Time Travel David Wittenberg, 2016-01-01 This stimulating contribution to literary theory reveals the deeply philosophical concerns and developments behind popular time travel sci fi London Review of Books In Time Travel literary theorist David Wittenberg argues that time travel fiction is not mere escapism but a narrative laboratory where theoretical questions about storytelling and by extension about the philosophy of temporality history and subjectivity are presented in story form Drawing on physics philosophy narrative theory psychoanalysis and film theory Wittenberg links innovations in time travel fiction to specific shifts in the popularization of science from nineteenth century evolutionary biology to twentieth century quantum physics and more recent multiverse cosmologies Wittenberg shows how popular awareness of new science led to surprising innovations in the literary time machine which evolved from a vehicle used for sociopolitical commentary into a psychological device capable of exploring the temporal structure and significance of subjects viewpoints and historical events Time Travel draws on classic works of science fiction by H G Wells Edward Bellamy Robert Heinlein Samuel Delany and Harlan Ellison television shows such as The Twilight Zone and Star Trek and other popular entertainments These are read alongside theoretical work ranging from Einstein Schrödinger Stephen Hawking to Gérard Genette David Lewis and Gilles Deleuze Wittenberg argues that even the most mainstream audiences of popular time travel fiction and cinema are vigorously engaged with many of the same questions about temporality identity and history that concern literary theorists media and film scholars and philosophers Dancing the Tao Sandra J. Lindow, 2012-11-15 Dancing the Tao Le Guin and Moral Development takes an original approach to Ursula K Le Guin's work speculative fiction poetry and children's literature by considering her Taoist upbringing and then looking through the lens of moral development theorists such as Carol Gilligan and Mary Field Belenky and psychologists such as Lenore Terr and Jennifer J Freyd It is the most comprehensive approach to Le Guin's moral thinking to date A particular emphasis is put on Le Guin's depiction of physical and sexual child abuse and its long term aftereffects such as post traumatic stress disorder The focus throughout the book is on how morality develops through self awareness and voice how moral decisions are made and how Le Guin challenges readers to reconsider their own

moral thinking This book covers all of Le Guin's major works such as The Left Hand of Darkness The Dispossessed the Earthsea Series Always Coming Home The Telling and Lavinia and it also looks in depth at work that is rarely discussed such as Le Guin's early work her poetry and her picture books
