Lines of Resistance Adrian Grafe, Jessica Stephens, 2014-01-10

Resistance is a key concept for understanding the twentieth and early twenty first centuries and for approaching the poetry of the period This collection of 15 critical essays explores how poetry and resistance interact set against a philosophical historical and cultural background In the light of the upheavals of the age and the changing perception of the nature of language resistance is seen to lie at the core of poetic preoccupations moving poetic language forward From this perspective the resistance of poetry is connected with the human call to solidarity resilience and ultimately meaning The volume covers poetry from Hardy Yeats and Auden among others to contemporary writers like Hugo Williams and Linton Kwesi Johnson

Resisting Alterities , 2021-11-01 This volume of essays poetry and prose fiction records various attempts to read the fracture zones created by the discursive strategy of a democratic imagination where space and ideas are opened to new linguistic and literary insights Pride of place is taken by essays on the Caribbean writer Wilson Harris which explore the implications of his awareness of a polyphony of coexistent voices that dislodges the hegemony of Cartesian dualism This group of studies is rounded off with an interview with and searching testimony by Harris himself The further contributions take up the implications of the encounter with alterity strangers natives barbarians in order to underline not only wonder in the face of an unknown presence or the shame through which the subject discovers itself but also the resentment involved in the creation of demonized Others As the poet Charles Tomlinson states what we take to be otherness alterity can be readmitted into our literary consciousness and seen as part of the whole causing us to readjust our awareness of the possibilities of English These essays confirm that resistance is an interface of ambivalence between discursive worlds encouraging us to read the living network of a text contrapuntally Specific topics include Billy Bragg and New Labour Schopenhauer in Britain Objectivist poetry gender and sexual identity in Nancy Cunard in Scottish fiction multivocal discourse in South Africa specific forms of alterity in Jamaica Kincaid in the poetry of Edwin Morgan in allo-Semitism and the deculturalizing perils of globalization

From Trocchi to Trainspotting - Scottish Critical Theory Since 1960 Michael Gardiner, 2006-07-04 This book charts the course of Scottish Critical Theory since the 1960s It provocatively argues that French critical theoretical ideas have developed in tandem with Scottish writing during this period Its themes can be read as a breakdown in Scottish Enlightenment thinking after empire precisely the process which permitted the rise of theory The book places within a wider theoretical context writers such as Muriel Spark Edwin Morgan Ian Hamilton Finlay James Kelman Alexander Trocchi Janice Galloway Alan Warner and Irvine Welsh as well as more recent work by Alan Riach and Pat Kane who can be seen to take the post Enlightenment narrative forward In doing so it draws on the work of the Scottish thinkers John Macmurray and R D Laing as well as the continental philosophers Gilles Deleuze and Paul Virilio

Day, Brian Docherty, 1997-07-13 This collection looks at the developments in British poetry from the Movement until the present The introduction not only provides a context for these changes but also argues that poetry criticism has been debilitated by the quest for political respectability a trend which can only be reversed by reconsidering the idea of tradition The essays themselves focus on general themes or individual authors Written in a clear and informed manner they provoke the reader into a fresh awareness of the nature of poetry and its relation to society Contemporary Poetry and

Postmodernism I. Gregson, 1996-11-01 Contemporary Poetry and Postmodernism explores the fraught relationship between the poetry of the mainstream and kinds of modernist poetry that have had to make their way outside it Mainstream poets like Paul Muldoon James Fenton and Carol Ann Duffy multiply voices and so draw on resources from the novel Bakhtin's concept of the dialogic is therefore used to explain their techniques By contrast Shklovsky's concept of estrangement is shown to be more useful in accounting for the radical experimentation of poets like Edwin Morgan Christopher Middleton and Denise Riley However the book concludes by suggesting that partly because of the influence of surrealism in women poets like Selima Hill and Jo Shapcott the mainstream has recently been infiltrated by modernist and postmodernist estrangement effects Ecology and Modern Scottish Literature

Louisa Gairn, 2008-05-01 This book presents a provocative and timely reconsideration of modern Scottish literature in the light of ecological thought Louisa Gairn demonstrates how successive generations of Scottish writers have both reflected on and contributed to the development of international ecological theory and philosophy Provocative re-readings of works by authors including Robert Louis Stevenson John Muir Nan Shepherd John Burnside Kathleen Jamie and George Mackay Brown demonstrate the significance of ecological thought across the spectrum of Scottish literary culture This book traces the influence of ecology as a scientific philosophical and political concept in the work of these and other writers and in doing so presents an original outlook on Scottish literature from the mid nineteenth century to the present
