Competitive Transformation of the Postal and Delivery Sector Michael A. Crew, Paul R. Kleindorfer, 2012-12-06

Competitive Transformation of the Postal and Delivery Sector is an indispensable source of information and analysis on the current state of the postal and delivery sector. It offers current insights of leading researchers and practitioners into strategy and regulation as well as the economics of this sector. Issues addressed include national and international perspectives, financial viability, the universal service obligation, regulation, competition, entry, the role of scale and scope economies, the nature and role of cost and demand analysis in postal service productivity, interaction of law and economics, human resources, transition and reform issues. The papers in the book were selected from the papers presented at the 11th Conference on Postal and Delivery Economics, Toledo, Spain, June 4-7, 2003.

The Rise of Global Delivery Services James I. Campbell, Jr., James I. Campbell, 2001. Service Science in China Jiazhen Huo, Zhisheng Hong, 2013-01-06. A service economy era is coming. As the basic discipline of service dominant era, service science mainly studies common rules of service activities aiming to provide theoretical bases for creating service value in the new era. The book, which integrates knowledge of service management, operational management, logistics, and supply chain management, constructs a research system for this emerging discipline. Service science research system constitutes service philosophy, resource allocation, operational management, and service technology. Many cases about China's service enterprises are incorporated in the book in the hope of providing readers an insight into not only service science but also the development of China's service economy.

National Trade Estimate Report on Foreign Trade Barriers (25th Ed.) Ron Kirk, 2011. This is a print on demand edition of a hard to find publication. This annual report presents an inventory of the most important foreign barriers affecting U.S. exports of goods and services, foreign direct investment by U.S. persons, and protection of intellectual property rights. Such an inventory facilitates negotiations aimed at reducing or eliminating these barriers. The report also provides a valuable tool in enforcing U.S. trade laws with the goal of expanding global trade and strengthening the rules-based trading system which benefits all nations and U.S. producers and consumers in particular. The report provides quantitative estimates of the impact of these foreign practices on the value of U.S. exports. Includes info on some of the actions taken to eliminate foreign trade barriers. Charts and tables.
