Tryphonopoulos, Stephen J. No extensive critical discussion is attempted but attention is given to Pound's critical writings on the Latin poets as well as his translations from their work. Dr Davidson also treats other aspects of Pound's problematic relation to the Classical Tradition, the use and abuse of dictionaries, Laforgue and Baudelaire as a third term haunting Pound's translations, the difficult monolith of English classicism, the invention of an oppositional romanitas. It is hoped that this work may encourage others to produce the comprehensive survey which Pound's sustained and Protean relationship to the classical languages would appear to demand. Pound's readings of Latin poetry are inevitably readings also of English poetry in the context of England and particularly London in the first two decades of the twentieth century. The Poetry of Translation Matthew Reynolds, 2011-09-29. A very wide ranging book which launches a new theory of poetry translation and pursues it through readings of poem translations from across the history of English literature. It engages with the key debates in translation studies and offers new interpretations of major works such as Pope's Iliad, Pound's Cathay and Dryden's Aeneis. Personae Ezra Pound, 1926. Logopoeia in Ezra Pound's Homage to Sextus Propertius Gregory Norman Gabbard, 1964. Personae Ezra Pound, 1938. Modernist Parody Sarah Davison, 2023. This volume argues that parody is central to modernism and shows that as a literary technique parody was a means for modernists to learn their craft, sharpen their historical sense and define themselves as post Victorians. Personæ Ezra Pound, 1946. Ezra Pound and Poetic Influence, 2021-09-13.

This collection of twenty essays investigates a series of different aspects of poetic influence in relation to the major modernist poet Ezra Pound. The volume commences with five essays on matters to do with translation and poetic influence which situate Ezra Pound as an important transitional figure between 19th century and 20th century translation strategies. The next five essays consider different influences on Pound's poetry and introduce the reader to new research in a variety of areas including how specific Chinese cultural artefacts inform his poetry. The following five essays explore Pound's influence on some of his major contemporaries such as Eugenio Montale and Charles Olson and also through the reading he gave her as a girl on his daughter Mary de Rachewiltz. The concluding five essays exemplify different approaches to the thorny issue of Pound and politics and end with two diametrically opposed interpretations of Pound's political poetic thought. The collection will be of great interest to scholars of Ezra Pound and of modern to postmodern poetry but it will also serve as a useful and lively introduction to some of the debates within Pound scholarship to students coming to his work for the first time.

Diptych Rome-London Ezra Pound, 1994. Diptych Rome London presents the two undisputed masterpieces of Pound's pre-Cantos work: the long poems Homage to Sextus Propertius and Hugh Selwyn Mauberley. The Classics in Paraphrase Daniel M. Hooley, 1988. Bringing together translation theory and literary history, this volume conveys how Pound in his influential and controversial Homage to Sextus Propertius enriched the art of translation. The work of Louis Zukofsky, Basil Bunting, J. V. Cunningham and Peter Porter is also discussed.
