From Narrative Onward Writing With Focus:

From Narrative Onward Diane Fitton, 2001 From Narrative Onward Fitton, Diane Fitton, 2000-08 This text is based on the assumption that adult learners have a wealth of experience to share but need practice in writing as a communication tool Therefore the focus is on familiar themes freeing students to focus on composition technique History through Narratives of Education in Africa , 2024-04-15 Who were the actors involved in colonial and post independence education in Africa This book on the history of education in Africa gives a special attention to narratives of marginalized voices With this original approach and cases from ten countries involving four colonial powers it constitutes a dynamic and rich contribution to the field The authors have searched for narratives of education from below through oral interviews autobiographies films and undiscovered archival sources Throughout the book educational settings are approached as social spaces where both contact and separation between colonisers and colonised are constructed through social interaction negotiations and struggles Contributors include Ant nia Barreto Lars Folke Berge Clara Carvalho Charlotte Courreye Pierre ric Fageol Fr d ric Garan Esther Ginestet Pedro Goulart Pierre Guidi Lydia Hadj Ahmed Kalpana Hiralal Mamaye Idriss Mihary Jaofeno Rehana Thembeke Odendaal Roland Rakotovao Maria da Luz Ramos Ellen Vea Rosnes Caterina Scalvedi Eva Van de Velde Pieter Verstraete The Making of Resistance Markus Lundström, 2017-05-23 This Briefs advances a theoretical approach that recognizes social movements as contingent enterprises It explores the endurance of social movements over time by developing analytical tools to study how social movement heterogeneities are simultaneously acknowledged and articulated together through collective narration and practices With a unique empirical analysis of one particular narrative the story of Brazil s Landless Movement this Briefs portrays a narrative revisited and revised by movement participants a story revived through enactment This Briefs addresses the increasing academic audience seeking to study and theorize the multi colored phenomena of resistance and social movements Writing the Empire Carol Bolton, 2015-09-30 Examines a range of Robert Southey s writing to explore the relationship between Romantic literature and colonial politics during the expansion of Britain s second empire This study draws upon a range of interdisciplinary materials to consider the impact of his work upon nineteenth century views of empire Empire's Wake: Postcolonial Irish Writing and the Politics of Modern Literary Form Mark Quigley, 2013 Traces development of Irish literary modernism from the 1920s to the 1990s through the writings of James Joyce John Millington Synge Samuel Beckett Sean O Faolain Frank McCourt and the Blasket Island autobiographers Tomas O Crohan and Maurice O Sullivan Considers Irish literature in relation to Irish nationalism and aftermath of British empire The Case of Literature Arne Höcker, 2020-06-15 In The Case of Literature Arne Höcker offers a radical reassessment of the modern European literary canon His reinterpretations of Goethe Schiller Büchner Döblin Musil and Kafka show how literary and scientific narratives have determined each other over the past three centuries and he argues that modern literature not only contributed to the development of the human sciences but also established itself as the privileged medium for a modern style of case based reasoning The Case of Literature deftly traces the role of narrative fiction in relation to the scientific knowledge of the individual from eighteenth century psychology and pedagogy to nineteenth century sexology and criminology to twentieth century psychoanalysis H cker demonstrates how modern authors consciously engaged casuistic forms of writing to arrive at new understandings of literary discourse that correspond to major historical transformations in the function of fiction He argues for the centrality of literature to changes in the conceptions of psychological knowledge production around 1800 legal responsibility and institutionalized forms of decision making throughout the nineteenth century and literature s own realist demands in the early twentieth century Creative Writing for Critical Thinking Hélène Edberg,2018-02-08 This book explores narrative imagination and emotion as resources for learning critical meta reflection The author examines the learning trajectories of several students as they engage in learning to think critically through a new approach to creative writing and details how learning through writing is linked to new discursual identities which are trialled in the writing process In doing so she analyses the processes of expansion and change that result from the negotiations involved in learning through writing This volume offers a completely new approach to creative writing including useful practical advice as well as a solid theoretical base It is sure to appeal to students of creative writing and discourse analysis as well as applied linguistics and language as identity The Routledge Handbook of

Translation History Christopher Rundle,2021-09-30 The Routledge Handbook of Translation History presents the first comprehensive state of the art overview of this multi faceted disciplinary area and serves both as an introduction to carrying out research into translation and interpreting history and as a key point of reference for some of its main theoretical and methodological issues interdisciplinary approaches and research themes The Handbook brings together 30 eminent international scholars from a wide range of disciplinary backgrounds offering examples of the most innovative research while representing a wide range of approaches themes and cultural contexts The Handbook is divided into four sections the first looks at some key methodological and theoretical approaches the second examines some of the key research areas that have developed an interdisciplinary dialogue with translation history the third looks at translation history from the perspective of specific cultural and religious perspectives and the fourth offers a selection of case studies on some of the key topics to have emerged in translation and interpreting history over the past 20 years This Handbook is an indispensable resource for students and researchers of translation and interpreting history translation theory and related areas Through Feminist

Eyes Joan Sangster,2011 Through Feminist Eyes gathers in one volume the most incisiveand insightful essays written to date by the distinguished Canadianhistorian Joan Sangster To the original essays Sangster has addedextensive introductory discussions that situate her earlier work in thecontext of developing theory and debate Sangster has also supplied anintroduction to the collection in which she reflects on the themes andtheoretical orientations that have shaped the writing of women shistory over the past thirty years Approaching her subject matter froman array of interpretive frameworks that engage questions of gender class colonialism politics and labour Sangster explores the lived experience of women in a variety of specific historical settings In so doing she sheds new light on issues that have sparked much debate among feminist historians and offers a thoughtful overview of the evolution of women's history in Canada A Global Encyclopedia of Historical Writing D.R.
