From A Window In November:

Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office United States. Patent Office,1940 The Professionalization of Window Display in Britain, 1919-1939 Kerry Meakin,2024-09-05 This book provides the first comprehensive history of window display as a practice and profession in Britain during the dynamic period of 1919 to 1939 In recent decades the disciplines of retail history business history design and cultural history have contributed to the study of department stores and other types of shops However these studies have only made passing references to window display and its role in retail society and culture Kerry Meakin investigates the conditions that enabled window display to become a professional practice during the interwar period exploring the shift in display styles developments within education and training and the international influence on methods and techniques Piecing together the evidence visual and written about people events organisations exhibitions and debates Meakin provides a critical examination of this vital period of design history highlighting major display designers and artists The book reveals the modernist aesthetic developments that influenced high street displays and how they introduced passers by to modern art movements Designing the Department Store Emily M. Orr,2019-11-28 The book builds an original argument for the department store as a significant site of design production and therefore offers an alternative interpretation to the mainstream focus on consumption within retail history Emily M Orr presents a fresh perspective on the rise of modern urban consumer culture of which the department store was a key feature By investigating the production processes of display as well as fascinating information about display making s tools and technologies the skills of the displayman and the meaning and context of design decisions which shaped the final visual effect are revealed In addition the book identifies and isolates display as a distinct moment in the life of the commodity and understands it as an influential channel of mediation in the shopping experience The assembly and interpretation of a diverse range of previously unexplored primary resources and archives yields fascinating new evidence showing how display achieved an agency which transformed everyday objects into commodities and made consumers out of passersby
