From Fragmentation to Wholeness Keith Umonwabisi Christopher Appolis,1993 From Fragmentation to Wholeness Keith Umonwabisi Christopher Appolis,1996 This book proposes the creation of a family therapy model The proposed model would stem from the particular circumstances of Black South African or Azanian families and would be context and culture specific The author provides a documented account of the socio economic and socio political circumstances of the Azanian family This account reveals the inextricable linkage between the Azanians family fragmentation their condition of deprivation and their perpetual experience of emotional upheaval Next the author argues that the same socio economic and socio political aspects which impinge upon the Azanian family are actually central to the family therapy theory and model and therefore must not be ignored The argument presented in this book demonstrates to readers how a community can be lead out of oppression and toward wholeness This book will appeal to black and white academians and practitioners of therapy From Fragmentation to Wholeness will be particularly appropriate for classes studying cultural diversity or the foundations for counseling and therapy Contents Foreword Acknowledgments List of Tables List of Figures The South African Scenario The Genesis of Fragmentation Fragmentation of Family Family Therapy A Critique of Two Major Schools
