From Class To Race Essays In White Marxism And Black Radicalism:

From Class to Race Charles Wade Mills, 2003 In From Class to Race Charles Mills maps the theoretical route that brought him to the innovative conceptual framework outlined in his academic bestseller The Racial Contract 1997 Mills argues for a new critical theory that develops the insights of the black radical political tradition While challenging conventional interpretations of key Marxist concepts and claims the author contends that Marxism has been white insofar as it has failed to recognize the centrality of race and white supremacy to the making of the modern world By appealing to both mainstream liberal values and the structuralism traditionally associated with the left Mills asserts that critical race theory can radicalize the mainstream Enlightenment and develop a new kind of contractarianism that deals frontally with race and other forms of social oppression rather than evading them

Blackness Visible Charles W. Mills, 2015-11-20 Charles Mills makes visible in the world of mainstream philosophy some of the crucial issues of the black experience Ralph Ellison's metaphor of black invisibility has special relevance to philosophy whose demographic and conceptual whiteness has long been a source of wonder and complaint to racial minorities Mills points out the absence of any philosophical narrative theorizing and detailing race's centrality to the recent history of the West such as feminists have articulated for gender domination European expansionism in its various forms Mills contends generates a social ontology of race that warrants philosophical attention Through expropriation settlement slavery and colonialism race comes into existence as simultaneously real and unreal ontological without being biological metaphysical without being physical existential without being essential shaping one's being without being in one's shape His essays explore the contrasting sums of a white and black modernity examine standpoint epistemology and the metaphysics of racial identity look at black Jewish relations and racial conspiracy theories map the workings of a white supremacist polity and the contours of a racist moral consciousness and analyze the presuppositions of Frederick Douglass's famous July 4 prognosis for black political inclusion Collectively they demonstrate what exciting new philosophical terrain can be opened up once the color line in western philosophy is made visible and addressed

Du Bois's Dialectics Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-01 With chapters that undertake ideological critiques of education religion the politics of reparations and the problematics of black radical politics in contemporary culture and society Du Bois's Dialectics employs Du Bois as its critical theoretical point of departure and demonstrates his and African Studies contributions to as well as contemporary critical theory's connections to critical pedagogy sociology of religion and reparations theory Rabaka offers the first critical theoretical treatment of the W E B Du Bois Booker T Washington debate which lucidly highlights Du Bois's transition from a bourgeois black liberal to a black radical and revolutionary democratic socialist

Class, Race and Education under Neoliberal Capitalism Dave Hill, 2024-06-07 With the onset of Austerity Capitalism and Immiseration Capitalism and with the increasing commodification marketisation and privatisation of society and of education Marxist Theory and Marxist Education Theory have taken on a new urgency In discussion questions for each chapter Race and the Foundations of Knowledge Joseph A. Young, Jana Evans Braziel, 2006 This anthology demonstrates the longstanding multifarious and major role that race has played in the formation of knowledge The authors demonstrate how race theory intersects with other bodies of knowledge by examining discursive records such as travelogues literature and historiography theoretical structures such as common sense pseudoscientific racism and Eurocentrism social structures of class advancement and identity and politico economic structures of capitalism colonialism and law Theories of Race and Racism Les Back, John Solomos, 2020-08-14 Theories of Race and Racism A Reader is an important and innovative collection that brings together extracts from the work of scholars both established and up and coming who have helped to shape the study of race and racism as an historical and contemporary phenomenon This second edition incorporates new contributions and editorial material and allows readers to explore the changing terms of debates about the nature of race and racism in contemporary societies All six parts are organized around the contributions made by theorists whose work has been influential in shaping theoretical debates The various contributions have been chosen to reflect different theoretical perspectives and to help readers gain a feel for the changing terms of theoretical debate over time As well as covering the main concerns of past and recent theoretical debates it provides a glimpse of relatively new areas of interest that are likely to attract more attention in years to come W.E.B. Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty-first Century Reiland Rabaka, 2007-01-01 W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century utilizes Du Bois s thought and texts to develop an informed critical theory of contemporary society This book broadens the base of critical theory making it more multicultural transethnic transgender and non Western European philosophy focused by placing it in dialogue with theory and phenomena that had been heretofore woefully neglected Taking the preeminent black intellectual of the twentieth century as his primary point of departure Reiland Rabaka identifies and analyzes several key contributions that Du Bois and the black racial tradition offer to those interested in redeveloping and racially revising contemporary critical social theory With chapters on critical race theory postcolonial theory feminism and Marxism this volume builds bridges from Africana Studies to disparate discursive communities accessibly demonstrating Du Bois s and the black radical tradition s contributions to and the potential impact on a wide range of new social scientific research and radical political struggles A Political Companion to W. E. B. Du Bois Nick Bromell, 2018-03-16 Literary scholars and historians have long considered W E B Du Bois 1868 1963 an extremely influential writer and a powerful cultural critic The author of more than one hundred books hundreds of published articles and founding editor of the NAACP journal The Crisis Du Bois has been widely studied for his profound insights on the politics of race and class in America An activist as well as a scholar Du Bois proclaimed I stand in utter shamelessness and say that whatever art I have for writing has been used always for propaganda for gaining the right of black folk to love and enjoy In A Political Companion to W E B Du Bois Nick Bromell assembles essays from both new and established scholars from a variety of disciplines to explore Du Bois s contributions to

American political thought The contributors establish a conceptual context within which to read the author revealing how richly and variously he engaged with the aesthetic and theological modalities of political thinking and action This volume further reveals how Du Bois s work challenges and revises contemporary political theory providing commentary on the author s strengths and limitations as a theorist for the twenty first century In doing so it helps readers gain an understanding of how Du Bois s work and life continue to stimulate lively and constructive debate about the theory and practice of democracy in America

Race, Ethnicity and Social Theory John Solomos,2022-07-01 Race Ethnicity and Social Theory provides a critical analysis of the main areas of scholarly research and debate about racial and ethnic relations over the past few decades The book covers substantive areas of scholarly debate in this fast changing field including race and social relations identities and the construction of the racial other feminism and race the relationship between race and nationalism antisemitism the evolution of new forms of racism race and political representation and more generally the changing debates about race and ethnicity in our global environment The book argues that there is a need for more dialogue across national and conceptual boundaries about how to develop the theoretical tools needed to understand both the historical roots of contemporary forms of racialised social and political relations and the contemporary forms through which race is made and re made A key argument that runs through the book is the need to develop conceptual frameworks that can help us to make sense of the changing forms of racial and ethnic relations in contemporary societies This means developing more dialogue across national research cultures as well as empirical research that seeks to engage with the key issues raised by contemporary theoretical debates The book will be of interest to both students wanting to develop a deeper understanding of this area of scholarship and to researchers of race ethnicity and migration working in various national and disciplinary environments

Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka,2009-01-16 Building on and going far beyond W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century and Du Bois s Dialectics Reiland Rabaka s Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory This book represents a climatic critical theoretical clincher that cogently demonstrates how Du Bois s rarely discussed dialectical thought interdisciplinarity intellectual history making radical political activism and world historical multiple liberation movement leadership helped to inaugurate a distinct Africana tradition of critical theory With chapters on W E B Du Bois C L R James Negritude Aime Cesaire and Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amilcar Cabral Africana Critical Theory endeavors to accessibly offer contemporary critical theorists an intellectual archaeology of the Africana tradition of critical theory and a much needed dialectical deconstruction and reconstruction of black radical politics These six seminal figures collective thought and texts clearly cuts across several disciplines and therefore closes the chasm between Africana Studies and critical theory constantly demanding that intellectuals not simply think deep thoughts develop new theories and theoretically support radical politics but be and constantly become political activists social organizers and cultural workers that is folk the Italian critical theorist Antonio Gramsci referred to as organic intellectuals In this sense then the series of studies gathered in Africana Critical Theory contribute not only to African Studies African American Studies Caribbean Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Postcolonial Studies but also to contemporary critical theoretical discourse across an amazingly wide range of traditional disciplines and radical political activism outside of and in many instances absolutely against Europe's ivory towers and the absurdities of the American academy

Unveiling Whiteness in the Twenty-First Century Veronica Watson, Deirdre Howard-Wagner, Lisa Spanierman, 2014-12-23 Unveiling Whiteness in the Twenty-First Century Global Manifestations Transdisciplinary Interventions is a tightly interconnected and richly collaborative book that will advance our understanding of why it is so difficult to reform and reimagine whiteness in the twenty-first century Composed after the election of the first black U.S. president post global financial crisis more than a decade after 9/11 and concomitant with a rash of xenophobic incidents across the globe the book distills several key themes associated with a post-millennial global whiteness the individual and collective emotions of whiteness the recentering of whiteness through governing and legal strategies and the retreats from social equity and justice that have characterized the late twentieth and twenty-first century nation-state It also attempts the difficult work of reimagining white identities and cultures for a new era Chapters in Unveiling Whiteness in the Twenty-First Century draw from the fields of African American studies English studies media studies philosophy political science psychology sociology education and women's studies Using transdisciplinarity as a mode of inquiry for the project and responding to the changing phenomenon of whiteness across several continents Australia Canada France Romania South Africa Sweden and the United States the collection brings together established and emerging scholars and a range of critical approaches to unveil and intervene in the ideologies of whiteness in our contemporary moment Unveiling Whiteness in the Twenty-First Century demonstrates that complex inquiry and activism are needed to challenge new iterations of whiteness in twenty-first century political and social spaces

Equality Renewed Christine Sypnowich, 2016-12-19 How should we approach the daunting task of renewing the ideal of equality In this book Christine Sypnowich proposes a theory of equality centred on human flourishing or wellbeing She argues that egalitarianism should be understood as seeking to make people more equal in the constituents of a good life Inequality is a social ill because of the damage it does to human flourishing unequal distribution of wealth can have the effect that some people are poorly housed badly nourished ill educated unhappy or uncultured among other things When we seek to make people more equal our concern is not just resources or property but how people fare under one distribution or another Ultimately the best answer to the question equality of what is some conception of flourishing since whatever policies or principles we adopt it is flourishing that we hope will be more equal as a result of our endeavours Sypnowich calls for both retrieval and innovation What is to be retrieved is the ideal of equality itself which is often assumed as a background condition of theories of justice yet at the same time dismissed as too homogenising abstract and rigid a criterion for political argument We must retrieve the ideal of equality as a central political principle In doing so she casts doubt on the value of focussing on cultural difference and rejects the idea of neutrality that dominates contemporary political philosophy in favour of a view of the state as enabling the betterment of its citizens

Race Frameworks Zeus Leonardo, 2015-04-26 This is a comprehensive introduction to the main frameworks for thinking about conducting research on and teaching about race and racism in education Renowned theoretician and philosopher Zeus Leonardo surveys the dominant race theories and more specifically focuses on those frameworks that are considered essential to cultivating a critical attitude toward race and racism The book examines four frameworks Critical Race Theory CRT Marxism Whiteness Studies and Cultural Studies A critique follows each framework in order to analyze its strengths and set its limits The last chapter offers a theory of race ambivalence which combines aspects of all four theories into one framework Engaging and cutting edge Race Frameworks is a foundational text suitable for courses in education and critical race studies

Doing Race in Social Studies Prentice T. Chandler, 2015-07-01 Race and racism are a foundational part of the global and American experience With this idea in mind our social studies classes should reflect this reality Social studies educators often have difficulties teaching about race within the context of their classrooms due to a variety of institutional and personal factors Doing Race in Social Studies Critical Perspectives provides teachers at all levels with research in social studies and critical race theory CRT and specific content ideas for how to teach about race within their social studies classes The chapters in this book serve to fill the gap between the theoretical and the practical as well as help teachers come to a better understanding of how teaching social studies from a CRT perspective can be enacted The chapters included in this volume are written by prominent scholars in the field of social studies and CRT They represent an original melding of CRT concepts with considerations of enacted social studies pedagogy This volume addresses a void in the social studies conversation about race how to think and teach about race within the social science disciplines that comprise the social studies Given the original nature of this work Doing Race in Social Studies Critical Perspectives is a much needed addition to the conversation about race and social studies education

Antiblackness Moon-Kie Jung, João H. Costa Vargas, 2021-03-01 Antiblackness investigates the ways in which the dehumanization of Black people has been foundational to the establishment of modernity Drawing on Black feminism Afropessimism and critical race theory the book's contributors trace forms of antiblackness across time and space from nineteenth century slavery to the categorization of Latinx in the 2020 census from South Africa and Palestine to the Chickasaw homelands from the White House to convict lease camps prisons and schools Among other topics they examine the centrality of antiblackness in the introduction of Carolina rice to colonial India the presence of Black people and Native Americans in the public discourse of precolonial Korea and the practices of denial that obscure antiblackness in contemporary France Throughout the contributors demonstrate that any analysis of white supremacy indeed of the world that does not contend with antiblackness is incomplete Contributors Mohan Ambikaipaker Jodi A Byrd Iyko Day Anthony Paul Farley Crystal Marie Fleming Sarah Haley Tanya Kater Hernandez
