Lincoln Charles B. Strozier,2016-05-03 On April 15 1837 a long gawky Abraham Lincoln walked into Joshua Speed s dry goods store in Springfield Illinois and asked what it would cost to buy the materials for a bed Speed said seventeen dollars which Lincoln didn t have He asked for a loan to cover that amount until Christmas Speed was taken with his visitor but as he said later I never saw so gloomy and melancholy a face Speed suggested Lincoln stay with him in a room over his store for free and share his large double bed What began would become one of the most important friendships in American history Speed was Lincoln s closest confidant offering him invaluable support after the death of his first love Ann Rutledge and during his rocky courtship of Mary Todd Lincoln needed Speed for guidance support and empathy Your Friend Forever A Lincoln is a rich analysis of a relationship that was both a model of male friendship and a specific dynamic between two brilliant but fascinatingly flawed men who played off each other's strengths and weaknesses to launch themselves in love and life Their friendship resolves important questions about Lincoln's early years and adds significant psychological depth to our understanding of our sixteenth president

Third Culture Poetry Sam Pyrell, He saw the world through a psychological window A third culture kid a boy struggling to form his identity He was tossed into a new world while remaining bound to the old He was neither here nor there An Empath tormented by an endless wave of agonising emotions struggling to express himself in the face of family dogma and a culture which abhors the smallest sign of vulnerability A boy in the body of a man grappling to understand life and love In a world where nobody would listen and those who tried simply could not find a way to hear him poetry was his only outlet Autistic lyrical and raw This is his story

A Greek and His Poetry Constantine Michael Xeros, 2011-11 A son's commentary on the Greek poetry of his immigrant father discovered among many papers and memorabilia after his father's passing An insight to the changing emotions of an immigrant from his arrival in America in 1910 to the passing of our mother 1960 his immigrant contemporaries and ultimately his own demise in 1980 at the age of ninety one The poems display nostalgia sadness and comedy as originally written on his Greek typewriter he acquired in 1928 from his handwritten original manuscripts which were apparently discarded after being formally typewritten Limited translation

Friendship Forever Sana Noel Murray, We've always heard parents and family are something we can't choose but friends are something made by our choice It is really important for one to have a group of friends around them in order to help them grow and be a better version of themselves
