Fish Tales and Other Stories to Get Hooked On Ralph Martell,1992-11-01 Fish Tales and Other Stories ... Gus Gusfaston,2007-04 This book is the first in a series of short stories that feature my favorite fishing tales page vii Fish Tales and Other Lies Stephen Tate,2004 Steve Tate has been soaking worms since he was old enough to stretch the truth His collection of fishing stories from around the world will entertain fishermen and people who have never been near the water Fish Tales Lamar Underwood,2023-05-15 Fish Tales is a collection of some of the greatest fishing stories ever written It will entertain enlighten and inspire fishers the world over These are enduring stories that have passed the test of time and have attracted generations of readers They are custom made for the imaginative reader who loves to fish and read about fishing adventures Included are stories by Washington Irving Jerome K Jerome John Buchan Lewis Carroll Rudyard Kipling Roland Pertwee Andrew Lang Henry Van Dyke R D Blackmore Anton Chekhov John Taintor Foote G E M Skues and all the others in this fine collection who have given pleasure for generations and will give great pleasure to modern anglers too Fishing Tales and Other Tales Vincent Bossley,2010-08-19 Collection of short stories of fishing and boating adventures in New Zealand and the South Pacific Islands New Zealand is renowned worldwide as a fishing paradise and the author has many years experience in these waters With many a tale to tell you can be sure to hear more from this author in the future Turbo's Very Life and Other Stories Carroll Dale Short,2005-01-01 In the eighteen stories in this retrospective of his best short fiction Dale Short shows why he is one of the best prose stylists of his generation and why he deserves a break out success Short s writing has been hailed by Wally Lamb as simultaneously mythical and modern a wild ride and Dennis Covington has called him wise and compassionate a major Southern writer He writes here from many perspectives male female first person third person grieving widow newly divorced dad jailed redneck riverman laid up with heart trouble conjure woman and in every story the voice is as true as that of a child and as clear as fresh ice The marvel of Short s prose is that the writing is so good it disappears leaving the reader surrounded only by the story which resonates long after the last word is absorbed The other remarkable thing is how Short can go from comedy to tragedy within a single paragraph sometimes within a single sentence and then back again His timelines here range from the Civil War to the near future and the locales vary from a Kentucky mining town to the Gulf Coast of Mexico to the constellation Orion all in all a rare feast for the imagination Stories that have appeared before only in magazines this collection charts more than two decades of the growth and exploration of an author who won the first Redbook Fiction Prize at the age of twenty seven and whose acclaimed novel The Shining Shining Path was called by reviewers Southern magical realism and praised by Publishers Weekly as boldly imaginative a provocative spiritual odyssey Publishers Weekly added Short takes risks in a single paragraph that many writers never attempt in an entire novel By Rock and Pool on an Austral Shore, and Other Stories Louis Becke,2019-12-09 In By Rock and Pool on an Austral Shore and Other Stories Louis Becke intricately weaves a collection of narratives that delve into the lives of South Seas islanders and European adventurers. The stories are marked by Becke's vivid descriptions of the Australian landscape capturing the light and color of the shores and the intricate rhythms of island life. His literary style merges realism with romanticism, creating a rich tapestry that resonates with the cultural and social themes of colonialism, adventure, and human connection. Set against the backdrop of the late 19th century, these tales reflect a transitional period in Australian literature, bridging the gap between narrative exploration and the romanticized views of the South Pacific.

Louis Becke, an Australian writer born in 1855, drew from his extensive experiences as a seaman and trader in the South Seas. His personal encounters with diverse cultures and the challenges of navigating colonial expression imbued his work with authenticity and insight. Becke's travels brought an intimate understanding of the complex interplay between European and indigenous lifestyles, making his narratives not only entertaining but also profoundly poignant reflections on identity and place. This collection is a must-read for those interested in colonial literature and the evolving narratives of Australian identity. Becke's stories not only transport readers to a distant shore but also challenge them to reflect on the broader implications of cultural encounter. Whether for scholars, students, or casual readers, this book offers a rich exploration of the human experience through the lens of a unique historical moment.

Boundless Deep, and Other Stories Gen Del Raye, 2023-09. Named a Public Picks 2023 by Public Books Long List for the 2024 PEN Robert W. Bingham Prize for Debut Short Story. Winner of the Raz Shumaker Prairie Schooner Book Prize in Fiction. Boundless Deep and Other Stories is a portrait of a family that holds together despite everything. By turns introspective, surreal, and bitingly funny, this collection of linked short stories spans seven decades across Japan and the United States and shows the tenacity of relationships fractured by language and distance. At the funeral of her old boss, a grandmother confronts the legacy of the draft letters she delivered as a girl during World War II. Facing the loss of his job, a father becomes the caricature strangers have always believed him to be. A graduate student living far from home is worn down by the reality of what it takes to save even a small piece of the world. Along the way, we meet communist revolutionary Shigenobu, Fusako hiding out in a Tokyo hotel, a submariner, and war criminal Nishina. Sekio, in his tortured dreams, and Edwin, a half-dolphin friend wreaking havoc in a public pool. Written in the compressed style of Amy Hempel and Lucia Berlin, these stories examine characters whose struggles submerge them, weighing them down from every angle until they can finally float free.
