Autobiography of an African Princess F. Massaquoi, 2013-11-18 This critical edition of Princess Fatima Massaquoi's memoirs begins with her birth in southern Sierra Leone, continues through her childhood in Liberia, moves on to Hamburg, Germany, where she lived and experienced the rise of the Nazi movement, and ends with her life in the United States.

Historical Dictionary of Sierra Leone Magbaily C. Fyle, 2006-03-27 Sierra Leone was founded albeit under British control with the highest hopes of being a refuge for liberated Africans and freed slaves. When the country received its independence, hopes for the future grew even stronger. Alas, its expectations came crashing down when the country's situation grew steadily worse after repeated military interventions and a devastating ten-year civil war that raged throughout the 1990s. Now that the war is over, there is once again renewed cause for optimism about the country's future as Sierra Leone becomes an active participant in African and world affairs. This new edition is based primarily on recent research on the country but covers the earliest known inhabitants, the colonial era, and the period of independence, including the very confusing turmoil of the recent past. The chronology briefly traces its history, and the introduction provides an essential overview of all the recent developments in the country. Hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries describe significant leaders, events, political parties, and movements, ethnic groups, and related political, economic, and social aspects. A bibliography is included to facilitate further research. Studies in the African Diaspora John P. Henderson, Harry Atwood

Reed, 1989 A memorial volume by former Ph.D. students of James R. Hooker, late Professor of African History at Michigan State University. Topics include missionaries in Africa, early nationalist politics in British West Africa, and Kenya slave drivers in the United States, the Garvey Movement in Dominica, and General Motors in South Africa. John P. Henderson is Professor of Economics, and Harry A. Reed is Associate Professor of History, both at Michigan State University. Area Handbook for

Ardyn Boone, 1986-01-01 The Sande Society of the Mende people of Sierra Leone is a secret female regulatory society that both guards and transmits the ideals of feminine beauty so fundamental to the aesthetic criteria in Mende culture. In this eloquent and moving book, Sylvia Ardyn Boone describes the Society, its rituals, and organization, and the mask worn by its members. Her book is an evocative account of Mende life and philosophy, as well as a unique contribution to the study of African art, one based on African conceptions about the person and the human body. This is a beautiful and beautifully written book. Boone writes in ways that reveal her evident devotion to Mende culture. John Picton, African Affairs. A major contribution to our ethnographic understanding of Mende culture and to understanding the way concepts of women's bodies encode
