This text is a first hand testimony of the Nanjing Massacre It contains eyewitness accounts by a group of nine men and one woman dedicated compassionate well educated articulate and devout missionaries who were there on the scene and refused to leave Eyewitnesses to Massacre Zhang Kaiyuan,Donald MacInnis,2015-05-20 The infamous Nanjing Massacre of 1937 in which the Japanese Imperial Army raped and slaughtered countless Chinese citizens on the eve of World War II has been described in well publicized books from various Chinese Japanese and German perspectives But this collection of first hand testimony from the archives of the Yale Divinit School Library may be the most powerful record of all Here are eyewitness accounts by a remarkable group of nine men and one woman dedicated compassionate well educated articulate and devout missionaries who were ther on the scene refusing to leave and doing everything in their power to save the Chinese victims of this appalling atrocity The Routledge Companion to Local Media and Journalism Agnes Gulyas,David Baines,2020-04-19

This comprehensive edited collection provides key contributions in the field mapping out fundamental topics and analysing current trends through an international lens Offering a collection of invited contributions from scholars across the world the volume is structured in seven parts each exploring an aspect of local media and journalism It brings together and consolidates the latest research and theorisations from the field and provides fresh understandings of local media from a comparative perspective and within a global context This volume reaches across national cultural technological and socio economic boundaries to bring new understandings to the dominant foci of research in the field and highlights interconnection and thematic links Addressing the significant changes local media and journalism have undergone in the last decade the collection explores the history politics ethics and contents of local media as well as delving deeper into the business and practices that affect not only the journalists and media makers involved but consumers and communities as well For students and researchers in the fields of journalism studies journalism education cultural studies and media and communications programmes this is the comprehensive guide to local media and journalism Naval Eyewitnesses James

Goulty,2022-11-04 Goulty tells the story from the perspective of the ordinary sailor or officer who was there The Northern Mariner Although many books have been written about naval actions during the Second World War histories and memoirs in particular few books have attempted to encompass the extraordinary variety of the experience of the war at sea That is why James Goulty s vivid survey is of such value Sailors in the Royal Navy and the Merchant Navy experienced a war fought on a massive scale on every ocean of the world in a diverse range of vessels from battleships aircraft carriers and submarines to merchant ships and fishing boats Their recollections are as varied as the ships they served in and they take the reader through the entire maritime war as it was perceived at the time by those who had direct personal knowledge of it Throughout the book the emphasis is on the experience of individuals their recruitment and training their expectations and the reality they encountered on active service in many different offensive and defensive roles including convoy duty and coastal defence amphibious operations hunting U boats and surface raiders mine sweeping and manning landing and rescue craft A particularly graphic section describes in the words of the sailors themselves what action against the enemy felt like and the impact of casualties seamen who were wounded or killed on board or were lost when their ships sank A fascinating inside view of the maritime warfare emerges which may be less heroic than the image created by some post war accounts but it gives readers today a much more realistic impression of the whole gamut of wartime life at sea Eyewitnesses at the Somme Tim Cook,2017-11-30 In 1915 news of the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps landing and the slaughter at Gallipoli stirred tens of thousands of young men to go to war They answered the call and formed battalions of the Australian Imperial Force By the time the new recruits were combat ready the campaign at Gallipoli had ended Their battlefields became the muddy paddocks of France and Belgium Based on eyewitness account Eyewitnesses at the Somme traces the story of one of these battalions the 55th from its birth in the dusty camps of Egypt through three years of brutal bloody conflict on the bitter western front When the Great War ended in 1918 over 500 of the 3 000 men who served in the 55th had been slain and another 1 000 wounded Eyewitnesses at the Somme shares personal stories of Australian men as they stared down the horrors of war with determination courage and comradeship With chapters devoted to the significant battles at Fromelles Doignies Polygon Wood Pronne and Bellicourt this book tells the story of one battalion but in doing so it encapsulates the experiences of many Australians on the Western Front Eyewitnesses to the Great War Ed Klekowski,Libby Klekowski,2014-01-10 Beginning with the novelist Edith Wharton who toured the front in her Mercedes in 1915 this book describes the wartime experiences of American idealists and a few rogues on the Western Front and concludes with the doughboys experiences under General Pershing Americans were over there from the war s beginning in August 1914 and because America was neutral until April 1917 they saw the war from both the French and German lines Since most of the Americans who served regardless of which side they were on were in Champagne and Lorraine this sector is the focus Excerpts from memoirs are supplemented by descriptions of personalities places battles and even equipment and weapons thus placing these generally forgotten American adventurers into the context of their times A special set of maps based upon German Army battle maps was drawn and rare photographs supplement the text     Eyewitnesses to the Russian Revolution Todd Chretien,2017-11-20 This comprehensive chronicle of the Russian Revolution is told through the eyewitness accounts of journalists political leaders and ordinary citizens More than a century ago workers and peasants in Russia turned the world upside down when they overthrew their tsar took over their factories farms and schools and set out to build a new society In this gripping reader participants and firsthand observers of the revolution tell the inspiring heroic and sometimes tragic story of what happened in Russia over the course of 1917 Introduced and edited by Todd Chretien Eyewitnesses to the Russian Revolution includes contributions from Leon Trotsky Rosa Luxemburg Vladimir Lenin John Reed Louise Bryant and others     Award-winning books for children and young adults Betty L. Civil War Eyewitnesses Garold Cole,2000 A bibliographical guide to recently published Civil War diaries journals letters and memoirs     Eyewitnesses to the Indian Wars, 1865-1890 Peter Cozzens,2002     Selling Antislavery Teresa A. Goddu,2020-03-13 Beginning with its establishment in the early 1830s the American Anti Slavery Society AASS recognized the need to reach and consolidate a diverse and increasingly segmented audience To do so it produced a wide array of print material and visual media almanacs and slave narratives pincushions and gift books broadsides and panoramas Building on the distinctive practices of British antislavery and evangelical reform movements the AASS utilized innovative business strategies to market its productions and developed a centralized distribution system to circulate them widely In Selling Antislavery Teresa A Goddu shows how the AASS operated at the forefront of a new culture industry and by framing its media as cultural commodities made antislavery sentiments an integral part of an emerging middle class identity She contends that although the AASS s dominance waned after 1840 as the organization splintered it nevertheless created one of the first national mass markets Goddu maps this extensive media culture focusing in particular on the material produced by AASS in the decade of the 1830s She considers how the dissemination of its texts objects and tactics was facilitated by the quasi corporate and centralized character of the organization during this period and demonstrates how its institutional presence remained important to the progress of the larger movement Exploring antislavery s vast archive and explicating its messages she emphasizes both the discursive and material aspects of antislavery s appeal providing a richly textured history of the movement through its artifacts and the modes of circulation it put into place Featuring more than seventy five illustrations Selling Antislavery offers a thorough case study of the role of reform movements in the rise of mass media and argues for abolition s central importance to the shaping of antebellum middle class culture     Eyewitnesses to the Indian wars : 1865 - 1890. 3.
