Fabric Of Moroccan Life:

The Fabric of Moroccan Life Niloo Imami Paydar, Ivo Grammet, Indianapolis Museum of Art, 2002 For centuries the people of Morocco have been producing magnificent embroideries pile rugs and flatweaves The Fabric of Moroccan Life showcases rare embroideries hangings and rugs that reflect the broad range of traditions and cultural influences active in Morocco during the 18th 19th and 20th centuries The book explores the artistic importance of these superb weavings as well as their central role in Moroccan culture Approximately 150 pieces and numerous details are illustrated in colour and additional photographs including many that were taken in the 1930s show how they were once used in everyday life in Morocco The book includes essays on Moroccan embroidery and its origins traditional costumes of the cities and rural areas the weavings of the Berbers and other ethnic groups and the distinctive characteristics of items made by particular ethnic sub groups The contributing writers are eminent scholars and experts in a variety of fields including Moroccan history and culture Moroccan rugs textiles and clothing and natural dyes A wealth of information is included that has never before been available in one volume Niloo Imami Paydar is curator of textiles and costumes at the Indianapolis Museum of Art Ivo Grammet is coordinator of a new museum in Nador northern Morocco The contributors include Gerald Boily Gebhard Blazek Katherine Dolk Ellis Narjys El Alaoui Mustapha Hansali Annette Korolnik Andersch Marcel Korolnik Zineb Lehman Russell Pickering Ahmed Skounti Frieda Sorber Wilfried Stanzer and Marie France Vivier Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World \(2 Vol. Set\) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Women Artisans of Morocco Susan Schaefer Davis, 2018-04-15 Morocco Ancient cities adobe fortresses of centuries past fertile plains of wheat and olives carpets of wildflowers endless deserts wild mountains and isolated rural villages And of course the fabled open air markets framed with stacks of woven rugs and other handicrafts exotic scents wafting through the aisles the hum of Arabic Berber French Within this diverse land and confluence of cultures many rich and ancient craft traditions carry on women spin and weave make buttons embroider designs passed down through generations and sew stunning native costumes Women Artisans of Morocco tells the stories of twenty five women who practice these textile traditions with an inspiring energy pride and fortitude For the first time we have a book that focuses on the artisans of Morocco themselves those who produce these beautiful textiles that contribute substantially to their family's income while maintaining households and raising children You will step into the lives of these Moroccan women artisans and gain an appreciation for their artistic skills and ingenuity but also for their strong roles in this supposedly male dominated society their fierce independence and determination as they work to improve their economic livelihoods You will be welcomed into their homes in rural Berber villages in bustling cities and in a remarkable desert oasis You will begin to learn truly what it is like to live as a woman in Morocco and to be part of a rapidly changing society Most of the women presented here are rug weavers whose ancient skills and designs vary from region to region You will also meet Fes embroidery artists women who needle weave buttons that have decorated native costumes for centuries and a contemporary seamstress Joe Coca s award winning photography guided by his curious and reverent sensibility captures the beauty of the women their work and Morocco

Midnight in Marrakesh: A Culinary Journey Sean Clover, From the bustling souks of Marrakech to the tranquil coastal towns of Essaouira Morocco s culinary landscape is a tapestry of textures aromas and tastes The smells of cumin and saffron wafting through the air the vibrant colors of spices displayed in earthenware jars the clinking of teacups and the laughter of friends sharing a meal these are the sensory experiences that define Moroccan cuisine This book is your passport to this captivating world Whether you re a seasoned cook seeking new culinary adventures or a curious beginner eager to explore global cuisines Midnight in Marrakesh will guide you through the intricacies of Moroccan cooking from mastering the art of tagine preparation to understanding the cultural significance of mint tea

Islamic Art in the 19th Century Doris Behrens-Abouseif, Stephen Vernoit, 2006 This collection of essays provides a timely reassessment of nineteenth century Islamic art and architecture The essays demonstrate that the arts of that era were vibrant and diverse making ingenious use of native traditions and materials or adopting imported conventions and new technologies However traditionalists revivalists and modernists all referred in one way or another to an Islamic heritage whether to reinvent revive or reject it Beginning with an historical introduction and an assessment of changing attitudes towards the visual arts the following essays provide case studies of architecture and art in Ottoman Turkey Egypt Morocco sub Saharan Africa Iran Central Asia India and the Caribbean They examine such issues as patronage sources of artistic inspiration and responses to European art The essays have a relevance and importance for our understanding of the societies and attitudes of that time and have a direct bearing on the more general debate concerning cultural identity and the integration of modern ideas in the Muslim world The book is richly illustrated with very many illustrations in black and white and in full colour

Amazigh Arts in Morocco Cynthia Becker, 2014-04-15 In southeastern Morocco around the oasis of Tafilalet the Ait Khabbash people weave brightly colored carpets embroider indigo head coverings paint their faces with saffron and wear ornate jewelry Their extraordinarily detailed arts are rich in cultural symbolism they are always breathtakingly beautiful and they are typically made by women Like other Amazigh Berber groups but in contrast to the Arab societies of North Africa the Ait Khabbash have entrusted their artistic responsibilities to women Cynthia Becker spent years in Morocco living among these women and through family connections and female fellowship achieved unprecedented access to the artistic rituals of the Ait Khabbash The result is more than a stunning examination of the arts themselves it is also an illumination of women s roles in Islamic North Africa and the many ways in which women negotiate complex social and religious issues One of the reasons Amazigh women are artists is that the arts are expressions of ethnic identity and it follows that the guardians of Amazigh identity ought to be those who literally ensure its continuation from generation to generation the Amazigh women Not surprisingly the arts are visual expressions of womanhood and fertility symbols are prevalent Controlling the visual symbols of Amazigh identity has given these women power and prestige Their clothing tattoos and jewelry are public identity statements such public artistic expressions contrast with the stereotype that women in the Islamic world are secluded and veiled But their role as public identity symbols can also be restrictive and history French colonialism the subsequent rise of an Arab dominated government in Morocco and the recent emergence of a transnational Berber movement has forced Ait Khabbash women to adapt their arts as their people adapt to the contemporary world By framing Amazigh arts with historical and cultural context Cynthia Becker allows the reader to see the full measure of these fascinating artworks

Two Questers in the Twentieth-century North Africa Imen Ayari Cozzo, 2016-09-23 This book offers a unique exploration of the work of Paul Bowles and Ibrahim Alkoni and reveals timely insights into the relationship between the West and the Orient showing that they both challenge and extend existing scholarship on this subject It builds on a sound theoretical platform which serves as a solid foundation for the analysis of the overarching theme Theories of place representation Orientalism and post colonialism are discussed in depth and are linked to the deconstruction and analysis of the selected literary texts helping the reader understand the various quests and motivations of the protagonists of the works of Bowles and Alkoni The first part of the book looks into the work of Bowles and is based on the fact that many of the author's texts revolve around the theme of encounters between Western and Eastern cultures It adopts a specific focus on the North African space which is depicted from a number of different points of view including native French English and American perspectives The second section discusses the work of the Libyan author Ibrahim Alkoni as a quester for a Mythical Identity It introduces the reader to the significance of the desert in both classical and modern Arabic literature and its place in the Arabic cultural imaginary This work is highly original both in its approach and subject matter and as such it constitutes a valuable contribution to the study of comparative literature Arabic literature and postcolonial magical realist literature It offers many original insights into this little studied field demonstrating a successful venture into less trodden terrain
