Fabulas De Lo Visible:

Fábulas de lo visible Àngel Quintana, 2003 Fábulas de lo visible disecciona los mecanismos de los que dispone el cine como constructor de realidades autónomas. El libro arranca con un peculiar suceso: la realización de la película La Recepción de S. M. Alfonso XIII en Barcelona de 1904. Su particularidad reside en que su director Segundo de Chomón no pudo conseguir un buen emplazamiento para captar el evento: así en el film se impone más la presencia de la multitud expectante que la del personaje agasajado que queda difuso tras las cabezas de los espectadores. A ello Quintana contrapone el documental de Leni Riefenstahl sobre el congreso nacionalsocialista celebrado en 1934 en Nuremberg. El triunfo de la voluntad en que la escenografía y la organización del acto están ya concebidas para la cámara. No hay ningún respeto al orden cronológico: lo que importa es la arquitectura general de la representación y su ajuste a las necesidades estéticas del discurso político. Este es un estudio que indaga cómo el medio cinematográfico ha sido capaz de construir numerosas fábulas sobre lo visible y sobre las múltiples percepciones que se generan en un mundo marcado por lo virtual.

Rethinking the History of Education T. Popkewitz, 2013-06-05 Drawing on a wide variety of traditions and methods in historical studies from the humanities and social sciences, both this volume considers the questions: methods, goals, and frameworks. Historians of education from a wide variety of countries use to create the study of the history of education.

Globalization and the Study of Education Thomas S. Popkewitz, Fazal Rizvi, 2010-01-26 The National Society for the Study of Education is an organization of education scholars, professional educators, and policymakers dedicated to the improvement of education research, policy, and practice. Founded in 1901 by a small group of distinguished educators including John Dewey, Nicholas Murray Butler, and Charles Hubbard Judd, NSSE is the oldest national educational research organization in the United States. The mission of the National Society for the Study of Education is to investigate enduring and contemporary problems, disseminate the findings of its investigations, and engage members of the education community in study and discourse around those findings for the improvement of research, policy, and practice. One important way the Society accomplishes this mission is through the publication of its two volume yearbooks, now in their 108th year. Each volume of a yearbook deals with a separate topic of current concern to educators. With knowledgeable scholars and practitioners as contributing authors, the yearbooks are reliable and authoritative sources of information on timely educational topics. Some yearbooks have become landmark publications in the field with which they deal.

Fábulas feministas Suniti Namjoshi, 2003 A classical one indispensable of feminism postcolonial. It translated for the first time to Spanish. Suniti Namjoshi offers an ingenious one: a re-elaboration of fairytales of Greek myths and santritos. Through its histories, she shows like the allegory can constitute a takes deconciencia, criticizes always open to questioning of the officialidad. A gift to reflect on the power and the abuses, extremely necessary in the present times.
