis of concrete and glass The Toronto Book of the Dead tells the tale of the ever changing city through the lives and deaths of those who made it their final resting place The Canada Year Book, 1904 America's

First Ladies Nancy Hendricks, 2015-10-13 Meet the First Ladies of the United States sometimes inspiring sometimes tragic always fascinating women who though often unsung helped hold the nation together in its infancy and advance it as a world power More than simply serving as America's hostesses many of the nation's First Ladies played vital roles in shaping their husband's presidency and serving as political activists in their own right From Martha Washington to Michelle Obama their inspiring stories come alive in this handsomely illustrated encyclopedia Within its pages the First Ladies are revealed as human beings who one day awoke to find the eyes of the world upon them The book differs from others by showcasing America's First Ladies in their own words as flesh and blood individuals Readers will discover which First Lady held off Napoleon's army with a toy sword why women had to be pale frail and ailing and which First Lady was called Sunshine and which was Hellcat Each entry includes a biographical essay that details the life of the woman and places her within the political social and cultural context of her time Each also offers a related primary document that helps define the First Lady's legacy as well as a short bibliography for further information Written in a lively compelling style this highly readable volume is perfect for junior high high school and college students as well as the general public Royal Observations Arthur Bousfield, Garry Toffoli, 1991-01-12 These observations and quotations comprise a witty anthology of anecdotes by and about the royal family in Canada over the last 400 years Enhanced by drawings from the well known cartoonist Vince Wicks this book looks at the memorable encounters sometimes touching sometimes disconcerting sometimes hilarious that Canadians have had with their own and other royal families Arranged thematically Royal Observations covers such topics as Queen Victoria English French relations World War Two native peoples and royal tours Changing Women, Changing History Diana Pederson, 1996-10-15 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian's women's history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive The Judge and the Lady Marlyn Horsdal, 2012 When the beautiful and flirtatious Eleanor Wentworth is sent away from London in 1870 for her scandalous behaviour she arrives angry and rebellious in Victoria a town that falls far below her expectations of society Soon however she is befriended by Celia Turner the freethinking young wife of a conservative minister and unlikely though it seems they become lifelong friends When Eleanor meets the fascinating judge Matthew Baillie Begbie the first chief justice of BC life in the colony suddenly becomes much more attractive Discover life in vibrant late nineteenth century Victoria and meet the characters who helped build the province's rich history Who's who in Canada Charles Whately Parker, Barnet M. Greene, 1922 The Canadian Annual Review of Public Affairs John Castell Hopkins, 1924 Margaret Addison Jean O'Grady, 2001-02-26 O'Grady presents Addison in several different lights as a woman learning to assert herself in the hitherto male world of university governance as an administrator dealing with questions of individual freedom and group standards at a time when the permissible limits of behaviour were expanding as a former Methodist who learned to modify her beliefs while retaining her core Christianity and as an advocate for more fulfilling lives for women who was forced to deal with questions of co education the possibility of gender neutral studies and the nature of womanliness O Grady clearly shows that Addison wanted to make a difference in the world and did so B her innovations such as student government and lectures on careers and sex education were widely copied in other universities Drawing on archival material and writing in an accessible style O Grady captures the flavour of life in Annesley Hall under Addison s regime and uncovers part of the buried mosaic of the lives of Canadian women

Family Ties Andrea Terry,2015-06-01 House museums act as both sources and suppliers of history Functioning first as private residences they are then preserved as commemorative monuments and become living history museums offering theme based tours led by period costumed interpreters so that visitors might experience what it felt like to live back then In Family Ties Andrea Terry considers the appeal and relevance of domesticated representations of Victorian material culture in a contemporary multicultural context Through three case studies Terry examines Victorian homes that have been repurposed as living history museums that host speculative performances of the past The credibility of Dundurn Castle in Hamilton William Lyon Mackenzie House in Toronto and the Sir George tienne Cartier National Historic Site of Canada in Montreal Terry argues relies on the belief that architectural monuments and the objects they contain are evidence of the time culture nation or people that produced them Family Ties connects residential artifacts to performance by examining the Victorian Christmas programs offered annually at each site to demonstrate the complex nuances of living history Through a detailed exploration of the relationship between heritage living history and memory Family Ties illuminates the effects of institutional interpretations of the past that privilege nationalist myths Law and Society Steven Vago,Adie Nelson,Veronica Nelson,Steven E. Barkan,2017-09-26 Law and Society provides a balanced and comprehensive analysis of the interplay between law and society using both Canadian and international examples This clear and readable text is filled with interesting information ideas and insights All materials and supporting statistics have been carefully updated This edition includes an expanded discussion of the law and First Nations people recent developments impacting LGBTIQ2S persons and persons with disabilities and a new section on civil procedures Each chapter is structured similarly with an outline learning objectives key terms chapter summaries critical thinking questions and an array of additional resources Made-in-Canada Humour Beverly J. Rasporich,2015-09-15 Made in Canada Humour is an interdisciplinary survey and analysis of Canadian humour and humorists in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The book focuses on a variety of genres It includes celebrated Canadian writers and poets with ironic and satiric perspectives oral storytellers of tall tales in the country and the city newspaper print humorists representative national and regional cartoonists and comedians of stage radio and television The humour gives voice to Canadian values and experiences and consequently techniques and styles of humour particular to the country While a persistent comic theme has been joking at the expense of the United States both countries have influenced one another s humour Canada s unique humorous tradition also reflects its emergence from a colonial country to a postcolonial and postmodern nation with contemporary humour that addresses gender and racial issues The First Women Lawyers Mary Jane Mossman, 2006-05-31 This comparative study explores the lives of some of the women who first initiated challenges to male exclusivity in the legal professions in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Their challenges took place at a time of considerable optimism about progressive societal change including new and expanding opportunities for women as well as a variety of proposals for reforming law legal education and standards of legal professionalism By situating women s claims for admission to the bar within this reformist context in different jurisdictions the study examines the intersection of historical ideas about gender and about legal professionalism at the turn of the twentieth century In exploring these systemic issues the study also provides detailed examinations of the lives of some of the first women lawyers in six jurisdictions the United States Canada Britain New Zealand and Australia India and western Europe In exploring how individual women adopted different legal arguments in litigated cases or devised particular strategies to overcome barriers to professional work the study assesses how shifting and contested ideas about gender and about legal professionalism shaped women s opportunities and choices as well as both support for and opposition to their claims As a comparative study of the first women lawyers in several different jurisdictions the book reveals how a number of quite different women engaged with ideas of gender and legal professionalism at the turn of the twentieth century John Franklin John Wilson, 2001-01-01 John Franklin explored and charted Canada s arctic seacoast in 1819 1822 1825 27 and 1845 On the first expedition he nearly starved and on the third he died None of his men survived the third expedition but the search for clues to their fate helped open up the North and his celebrated Canadian song and stories Imperial Island Paul Kléber Monod, 2009-03-30 Imperial Island A History of Britain and its Empire 1660 1837 is a comprehensive account of Great Britain s imperial path from the Stuart Restoration of 1660 to its emergence as a dominant global superpower Suitable for students with no prior knowledge of British history Organized to help students and instructors comprises 21 thematic chapters set within a clear chronological framework Includes over 30 illustrations and maps to help orient the reader Addresses the new generation of American and British students that are interested in global environmental and cultural history Methodists and Women's Education in Ontario, 1836-1925 Johanna Maria Selles, 1996 Situating the evolution of Methodist education for women in Ontario within the larger social and cultural context Methodists and Women s Education in Ontario describes the often unintended and unforeseen forces unleashed by women s education and the ambi
