The Tale of Rebekah Rabbit Jean McCurdy Meade, 2009-09

Where did the story of the Easter Bunny come from What does Easter the Day on which Jesus was raised from the dead that Christians celebrate every year with great joy have to do with a rabbit that brings joy to children Did it ever occur to you that there might have been a family of rabbits in the Garden outside Jerusalem where Jesus was laid in the tomb on that sad amazing day we call Good Friday Well if there were rabbits in that garden maybe one of them saw the Risen Lord even before the faithful women went to the tomb and encountered the Angel telling the news of His Resurrection Maybe she was a little bunny named Rebekah who was curious about the strange rumbling she felt early early that Sunday morning and the beautiful light that came with the dawn so out she hopped into the garden all alone while her brothers and sisters slept And there she met the most wonderful person in the world and somehow she knew Him and He knew her And then maybe that little bunny was able to say something without words to those women and they included her in their story to the others But then over the centuries the part about the rabbit and the first Easter day got forgotten mostly Fantasy can be a wonderful way to connect with the truths taught by the Christian faith Based on the Gospel of Matthew The Tale of Rebekah Rabbit is for children and adults with a heart for what may have happened if as old legends tell us animals can talk among themselves and like humans can recognize the voice of their Maker Jean Alden McCurdy Meade an Episcopal priest since 2002 is the Rector of Mount Olivet Episcopal Church New Orleans She is the mother of four step mother of one and grandmother of four so far A pianist organist singer and lover of reading and good conversation her special calling is teaching the Bible to young and old For 19 years she served as the lay chaplain of St Andrew s Episcopal School where she used impromptu drama and music to bring the Bible stories to life She has broadcast a Bible study Light unto my Path on New Orleans public access television for years and has been the speaker for many conferences and retreats especially on Women of the Bible and Male and Female in the Image of God A graduate of Agnes Scott College and Duke University she taught English in high schools and college before retiring for a while to bring up her children In 1988 she was the first non Roman Catholic graduate of Notre Dame Roman Catholic Seminary of New Orleans and then earned a PhD in Philosophy from Tulane University in 2000 She has taught Religious Studies and Philosophy at Loyola Notre Dame Seminary and Tulane in recent years She is dedicated to fostering ecumenical work and understanding serving as a Chaplain in the Order of St Lazarus of Jerusalem and in the
