The Rendezvous and Other Stories Patrick O'Brian, 1995-11-17 A collection of startlingly vivid short stories from Patrick O'Brian author of the highly acclaimed Aubrey Maturin series Patrick O'Brian has emerged in the opinion of many as one of the greatest novelists in English His fame rests mainly on the achievement of the epic Aubrey Maturin novels but few readers know that O'Brian first made his reputation as a writer of short fiction Collected here are twenty seven stories that O'Brian wished to preserve stories of uncommon lyricism and beauty that will confirm his rightful place in the front rank of short story writers as well as of novelists Although the tone of this collection ranges effortlessly from the humorous to the dramatic the most characteristic and memorable stories often have to do with a glimpse of savage destructive forces through the fragile shell of human civilization The threatened chaos may be psychological as in On the Wolfsberg or it may be lurking in the natural world as in A Passage of the Frontier or as in the dark masterpiece The Chian Wine it is suddenly discovered in the ancient irrational impulses of human nature The setting may be the marshes of western Ireland the Pyrenees or the claustrophobic confines of a clockmender's house but each story is a showcase for Patrick O Brian's fresh and meticulous prose each story reaffirms his sympathetic understanding of human passion and suffering This collection proves that O Brian is not simply the master of a genre but an author who will long be honored as one of our most eminent literary figures

Chinodya: Can We Talk and Other Stories, 2023-01-10 Shimmer
Chinodya winner of the 1989 Commonwealth Writers Prize Africa region is one of Zimbabwe's foremost fiction writers This collection of short stories reveals his development as a writer of passionate questioning integrity The first stories Hoffman Street and The Man who Hanged Himself capture the bewildered innocence of a child's view of the adult world where behaviour is often puzzling and contradictory stories such as Going to See Mr B V provide the transition between the world of the adult and that of the child where the latter is required to act for himself in a situation where illusions founder on a narrow reality Among the Dead and Brothers and Sisters look wryly at the self-conscious self-centred desperately serious world of young adulthood while Playing your Cards The Waterfall Strays and Bramson introduce characters for whom ambition disillusion and disappointment jostle for attention in a world where differences of class culture race and morality come to the fore Finally in Can we Talk we conclude with an abrasive lucid sinewy voice which explores the nature of estrangement The charge is desolation Can we Talk and Other Stories speaks of the unspoken and unsaid The child who watches but does not understand the young man who observes but cannot participate the man who stands outside not sure where his desires and ambitions lead the older man estranged by his own choices Can we Talk is not a question but a statement that insists on being heard and demands a reassessment of our dreams
