From Napoleon to the Second International Alan John Percivale Taylor, 1993 Europe from Napoleon to the Second International A. J. P. Humanitarianism in the Modern World Norbert Götz, Georgina Brewis, Steffen Werther, 2020-07-23 This is an innovative new history of famine relief and humanitarianism The authors apply a moral economy approach to shed new light on the forces and ideas that motivated and shaped humanitarian aid during the Great Irish Famine the famine of 1921 1922 in Soviet Russia and the Ukraine and the 1980s Ethiopian famine They place these episodes within a distinctive periodisation of humanitarianism which emphasises the correlations with politico economic regimes the time of elitist laissez faire liberalism in the nineteenth century as one of ad hoc humanitarianism that of Taylorism and mass society from c 1900 1970 as one of organised humanitarianism and the blend of individualised post material lifestyles and neoliberal public management since 1970 as one of expressive humanitarianism The book as a whole shifts the focus of the history of humanitarianism from the imperatives of crisis management to the pragmatic mechanisms of fundraising relief efforts on the ground and finance This book is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

The Ordeal of Peace Adam R. Seipp, 2016-03-03 Historians know a great deal about how wars begin but far less about how they end Whilst much has been written about the forces passions and institutions that mobilized societies for war and worked to sustain that mobilization through years of struggle much less is known about the equally complex processes that demobilized societies in the wake of armed conflict As such this new book will be welcomed by scholars wishing to understand the effects of the Great War in its fullest context including the reactions behaviors and attitudes of ordinary Europeans during the tumultuous events of the years of demobilization Taking a transnational perspective on demobilization this study demonstrates that the experience of mass industrial war generated remarkably similar pressures within both the defeated and victorious countries Using as examples the important provincial centres of Munich and Manchester this book examines the experiences of European urban dwellers from the last year of the war until the early 1920s Utilizing a wide variety of sources from more than twenty archives in Germany Britain and the United States this book recovers voices from the period that are often lost in conventional narratives capturing the richness and diversity of the ideas visions and conflicts engendered by those difficult and tumultuous years The result is a book that paints a vivid picture of the difficulties that peace could bring to economies and societies that had rapidly and fully adapted to the demands of industrial world war
