F. M. Dostoevsky Miriam Taylor Sajkovic, 2011-10-01

F. M. Dostoevsky Miriam T. Šajkovic, Miriam T.

Šajković, 2016-11-11 Dostoevsky is the unrivaled and perspicacious seer of the human mind and heart he emerges as a great friend and teacher of humanity He has clearly read the signs of our times for he lived through the agonizing doubts and despairs of our present spiritual crisis His sincerity his spiritual heroism and his moral courage have never been questioned With these words the author of the present work Miriam T ajkovi begins her initial attempt to acquaint American readers with Dostoevsky s philosophy of education The views of Dostoevsky on educational problems in his own time have been historically explored by ajkovi in relation to nineteenth century Russia and the events which shaped its attitudes and customs The author has studied the central aspects of Dostoevsky s system in order to extract from them a contribution toward the formulation of a philosophy of education suitable for the present time ajkovi proposes that a new synthesis of Dostoevsky s thought and contemporary American pedagogy be effected for the purpose of reinstating serious reflection upon modern morals and religion The book contains an annotated bibliography conveniently divided into sections according to various high school reading levels selections from his letters arranged under topic headings a chronological table of his works and a master bibliography of primary and secondary sources A unique and valuable contribution to both philosophy of education and Dostoevsky commentary Dostoevsky His Image of Man will be of lasting worth to professional educators in particular as well as students of literature in general

Dostoevsky's Conception of Man Peter McGuire Wolf, 1997-10 Dostoevsky s novels have contributed to a conception of man that reverberates in the conclusions of prominent twentieth century philosophical anthropologists Max Scheler Martin Heidegger Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty and Albert Camus among others have admitted that the works of Dostoevsky had an influence on the manner in which they learned to conceive of human nature and the world in which humans live Our aim in this dissertation is to ask what is there in the novels of Dostoevsky concerning the nature of man of which certain philosophers could claim that in their philosophical conceptions of man they were positively influenced by him The main thesis is substantiated with a careful analysis of four novels Notes From the House of the Dead Zapiski iz mertvogo doma Notes From the Underground Zapiski iz podpol ia Crime and Punishment Prestuplenie i nakazanie and The Brothers Karamazov Brat ia Karamazovy These novels were chosen partly because I have come to the conclusion that these novels more than others concretely show in what sense the leading characters appear to have made themselves be what they had freely chosen to be under the circumstances in which they had to live and that they were fully aware of the responsibility they had to bear for the implications and consequences of what they had thus decided Based upon a close reading four interpretive chapters employ the most significant criticism from English Russian and French literary scholarship Dostoevsky s philosophical conception of man is compared and contrasted with the conception that Scheler and Heidegger hold i e that freedom is man s essence Sartre s atheistic humanism and Camus thought The following conclusions are consonant with Dostoevsky's work freedom is constitutive for the being or the mode of being essence of man it is an inalienable duty one must become oneself Man strives to overcome himself and to exceed his freedom but in so doing invariably loses it Man exceeds himself only in the sense that he realizes an ideal human possibility The Dostoevskian man reveals not only the absence of human nature but also the enormous power which man possesses for achieving his ideal human possibility

The Mathematical Mind of F. M. Dostoevsky Michael Marsh-Soloway, 2024-11-19 The Mathematical Mind of F. M. Dostoevsky Imaginary Numbers Non Euclidean Geometry and Infinity reconstructs the curriculum and readings that F. M. Dostoevsky encountered during his studies and connects such sources to the mathematical references and themes in his published works Prior to becoming a man of letters Dostoevsky studied at the Main Engineering School in St Petersburg from 1838 to 1843 After he was arrested submitted to mock execution by firing squad and sentenced to penal servitude in Siberia for his involvement in the revolutionary Petrashevsky Circle in 1849 most of his books and journals from the period of his education were confiscated and destroyed by the Third Section of the Russian Secret Police Although most scholars discount the legacy of his engineering studies the literary aesthetics of his works communicate an acute awareness of mathematical principles and debates This book unearths subtexts in works by Dostoevsky communicating veins of mathematical thought that evolved throughout Classical Antiquity the Renaissance and the Scientific Revolution

The Religion of Dostoevsky Alexander Boyce Gibson, 2016-08-11 Why has Dostoevsky influenced so much of the religious thinking of our times His impact on modern theologians Barth for example has been great and thousands of his readers have been stirred by his extraordinary power to register metaphysical insights in narrative form This fresh and subtle study of Dostoevsky's life and writing demonstrates that the great Russian's relevance for our day lies in his perception that religious faith and philosophic doubt are inseparable in his illustration that the practice of religion and intellectual scruples belong together and actually enhance each other Gibson records what is known from outside the novels of his successive engagements and disengagements with the Christian faith He then traces chronologically the path of Dostoevsky's developing thoughts and feelings as presented in the novels themselves and his sentiments as distributed among his characters Especially illuminating is the author's analysis of the dichotomies that make up the fascinating puzzle of Dostoevsky's complexity Overlapping but never coinciding are the two perspectives of reflective artist and journalist reporter Buttressing Dostoevsky's dialectical method of thinking was the literary device of the double the character with contradictory ways of thought and behavior Gibson shows how all these factors structured Dostoevsky's depiction of mental moral and religious ambiguities This stimulating guide which takes the reader from Notes from Underground through The Brothers Karamazov explores the polarities of reason and faith as the irreconcilables that Dostoevsky constantly tries to reconcile Everyone who has found his own vision of ethics or of religion expanded by Dostoevsky's work will find this literary study provocative and informative

Kaleidoscope: F.M. Dostoevsky and the Early Dialectical Theology Katya

Tolstaya,2013-03-27 Introducing a new hermeneutics this book explores the correlation between the personal faith of F M Dostoevsky 1821 1881 and the religious quality of his texts In offering the first comprehensive analysis of his ego documents it demonstrates how faith has methodologically to be defined by the inaccessibility of the living person This thesis which draws on the work of M M Bakhtin is further developed by critically examining the reception of Dostoevsky by the two main representatives of early dialectical theology Karl Barth and Eduard Thurneysen In the early 1920s they claimed Dostoevsky as a chief witness to their radical theology of the fully transcendent God While previously unpublished archive materials demonstrate the theological problems of their static conceptual interpretation the kaleidoscopic hermeneutics is founded on the awareness that a text offers only a fixed image whereas living faith is in permanent motion Russian and Soviet

Sevastian,2021-03-12 Fyodor Dostoevsky was not a theologian and his books are not books of theology However there is a living way that emerges from the study of his life and work convictions made manifest in the details of his own life and the lives of his characters Utilizing James William McClendon s conception of biography as theology Dr Dumitru Sevastian explores the lived convictions that emerge from three distinct periods in Dostoevsky s life the pre Siberian Siberian and post Siberian each represented by one of his novels The Poor Folk The House of the Dead and The Brothers Karamazov What emerges is a powerful expression of faith formed in community and tempered in suffering an example relevant to all Christians seeking to model their lives and relationships on the dying and resurrected Christ The Life and Works of
