classic text retains the superb scholarship of the first edition in a thoroughly revised and accessibly written new edition With both new and updated essays by distinguished American and Canadian authors the book provides a comprehensive historical overview of the formation and growth of North American regions from European exploration and colonization to the second half of the twentieth century Collectively the contributors explore the key themes of acquisition of geographical knowledge cultural transfer and acculturation frontier expansion spatial organization of society resource exploitation regional and national integration and landscape change With six new chapters redrawn maps a new introduction that explores scholarly trends in historical geography since publication of the first edition and a new final chapter guiding students to the basic sources for historical geographic enquiry North America will be an indispensable text in historical geography courses The Invisible War Dr. Y. N. Kly,2020-10-15 his book challenges contemporary scholars to free the history of African Americans from the lexicon of enslavement and to set the record of their struggle straight It attempts to redress fundamental misconceptions lodged in the heart of American historiography That there was no significant collective resistance to or struggle against slavery by captured Africans who had been forcibly immigrated to the United States from the mother continent That the Seminole Wars were simply another set of Indian wars rather than wars which marked the collective African resistance to the enslavement system That the records of the period official documents newspaper records etc were accurate descriptions of fact rather than censored materials produced in wartime with a view to enhancing public support and calming public fears That self liberated Africans mostly fled northward to freedom rather than southward to the free territories of Georgia and Florida Public Library Catalog ,1999 Alice Munro's Bestiary Héliane Ventura,2024-10-09 Taking its cue from medieval bestiaries this alphabet book is composed of 63 entries ranging from ADDER to WOLFHOUSES with each entry juxtaposing an image an excerpt from a story by Alice Munro and a commentary The images are reproduced from original medieval illuminations the excerpts feature an animal or a human being depicted through animal comparison and the commentaries highlight the way Munro suggests relationality between the human and the non human Munro troubles the boundaries between good and evil as she troubles the boundaries between human and non human Through the mask of the animal she effects a release from strict morality and proposes an uncommon and undomesticated representation of human life revolving on simultaneous transcendence and derision The volume will appeal to Munro scholars and to lovers of Alice Munro alike because it solves some of the enigmas set by her stories but suggests other riddles and more secrets
