Kant and the Reorientation of Aesthetics Joseph J. Tinguely, 2017-10-02 This book argues that the philosophical significance of Kant's aesthetics lies not in its explicit account of beauty but in its implicit account of intentionality. Kant's account is distinct in that feeling affect or mood must be operative within the way the mind receives the world. Moreover these modes of receptivity fall within the normative domain so that we can hold each other responsible for how we are struck by an object or scene. Joseph Tinguely composes a series of investigations into the philosophically rich but regrettably neglected topics at the intersection of Kant's aesthetics and epistemology such as how we orient ourselves in the world whether tonality is a property of the subject or object and what we hope to accomplish when we quarrel about taste. Taken together these investigations offer a robust and defensible picture of mind which not only resolves tensions in a Kantian account of intentionality but also offers a timely intervention into contemporary debates about the aesthetic nature of the way the mind is in touch with the world. Kant and the Reorientation of Aesthetics will appeal to scholars and students of Kant as well as those working at the intersection of aesthetics and philosophy of mind.

Jansen, Čarna Brković, Vanja Čelebičić, 2016-07-15 Negotiating Social Relations in Bosnia and Herzegovina. Exploring recent configurations of social relations in post socialist post war post Yugoslav Bosnia and Herzegovina, this collection of ethnographic research turns an analytical lens on questions of sociality. Contributions based on long term in depth research projects explore how people in different parts of BiH make and remake social relations and outline how their practices of sociality relate to donor set priorities and formal human rights provisions. The book explores the socio political concerns which have emerged within BiH, incites interdisciplinary conversations and sheds critical light on ways of engaging with these concerns and discusses forms of sociality, politics and agency which remain largely absent from the official political discourse and practice of local and foreign actors. Explicitly focusing on social relations in BiH against the historical background of both war and Yugoslav socialism and directly placing these in relation to authoritative discourses and policies regarding BiH today brings the different strands together while the commentaries of specialists who have studied BiH in different ways explicitly situates the contribution of ethnographic work in the country.
