the interests that those circulations served are examined in such a way as to put canonical texts back into conversation with the outpouring of individual life writings that dates from the middle of the 17th century on. As the first new historicized account of the seventeenth century Protestant conversion narrative in a generation, Protestant Autobiography in the Seventeenth Century Anglophone World contributes to the reintegration of the scholarly fields of literature, religion, and politics. It revitalizes the study of proto-literary forms which, while devotional in nature, were deeply political in their consequences, contributing as they did to the emerging discourse of personal liberties. Bookseller, 1904. Vols for 1871-76, 1913-14 include an extra number. The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series.

Give God a Year & Change Your Life Forever Carole Lewis, 2009-11-28. First Place 4. Health has helped tens of thousands of people lose weight and bring balance to the four core areas of their lives: physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual. In this new title from Carole Lewis, First Place 4 Health's national director, readers are challenged to give God a year to change them from the inside out. Change will happen over the course of 12 months, but the right changes only happen when we set the right goals and take the right steps to achieve them. Written with Carole's signature warmth and humor, the book invites readers to dream big about the changes they long for in their lives and then offers practical, biblical, step-by-step guidance for how to see those dreams made into reality. In a culture of right now, a year may seem like an eternity. A year in the hands of God, however, means change that will last eternally.

Williams. Activism in the Name of God: Religion and Black Feminist Public Intellectuals from the Nineteenth Century to the Present recognizes and celebrates twelve Black feminists who have made an indelible mark not just on Black women's intellectual history but on American intellectual history in general. The volume includes essays on Jarena Lee, Theresa Hoover, Pauli Murray, and Alexis Pauline Gumbs, to name a few. These women's commitment to the social, political, and economic well-being of oppressed people in the United States shaped their work in the public sphere, which took the form of preaching, writing, singing, marching, presiding over religious institutions, teaching, assuming leadership roles in the civil rights movement, and creating politically subversive print and digital art. This anthology offers readers exemplars with whose minds and spirits we can engage, from whose ideas we can learn, and upon whose social justice work we can build. The volume joins a burgeoning chorus of texts that calls attention to the creativity of Black women who galvanized their readers, listeners, and fellow activists to seek justice for the oppressed.

Pushing back on centuries of institutionalized injustices that have relegated Black women to the sidelines the work of these Black feminist public intellectuals reflects both Christian gospel ethics and non Christian religious traditions that celebrate the wholeness of Black people     Index to Jewish Periodicals ,2004 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests     Athenaeum ,1860     Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1828
