to four years Congregational Evangelism in Philippians Mark J. Keown, 2009-02-19 Did Paul want his congregations to pick up the ministry of evangelism or did he envisage himself and other specialist proclaimers continuing the ministry of the gospel Dr Keown begins by outlining the contours of differing responses to this question ranging from exclusively specialist evangelism to believers full participation in evangelic mission He then explores the question through exegetical analysis of Philippians He argues persuasively that one essential element of the rhetorical appeal of the letter is an injunction to the believers in Philippi to continue to preach the gospel with renewed unity and in the face of pagan opposition He suggests that Paul envisaged specialist proclaimers leading the evangelical mission and equipping general believers to share the gospel as one dimension of living in the world Paul's Understanding of the Church's Mission Robert L.

Plummer, 2006-06-01 Did Paul expect his churches to engage in evangelistic activity which mirrored his own Or have modern readers of the Bible wrongly projected Paul's apostolic passion upon the communities that he founded Such is the charge of several recent authors and if their thesis is correct nothing could have larger implications for how the modern church engages in mission In this book Robert L Plummer engages in a careful study of Paul's letters to determine if the apostle expected the communities to which he wrote to engage in outward directed missionary activity Plummer helpfully summarizes the discussion to date on the debated issue judiciously handles contested texts and provides a way forward in addressing this critical question While admitting that Paul rarely explicitly commands the communities he founded to evangelize Plummer amasses significant incidental data to provide a convincing case that Paul did indeed expect his churches to engage in outward directed missionary activity Throughout the study Plummer progressively builds a theological basis for the church's mission that is both compelling and distinctively Pauline A Survey of the New Testament Robert

H. Gundry, 2009-08-01 The 4th edition of this widely used guide to reading and interpreting the New Testament This revised edition of Gundry's survey of the New Testament goes beyond providing background information and technical introductory material and leads students to read the New Testament itself Whenever possible general questions of introduction and background are tied to assigned readings covering the entire New Testament In addition comments on these readings help students with interpretation and follow the flow of thought from one passage to another Features include New design with four color format and more photos and improved maps Chapters begin with list of study goals and end with summary overview and of people places terms to remember and review questions Outlines section headings subheadings and bolded items make it easy to follow structure of discussion Phonetic pronunciations for unfamiliar names and terms Breakouts with illustrative quotes from ancient nonbiblical literature Discussion questions on the contemporary relevance of the New Testament Updated bibliographies Conservative evangelical theological perspective also notes other positions and literature

Following Christ Robert B. Callahan Sr., 2012-06-11 The latter half of Chapter 4 of Paul's letter to the Ephesians is the watershed of this magnificent document that is often referred to as the holy of holies Paul was never hesitant to declare God

s truth as he proclaimed it to those professing faith in the Lord Jesus Christ Therefore after praising The Triune God for the love wisdom and blessings bestowed upon us during the first three and one half chapters Paul does an about face and enjoins the believers with these strong words saying This I testify in the Lord that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk in the vanity futility of their mind He is telling the hearers that once they are Christ s they are to walk to a different drummer the Master Himself Paul completes the watershed transition by reminding professing Christians But ye have not so learned Christ It is with these simple single syllable words that he opens new horizons for the members of Christ s body and paves the way for enunciating the duties and responsibilities they are to learn and to do when Following Christ This learning and practicing is not easy but it is joyful rewarding and worthwhile That is why Paul before embarking on Christ s learning pathway tells the followers in the way to put off the old man be renewed in the spirit of your mind And put on the new man which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness May we heed God s truth as revealed to Paul by the Holy Spirit These blessings are comforting strengthening and manifold when committing ourselves to Walking With Jesus NIVAC
