practitioners and future architects Reflective Practice Research in Higher Education Pedagogies Michael Noah Weiss, Guro Hansen Helskog, 2023 This anthology examines university lecturers' experiences with pedagogical practices across various higher education disciplines. The experiences are investigated by means of reflective practice research, a phenomenological and hermeneutical approach intended to make implicit practical knowledge explicit and thus to develop a deeper understanding of professional practices. While instrumental practice research gives a practitioner knowledge of facts, reflective practice research gives the practitioner orientational knowledge in line with a so-called kaleidoscopic epistemology.

Teachers' and Families' Perspectives in Early Childhood Education and Care Sivan Phillipson, Susanne Garvis, 2019-01-30 The second volume in this Early Childhood Education in the 21st Century International Teaching Family and Policy Perspectives miniseries focuses on teacher and family perspectives of early childhood education and care from 19 different countries around the world. The aim of this volume is to articulate the key components of teacher education and family practices that impact young children's education and care. Each country featured in this volume presents its own unique perspective in relation to the cultural and societal constraints around teacher training and/or family practices and the thinking around those practices that are important for early childhood development. Offering a unique insight into how teachers and families work together in different countries, the book is essential reading for early childhood educators, researchers, early childhood organisations, policy makers, and those interested to know more about early childhood within an international perspective.

Living Positive with Imperfection Robert D. Patton, 2015-12-11 Robert D. Patton's book is a memoir of his fifty-nine year career as an educator, a state representative, and a public servant. It contains details of three generations of a family that worked the soil, built community, and took responsibility for their own welfare like many similar families, and made this country one of the greatest in the world. Bob's personal progression from a high school teacher to professor, in a state university, state representative, and a public servant is evidence of a highly competent and well-motivated individual who achieved significant accomplishments. He is to be particularly admired for his lack of bitterness despite divorce, life as a single parent, political defeat, and job loss. His only complaint is against politicians who will do anything to remain in power, no matter whether it is morally right or wrong, or good for society or not. Although well past retirement age, he continues to work for the Tennessee legislature despite being displaced in one position when the opposing party gained control of the legislature.

Mervin Perry, PhD, professor emeritus, East Tennessee State University The Way I See It Joseph K. Chan, 2014-11-21 This book offers hope and inspiration to people who are visually impaired. People who have other bodily impairments. Parents who have a physically challenged child. People who ponder about the purpose of life. Born with not one but two rather restrictive birth defects, Joseph Chan faced multiple challenges in coping as a little child. In addition to the stress of keeping up in school, the stigma of being different experienced in both his family and school was a burden in building self-esteem. These challenges permeated his life as a young adult. Trying to start a career in accounting and building a social life was a long and difficult learning process Despite a disadvantaged beginning this is a story of love faith and personal triumph over fate The Way I See It is Joseph Chan s spiritual journey to discover his life s purpose and to share the hope and inspiration that he has found with those who might also benefit from it Memories and Hope

Guillermina Connor,2007 Guillermina Georgina Andrew Connor was born and raised into a world where manners and moral codes dictated how the individual would act and in some cases even think She was expected to sacrifice her desires and opinions in order not to upset the established order of things In this story she uses her memories as a lens of consciousness through which to see life Through her leadership in spiritual things Guillermina s family learned that God is sovereign in times of trouble Guillermina Connor s brilliant use of realism makes this a timeless story of love for her family Her strong faith and simple approach is a realistic view of the Hispanic culture Teacher Reflections on Transitioning From K-12 to Higher Education Classrooms Broemmell, Amy D.,Vines, Nora,2022-04-15 Education is a field in which reflective practice is imperative for teacher and student success and for maintaining the desire to remain in the profession During times of uncertainty particularly as teachers faced the dual pandemics of social injustice and the COVID 19 pandemic over the past year they have felt demoralized and powerless As a result burnout among educators is becoming increasingly prevalent It is crucial for teachers to hear reflections of others experiences to remind them that they are not alone in their work provide opportunities for them to find connections with fellow educators and encourage them to engage in reflective practices of their own Teacher Reflections on Transitioning From K 12 to Higher Education Classrooms provides a collection of reflections from educators on their varied experiences within education and how and why they have pursued a place in academia This book speaks to the humanistic side of academia by acknowledging the multiple passions professions and pathways that led each of the authors to academia It is unique in that it is laced with the lived realities of the human side of academia from a shared stories perspective Covering topics such as lifelong learners and identity shifts this major reference work is ideal for academicians researchers scholars practitioners principals administrators educators and students
