First Line Winter 2004:

Craftsmen of the Army Prince Philip, 2017-10-30 The Corps of Royal Electrical and Mechanical Engineers REME provides the Army's integral repair and recovery capability. Its soldiers are deployed at the front line and have to be capable of switching instantly from a technical role to fighting alongside those they support as their many awards for gallantry demonstrate. This is the third volume of REME's distinguished history, covering the period from post-Cold War drawdown to the end of UK combat operations in Afghanistan, during which time REME was continuously involved in operations. The narrative knits together personal accounts of front-line experiences with an explanation of the political and military background, with a particular focus on equipment support issues. It explains how REME operates and deals with broader issues related to the procurement and support of equipment and the changing organizations delivering these vital services, within which members of REME have frequently played key enabling roles. Literary Magazine Review, 2005

The Autonomous City Alexander Vasudevan, 2017-05-16 A radical history of squatting and the struggle for the right to remake the city. The Autonomous City is the first popular history of squatting as practised in Europe and North America. Alex Vasudevan retraces the struggle for housing in Amsterdam, Berlin, Copenhagen, Detroit, Hamburg, London, Madrid, Milan, New York, and Vancouver. He looks at the organisation of alternative forms of housing from Copenhagen's Freetown Christiania to the squats of the Lower East Side, as well as the official response, including the recent criminalisation of squatting, the brutal eviction of squatters, and their widespread vilification. Pictured as a way to reimagine and reclaim the city, squatting offers an alternative to housing insecurity, oppressive property speculation, and the negative effects of urban regeneration. We must more than ever reanimate and remake the urban environment as a site of radical social transformation. The Dynamics of Rhetorical Performances in Late Antiquity Alberto J. Quiroga Puertas, 2018-10-09 This book argues that narrations of rhetorical performances in late antique literature can be interpreted as a reflection of the ongoing debates of the time. Competition among cultural elites, strategies of self-presentation, and the making of religious orthodoxy often took the shape of narrations of rhetorical performances in which comments on the display of oratorical skills also incorporated moral and ethical judgments about the performer. Using texts from late antique authors, in particular Themistius, Synesius of Cyrene, and Libanius of Antioch, this book proposes that this type of narrative should be understood as a valuable way to decipher the cultural and religious landscape of the fourth century AD. The volume pays particular attention to narrations of deficient rhetorical deliveries, arguing that the accounts of flaws and mistakes in oratorical displays and rhetorical performances reveal how late antique literature echoed the concerns of the time. Criticisms of deficient deliveries in different speaking occasions, declamations, public speeches, oratorical agones, school exercises, sermons, were often disguised as accusations of practising magic, heresy, or cultural apostasy. A close reading of the sources shows that these oratorical deficiencies hid struggles over religious, cultural, and political issues.

America in the World Frank Costigliola, Michael J. Hogan, 2013-12-23 This volume includes historiographical surveys of American foreign relations since 1941 by some of the country's leading historians. Some of the essays offer sweeping overviews of the major trends in the field of foreign international relations history. Others survey the literature on US relations with particular regions of the world or on the foreign policies of presidential administrations. The result is a comprehensive assessment of the historical literature on US foreign policy that highlights recent developments in the field.

The Complete Poems of A. R. Ammons A. R. Ammons, 2018-12-18 An essential volume from a master maker Richard Howard. If you will sit with me in the light of speech I will sit with you. Readers who accept that invitation will find themselves in extraordinary company. The Complete Poems of A. R. Ammons Volume II presents the second half of Archie Randolph Ammons's long career including the complete texts of his two book-length poems from that period: Garbage for which he won his second National Book Award and Glare which drew special praise from the Academy of American Poets as it bestowed on him its highest honor the Wallace Stevens Award. In addition two appendices offer over one hundred and twenty previously uncollected poems dating from the 1950s to the late 1990s. Among this volume's many highlights are celebrations of the natural world such as Hermit Lark and Lofty Calling; poems of remembrance as in Chinaberry and Keeping Track; prayers Singling, Doubling Together and Autonomy; and compelling meditations on loss and mortality such as Easter Morning and In View of the Fact. As in Volume I the variety of scale is remarkable ranging from the massiveness of Glare to the haiku-like brevity of Pebble's Story. The text of each poem has been established after careful consideration of Ammons's manuscripts and other prepublication materials. Endnotes detail the poems' composition and publication histories and also helpfully annotate references made within the poems. Celebrated poetry critic Helen Vendler's introduction both humanizes Ammons and traces the growth of his outsized stature as a major poet unquestionably among the best-loved poets of our time. News-makers, 2007

Grimspound and Inhabiting Art Rod Mengham, 2018-12-13 Rod Mengham's new offering comprises two complementary halves: a poetic meditation on a place, the Bronze Age site of Grimspound on Dartmoor, and a series of short essays on different cultural habitats. Grimspound is a four-part work combining prose and verse composed on site over the course of ten years. It combines a wild analysis of Hound of the Baskervilles whose climactic scene takes place at Grimspound, a portrait of the Victorian excavator Sabine Baring Gould, and a series of poems that draw on the Russian linguist Aharon Dolgopolsky's experimental Nostratic Dictionary. Inhabiting Art gathers essays on cultural history in relation to landscape and cityscape viewed either episodically or in the form of a palimpsest where the present state of the habitat both reveals and conceals its own history and prehistory.
