From Day To Day With Dickens 191:

How to Create the Perfect Wife Wendy Moore, 2013-04-09 A captivating tale of one man's mission to groom his ideal mate Thomas Day an 18th century British writer and radical knew exactly the sort of woman he wanted to marry Pure and virginal yet tough and hardy and completely subervient to his whims But after being rejected by a number of spirited young women Day concluded that the perfect partner he envisioned simply did not exist in frivolous fashion obsessed Georgian society Rather than conceding defeat and giving up on his search for the woman of his dreams however Day set out to create her So begins the extraordinary true story at the heart of How to Create the Perfect Wife A few days after he turned twenty one and inherited a large fortune Day adopted two young orphans from the Founding Hospital and guided by the writings of Jean Jacques Rousseau and the principles of the Enlightenment attempted to teach them to be model wives Day's peculiar experiment inevitably backfired though not before he had taken his theories about marriage education and femininity to shocking extremes Stranger than fiction blending tragedy and farce How to Create the Perfect Wife is an engrossing tale of the radicalism and deep contradictions at the heart of the enlightenment From Paragraphs to Plots Matthew Clark, 2024-09-25 The novel has often been characterized as the art form without a form Although there may not be any rules for how to write a novel as Matthew Clark shows in his new work of practical analysis a good novel is as carefully formed as a good poem From Paragraphs to Plots uncovers large compositional features of narrative construction thereby excavating elements that constitute the architecture of the novel Clark begins by discussing the segmentation of narratives from the paragraph level up to the whole novel with case studies of the composition of Jane Austen's Emma and Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway The next chapter explores an important though often neglected feature of narrative architecture called ring composition a particular kind of repetition where the beginning and the end of a text are the same or similar From there Clark analyzes in detail two novels Ford Madox Ford's The Good Soldier and Joseph Heller's Catch 22 identifying the repetitions inversions links and fragmented narrations that comprise each narrative The book s second half focuses on simple and complex plot forms Examining iterations of simple forms plots that begin with a specific initiating event and proceed in an essentially regular chronological progression from beginning to middle to end Clark outlines several common beginnings Arrival Departure Meeting Need Birth Death and endings Departures Returns Marriages Need Satisfied Death along with a short account of less common ways to begin a novel Subsequent discussions examine devices used in complex plot forms such as Beginning with the Ending Second Chapter Retrospects Ghosts from the Past Multiple Retrospects One Day Novels One Year Novels Mirror Plots Simultaneous Narration Unnatural Chronology and Non Narrative Elements The final chapter draws together the preceding discussions with a detailed case study of a recent novel Viet Thanh Nguyen s Pulitzer Prize winning The Sympathizer By analyzing common practices of narrative construction From Paragraphs to Plots identifies sources of beauty and meaning in literature approaching the aesthetic and the thematic as simultaneous and inextricable increasing sense of personal response to the Incarnation and Passion of Christ and of participation in His redemptive work Chapters on hymnody of the Nativity and Passion illustrate the tendency of monastic poets the Learned tradition to focus on dogma mystery and paradox and carolists the Popular tradition to convey devotional tenderness Those on hymnody of the Holy Spirit illustrate a shift through the medieval period from representing pentecostal events to exploring their spiritual meaning During the Reformation and the Evangelical Revival the weight of hymnody shifts first to the Father and then to the Son's Passion and Atonement applied personally and inwardly re lived by the convert Most consistently hymnic representations of the Last Things shift their focus from collective to individual judgement from death as sleep until the general awakening to death as instant passage to reunion with family and friends As a hymnologist rather than a theologian Adey makes no pronouncements on the truth of Christian beliefs His focus is on how poets have expressed them over two millenia As such the book will interest not only students of religion but also those in such related disciplines as literature psychology history and sociology
