Eyewitness Time Space Eyewitness:

Time & Space Mary Gribbin, John R. Gribbin, 1994 Integrating words and pictures this is a family reference book on time and space structured so that the individual themes of each spread make up a complete visual story and a self contained module On every spread there is a specially shot colour photograph of objects shown in real life close up d Eyewitness: Time and Space John Gribbin, Mary Gribbin, 2001-10 Metaphor and Ideology Mary Therese DesCamp, 2007 This cognitive linguistic analysis of Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum demonstrates how women are used to articulate Pseudo Philo's theology and ideology how mother is redefined to support female authority to interpret and instruct and how textual and character authority is constructed conceptually Eyewitness Textures Michael Lithgow, Michèle Martin, 2024-01-15 News coverage today is an emerging collaboration between the general public and professional journalists News consumers have come to expect and demand the unprecedented immediacy of experience and coverage of breaking news offered by photographs video clips audio recordings tweets commentary content created by ordinary citizens The use of user generated content is a salient aspect of how journalists and news organizations are responding to technological changes in the twenty first century Eyewitness Textures examines the far reaching changes in journalism spurred by the growing importance of user generated content Bringing together the voices and experiences of professional journalists and academic researchers from across five continents this collection explores news production practices changing skills among editors and journalists and corporate and newsroom restructuring Chapters by practitioners collectively reflect the newsroom experiences of major global media organizations while the academic contributions address issues of industrial transformation political influence truth and verification aesthetics and ideological implications Both perspectives combine to deepen our understanding of what constitutes the conditions and creation of good journalism as well as the implications of how the profession should be taught to future journalists Tracing recent shifts in journalism practice around the world Eyewitness Textures examines the creative adaptation and strategies of journalists and news organizations in the face of transformative technological change

Journalism and Eyewitness Images Mette Mortensen, 2014-12-17 Building on the vast research conducted on war and media since the 1970s scholars are now studying the digital transformation of the production of news Little scholarly attention has been paid however to non professional eyewitness visuals even though this genre holds a still greater bearing on the way conflicts are fought communicated and covered by the news media This volume examines the power of new technologies for creating and disseminating images in relation to conflicts Mortensen presents a theoretical framework and uses case studies to investigate the impact of non professional images with regard to essential issues in today's media landscape including new media technologies and democratic change the political mobilization and censorship of images the ethics of spectatorship and the shifting role of the mainstream news media in the digital age Viewpoint and the Fabric of Meaning Barbara Dancygier, Wei-lun Lu, Arie Verhagen, 2016-03-21 This volume explores the cross linguistic diversity and possibly inconsistency of the span of linguistic means that signal reported speech and thought The integration of broad linguistic viewpoint in conversation and narrative and cognitive theory of mind and understanding the inner life and thought of others strategies for handling mixed points of view will be considered      Astronomy Kristen Lippincott,2004 Superb full color photographs of scientific instruments experiments and innovative 3 D models reveal the discoveries and research that have transformed our understanding of the Universe Learn how space probes photograph planets what causes a meteor shower what makes Mars red why the Sun shines where the Moon came from how the first telescopes worked the stages in the life of a star and more      Screening Protest Alexa Robertson,2018-07-11 Screening Protest brings together a range of scholarly perspectives on the study of protest mediations on television and in film Arguing that the screen is a fruitful if overlooked analytical focus the book explores how visual narratives of protest wander across borders territorial temporal and generic Chapters compare coverage of major protests in recent history by global news channels like Al Jazeera English BBC World CNN International and RT They consider how geopolitical agendas newsroom culture and the ubiquity of eyewitness footage shape the narration of events such as the Umbrella Revolution in Hong Kong anti austerity protests in Greece pro EU mobilizations in the Ukraine and clashes in Ferguson A focus on narrative allows authors to compare such news stories with popular cultural depictions of the protester in films and television series such as The Hunger Games Robin Hood and Suffragette Although focussed on the screen the scope of the book is broad given its exploration of images distributed worldwide Written with both scholars and students in mind Screening Protest will interest researchers in political science sociology media and film studies as well as the general reader interested in current affairs      Technology Roger Bridgman,2000-06-21 Packed with superb color illustrations and fascinating facts this highly informative guide explores all aspects of technology from ancient artifacts to the latest advances in computer aided design Clearly annotated photographs and diagrams give an invaluable insight into the tools machines and systems that have shaped the modern world See how the strength of different materials is measured the structure of a suspension bridge how keyhole surgery works what astronauts eat in space and how milk bottles have changed shape Learn which materials pull and which ones push how engines convert heat into work how an airplane flies how instant coffee is created and how a ring pull is made Discover why glass is a liquid the difference between inventors and designers what a CD is made from and how a CD player works how science can help protect threatened plant species and much much more      The Mindful Interview Method Gil Zamora,2023-07-19 The Mindful Interview Method Retrieving Cognitive Evidence provides investigators with a proven methodology to gather authentic reliable information from eyewitnesses to help identify potential suspects The book offers police and non law enforcement readers step by step techniques to improve gathering reliable evidence through a mindful interview process The author also provides an assessment component that can measure the reliability of previous interviews performed and further help to improve the interview process the skills of the investigator and thus the reliability of cognitive evidence gathered from future interviews It is notable that there is minimal to no instruction or training currently offered to those individuals most often tasked with interviewing an eyewitness about a crime as part of criminal investigations Despite the lack of training and certification we allow interviewers to conduct questioning in the face of well established research as to the malleability of human memory The assumption is that officials trained in the rules of evidence will innately ask the right questions and in the proper manner without the proper understanding of the fragility of human memory or the proper training That assumption is false and the reality is quite the opposite In fact we learn of cases commonplace in the media that frequently involve questionable interview tactics misidentifications and wrongful convictions of innocent people The Mindful Interview Method uses cognitive research to inform the methods and principles for a mindful approach to gathering only the information the subject remembers This is the best way to use evidence based lines of questioning to perform interviews that elicit the most reliable accounts and information for investigative purposes Considering current reforms on best practices throughout the criminal justice system the book provides a path forward for professional interviewers to adopt interview methodologies that guide the practitioner to question anyone in a mindful manner Research in Practice for Forensic Professionals Kerry Sheldon, Jason Davies, Kevin Howells, 2012-03-12 This book explores applied research methods used in forensic settings prisons the probation service courts and forensic mental health establishments and provides a comprehensive how to guide for forensic practitioners and researchers It provides practitioners and researchers with grounding in the practical techniques appropriate for research in applied forensic settings This includes knowledge and skills of the research process and the wide range of research methods both quantitative and qualitative being applied in this arena The text provides a critical understanding of the problems challenges and ethical issues which can arise and ideas for managing these Specific attention is paid to empirical research within forensic populations and settings including researching vulnerable groups e g offenders and the mentally ill in secure settings evaluating treatment programmes and the uses and problems of randomised control trials The book is clearly structured with each methodology chapter describing the background of the approach the type of research questions addressed design principles and issues the types of analysis that can be utilised strengths and limitations of the method future directions and further sources of information Through the inclusion of case studies and illustrative examples from forensic researchers and practitioners who have extensive experience of conducting applied research this book tackles real life problems typically faced by researchers and practitioners Research in Practice for Forensic Professionals is an essential one stop resource for practitioners such as psychologists nursing and medical staff prison and probation workers social workers occupational therapists who have an interest in research and in evaluating their own work and the services in which they work It will also be of interest to students studying areas of applied research such as forensic psychology or applied criminology and those teaching them Sports Tim Hammond, 2000-07-05 Examines the equipment rules and background of many different team target and court sports including soccer rugby Gaelic football softball cricket ice hockey table tennis archery and pool

Live Television Stephanie Marriott, 2007-11-18 The study of television still the most powerful of modern media has long been fascinated by its capacity for liveness Marriott offers an insightful analysis of the complexities of this phenomenon particularly its increasingly vital connection with the use of new media A timely contribution to our understanding of media events 24 hour news and the phenomenology of mediated experience Andrew Tolson De Montfort University In the steps of Marshall McLuhan and Alfred Schutz Stephanie Marriott offers us a timely and sustained reflection upon the nature of mediation and the changing qualities of the live experience made possible by television Elegant lucid witty and thought provoking her account will become a canonical text in television studies Martin Montgomery University of Strathclyde In a fragmenting multichannel and multiplatform global broadcasting environment live television continues to attract huge audiences bucking the trend towards narrowcasting and niche markets yet little of a comprehensive nature has been written about the live television event In this fascinating book Stephanie Marriott engages in a close and detailed analysis of the nature of live television She examines the transformations in our experience of time and space which are brought about by the capacity of broadcasting to bring us the world in the moment in which it is unfolding situating the live television event in the context of an expanding and increasingly complex global communicative framework Building her argument by means of a series of case studies of events as diverse as the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963 the attack on the World Trade Centre in 2001 the 2005 London bombings election night coverage and live sports coverage Marriott provides a meticulous and articulate account of the way in which live television mediates the event for its audience This book will be essential reading for students and academics working in media cultural studies cultural sociology and linguistics and is an exciting new contribution to the field of broadcast talk and media discourse

Threads of Time Mugo Theuri, 2023-05-29 Mugo Theuri was plucked from his reporting job at the lawcourts in Nakuru after barely three months in post and driven to Nairobi for what would turn out to be 49 days of torture in the infamous Nyayo House Jailed for four years he joined the Liberation University the study group in prison and emerged a much more thoughtful and reflective man He uses personal memoir to thread his personal experiences into the historical events in the country and the world His experience with the courts and his attempt to get justice for his wrongful imprisonment enable him to reflect on the justice system just as his average scholarship give him clarity of how the country's systems and policies discriminate against the poor and frustrate the right to justice and education The candour with which Threads of Time is rendered allows the reader into the writer's personal crisis in struggling to reconcile his father's public role as headman during the Mau Mau war of independence in a context where most of his family were guerrillas in the forest as well as his relationship with religion

"Framing the Ocean, 1700 to the Present" Tricia Cusack, 2017-07-05 Before the eighteenth century the ocean was regarded as a repulsive and chaotic deep Despite reinvention as a zone of wonder and pleasure it continued to be viewed in the West and elsewhere as uninhabited empty space This collection spanning the eighteenth century to the present recasts the ocean as social space with particular reference to visual representations Part I focuses on mappings and crossings showing how the ocean may function as a liminal space between places and cultures but also connects and imbricates them Part II considers ships as microcosmic societies shaped for example by the purpose of the voyage the mores of shipboard life and cross cultural encounters Part III analyses narratives accreted to wrecks and rafts what has sunk or floats perilously and discusses attempts to recuperate plastic flotsam Part IV plumbs ocean depths to consider how underwater creatures have been depicted in relation to emergent disciplines of natural history and museology how mermaids have been reimagined as a metaphor of feminist transformation and how the symbolism of coral is deployed by contemporary artists This engaging and erudite volume will interest a range of scholars in humanities and social sciences including art and cultural historians cultural geographers and historians of empire travel and tourism      National

Criminal Justice Thesaurus ,1998      Jesus and the Eyewitnesses, 2d ed. Bauckham, Richard,2017 Jesus and the Eyewitness argues that the four Gospels are closely based on the eyewitness testimony of those who knew Jesus The author challenges the assumption that the accounts of Jesus circulated as anonymous community traditions asserting instead that they were transmitted in the name of the original eyewitnesses      The Future of Forensic Psychology Sara

Landström,Pär Anders Granhag,Peter J. van Koppen,2022-11-11 The Future of Forensic Psychology Core Topics and Emerging Trends is an authoritative text that presents state of the art research from rising stars in the field Presented in an accessible way it draws on cutting edge research to analyse both core topics and current trends in forensic psychology Borne out of the internationally recognized House of Legal Psychology doctorate programme the book features eighteen authors from different international contexts who evaluate current and emerging topics in the field The book is divided into three sections eyewitness memory and testimony investigative interviewing and deception detection and legal decision making Each section contains in depth research and includes classics topics such as factors affecting eyewitnesses and determining deceit in investigations The book also covers newer exciting developments within the field including credibility in asylum contexts alibies and cross cultural aspect of interviewing Offering an insightful summary of the field today this book is an indispensable read for students and researchers of forensic psychology legal psychology and criminology It will also be of great interest to practitioners in the judicial system      Earth Susanna Van Rose,2000-07-05 The natural forces that shape our planet from plate tectonics to volcanoes are examined through textual explanations and 3 D models      The Pacific Reporter ,1921
