External Evaluation Of The Esaf Report:

External Evaluation of the ESAF International Monetary Fund, 1998-06-24 One result of the IMF's move to increased openness are independent external evaluations of important IMF policies to complement its own in-house evaluations. This paper prepared by a team of evaluators includes in addition to the external evaluation a statement by Bernd Esdar Chairman of the Executive Director's group concerned with external evaluations, the summing up by IMF Managing Director Michel Camdessus of the Executive Board's discussion of the report, the terms of reference and the IMF staff's response to the evaluation. External Evaluation of the ESAF, 1998 Annual Report of the Executive Directors for the Fiscal Year International Monetary Fund, 1993 External Evaluation of IMF Economic Research Activities International Monetary Fund, 2000-04-11 This report commissioned by the Executive Board was prepared by a committee of academic economists. The report assesses the appropriateness of current research activities, the quality and added value of the IMF's economic research and its utility in the IMF among its member countries and within the wider economics community. This publication also includes responses to the report by the IMF's staff Managing Director and Executive Board. Reforming the Governance of the IMF and the World Bank Ariel Buira, 2005-11-01 The papers included in this book cover different aspects of the governance of the Bretton Woods institutions. They explore different options for reform and show that enhancing the participation of developing and emerging market countries in resolving the major monetary and financial problems confronting the world economy would improve global economic performance and contribute to the elimination of world poverty.

Uganda International Monetary Fund, 1999-10-20 This Selected Issues paper and Statistical Appendix analyzes poverty and social development in Uganda. The paper reviews recent poverty and inequality trends, examines how poor people are coping with risk and vulnerability, analyzes the relationship between economic growth, structural reform and poverty, and describes the government policies in these areas. The paper also provides a brief overview of major institutional developments in Uganda's financial sector since 1993 with regard to the legal accounting and general regulatory framework in which financial institutions operate. Poverty and Social Impact Analysis in PRGF-Supported Programs Ms. Gabriela Inchauste, 2002-12-01 This paper aims to inform on the status of Poverty and Social Impact Analysis (PSIA) in IMF supported programs, detailing the results presented in the recent review of PRGF supported programs. The review showed that more needs to be done both in undertaking PSIA when necessary and in reporting the policy tradeoffs in program documents. Policy design should be continuously informed by the results of PSIA. Globalization for Development Ian Goldin, Kenneth Reinert, 2012-02-16 The book defines the big historical trends, identifies the main globalization processes: trade, finance, aid, migration, and ideas, and examines how each can contribute to economic development. Development Centre Studies Trading Competitively: Trade Capacity Building in Sub-Saharan Africa Bonaglia Federico, Fukasaku Kiichiro, 2002-11-13 Presents evidence confirming the existence of a wide array of policy options for increasing business competitiveness and reducing dependence on primary commodities in Sub Saharan Africa IMF Survey International Monetary Fund.
