Chapter 1 What They Found Lily was a brave and curious girl who lived in the middle of Willow Creek a lush green town where every house seemed to hide a story from the past On a rainy afternoon Lily chose to check out her grandmother s attic The raindrops were making a soothing sound on the windows and roofs The attic was full of old trunks worn out books and jewels that had been forgotten for a long time She carefully opened a wooden trunk that was shaking and as she did so she saw something strangely sparkling an old faded map that looked like it could lead her on journeys This wasn t just any map it had been carefully made with tiny details and symbols that seemed to move around on the page Lily was especially interested in a drawing of a certain kind of mountain that was marked with a magnet and was on what the map called the edge of the world Looking at this picture made Lily s heart race with excitement She had heard that the Magnetic Mountain was an amazing place where nature s forces behaved in strange ways using their unseen power to pull and push things and even people You could compare finding the map to finding the key that opens a locked door that hides secrets Lily had a lot of ideas and questions about the Magnetic Mountain in her head Why did a magnet mark it What secrets did it hide She liked going into the unknown because it made her feel brave and she knew that Max and Sara would be great company on their trip Max was known for being brave and wanting to see new things Sara was a great trip companion because she could notice a lot of things and loved puzzles As Lily told them about what she had found she showed them the map and the interesting mountain Their eyes shone with excitement and wonder as they thought about the exciting journey that lay ahead of them The mountain was said to have a magnetic pull on them but they were also pulled to it by the thrill of discovery and the chance that an experience there would make their friendship stronger The trip to Magnetic Mountain was being planned by Sara Max and Lily They talked about what gear they would need different routes and problems that might come up As their excitement grew long stories about the kids hiking into unknown territory spread through Willow Creek The map which was hidden and forgotten in a closet made them want to go on an adventure That piece of paper wasn t just any old piece of paper it was a key to a world full of secrets and surprises waiting to be found Lily held the map like a prize as they got ready to leave It was a guide that would show them places and help them make memories that would last a lifetime The trip to Magnetic Mountain was about more than just getting there It was also about regaining the fun of adventure the strength of friendship and the courage to go where no one has gone before
