Made Up: A History of Identity and Gender Expression Through Makeup and Style Charli Butterfield, 2024-12-17. This book explores historical and modern uses of makeup for self-expression with a focus on gender. The book begins by exploring the historical influences in the origins and development of makeup across genders providing a whistle stop tour of gendered adornment through time. The chapters that follow explore more specific topics that provide context for a range of influences on self-expression: Sex, gender and identity including introductory gender theory and terminology relevant to the topic; Restrictions and resistance faced by the queer community regarding expression with a historical look at pioneers of the movement; Gendered cosmetic advertisements through time; Subcultures and coded expression; Beauty and identity in the digital age; The impact of global ideals on the cosmetics market with a focus on South Korea exploring historical and modern influences and trends. The book can be explored in a sequential or non-sequential order as each chapter provides a standalone approach to a topic and concludes with questions to encourage further contemplation and research. This book is written for anyone interested in the history of makeup as a vehicle for self-expression and how gender comes into play. Students and teachers of Theatrical makeup and Fashion courses, makeup artists, makeup enthusiasts and those curious to discover what Ancient Egyptians and emos may have in common.
