From Africa Against All Odds:

From Africa Against All Odds Veronica Johnson, 2005-07-13 Please be my friend said a desperate 17 year old black girl to each white woman leaving the huge Roman Catholic cathedral in Accra Ghana on the west coast of Africa that Sunday morning in 1964 I was that girl and what happened to me before and since is an amazing true story that even I find it hard to believe today But it did unfold exactly as I relate it to you here At times I think you will feel my helplessness and hope my pain and pleasure the cruelty that some men and women can mask my failings and my faith that sustained me then and guide me now and the unselfish kindness and generosity of so many good people who came to my rescue during the darkest day of my life Most of all it celebrates my finest accomplishment and greatest gift the birth and grow to adulthood of my ten healthy children here and in Africa Maybe it will indeed serve as a source of inspiration for you I certainly hope so Against All

7th generation of the lineage must return to the place of ancestral birth to the beginning of an uneasy journey Nearly two centuries later the Anchor who is the 7th Amazon must respond to that internal call despite the rigorous demands of modern living To find her own place she must complete the cycle of her mothers and make an oar for the next generation AGAINST ALL ODDS is the tale of 7 generations of a royal line whose strong women stand their ground defying social norms and tribal stereotypes defending forbidden love and unwittingly fulfilling the predictions of the ancient oracle This fictional biography takes flight from the pre colonial campaigns of the Amazons of Dahomey female warriors whose codes defined a matriarchal society through the years of slavery in the Americas leading to the Abolition and subsequent return into unfolding socio economic drama and evolving religious beliefs all the way to the harsh realities of modern day West Africa Written with a poetic tone this book will take you on a journey across the many cultures and different experiences that come together to define today's African

War and Peace in Contemporary Eritrean Poetry Charles Cantalupo, 2009 War and Peace in Contemporary Eritrean Poetry focuses on Eritrean written poetry from roughly the last three decades of the twentieth century. The poems appear in the anthology Who Needs a Story. Contemporary Eritrean Poetry in Tigrinya, Tigre, and Arabic from which a selection is offered here in their original scripts of Ge'ez or Arabic and in English translation. Who Needs a Story is the first anthology of contemporary poetry from Eritrea ever published and War and Peace in Contemporary Eritrean Poetry is the first book on the subject. Therefore, the groundbreaking effort of the former warrants a discussion of its means of cultural production. All of the poets in Who Needs a Story participated in the Eritrean struggle for independence 1961-91 as freedom fighters and/or as supporters in the Eritrean diaspora. Thus, contemporary Eritrean poetry divides itself between experiences of war and peace, although one can contain the other as well. War and Peace in Contemporary Eritrean Poetry also includes an extended analysis of one of Eritrea's most famous contemporary poets, Reesom Haile, as an example of the kind of extended analysis that many of the poets of Who Needs a Story should stimulate and last but not least a meditation on how the author, a non-native speaker, personally becomes involved in Eritrean poetry translation.

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-10-03 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English.

Routledge Handbook of Contemporary African Women Anna Chitando, Eunice Kamaara, Ezra Chitando, 2024-12-31 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary African Women highlights the achievements and progress being made by African women across a wide range of sectors in society. Without glossing over the very real challenges which women in Africa continue to face, this landmark handbook demonstrates how women across the continent are deploying their agency to achieve notable progress in areas as diverse as Pandemics, Climate Change, Science, Technology, Entrepreneurship, Higher Education, Youth, Older People. Challenging prevailing narratives and stereotypes about African women, this handbook provides a more positive perspective into African women's progressive actions for sustainable development. It will be an essential read for readers across the fields of gender, environment, political science, history, development studies, religious studies, and African Studies.

China and Middle East Conflicts Guy Burton, 2020-07-30 How do aspiring and established rising global powers respond to conflict? Using China, the book studies its response to wars and rivalries in the Middle East from the Cold War to the present. Since the People's Republic was established in 1949, China has long been involved in the Middle East and its conflicts, from exploiting or avoiding them to their management, containment, or resolution. Using a conflict and peace studies angle, Burton adopts a broad perspective on Chinese engagement by looking at its involvement in the region's conflicts, including Israel-Palestine, Iraq before and after 2003, Sudan and the Darfur crisis, the Iranian nuclear deal, the Gulf crisis, and the wars in Syria, Libya, and Yemen. The book reveals how a rising global and non-Western power handles the challenges associated with both violent and nonviolent conflict and the differences between limiting and reducing violence alongside other ways to eliminate the causes of conflict and grievance Contributing to the wider discipline of International Relations and peace and conflict studies this book will be of interest to students and scholars of peace and conflict studies Chinese foreign policy and the politics and international relations of the Middle East What Is Ailing Africa? — Practical Philosophy in Reinventing Africa Stephen Onyango Ouma,2024-06-11 Not only does this book detail the colonial experiences in Africa through what the author refers to as a social construct it also vehemently criticises modern African governments for their current corruption and maintenance of the continent's situation This book presents a two pronged analysis of Africa's predicament by looking at the duality of ethics and identity It tries to trace the problematic aspects of westernization and modernization within the contexts of neo colonialism and continued exploitation of Africa by external forces as well as the complicity of Africans themselves Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong,Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr.,2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918

Universities in the USA Presenting fascinating case studies such as print media and the historiography of football in Cameroon racism in European football and the relationship between sport communication policy making and sustainable development in Africa this book shines new light on key themes in the study of sport communication This is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in social cultural issues in sport the business and management of sport sport and the media African studies or development studies Soccer, Women, Sexual Liberation Hong Fan,J. A. Mangan,2004 This collection considers women s football in a global context and analyses its progress and the challenges and problems it has faced Joining Africa Charles Cantalupo,2012-01-01 This eye opening personal history tells the story of an American college professor s twenty year engagement with a thriving Africa rarely encountered by Western visitors including an extraordinary connection to poets across the continent At once adventurous spiritual political dreamlike and humorous Joining Africa is a unique documentary of a journey through the continent including an intense five year encounter with economically struggling but culturally fertile Eritrea The Africa presented here is neither a postcolonial study nor an exotic tourist destination It is rich with the voices of its people whose languages Cantalupo argues have greater potential to effect change than any NGO or high profile celebrity In vibrant prose Cantalupo s book extends a stirring invitation to reevaluate how we engage both individually and collectively with this remarkable part of the world Mediating Violence from Africa George S. MacLeod,2023-10 Mediating Violence from Africa explores how African and non African Francophone authors filmmakers editors and scholars have packaged interpreted and filmed the violent histories of post Cold War Francophone Africa This violence much of which unfolded in front of Western television cameras included the use of child soldiers facilitated by the Soviet Union s castoff Kalashnikov rifles the rise of Islamist terrorism in West Africa and the horrific genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda Through close readings of fictionalized child soldier narratives cinematic representations of Islamist militants genocide survivor testimony and Western scholarship George S MacLeod analyzes the ways Francophone African authors and filmmakers as well as their editors and scholarly critics negotiate the aesthetic political cultural and ethical implications of making these traumatic stories visible MacLeod argues for the need to periodize these productions within a post Cold War framework to emphasize how shifts in post 1989 political discourse are echoed contested or subverted by contemporary Francophone authors filmmakers and Western scholars The questions raised in Mediating Violence from Africa are of vital importance today How the world engages with and responds to stories of recent violence and loss from Africa has profound implications for the affected communities and individuals More broadly in an era in which stories and images of violence from terror attacks to school shootings to police brutality are disseminated almost instantly and with minimal context these theoretical questions have implications for debates surrounding the ethics of representing trauma the politicization of memory and Africa s place in a global as opposed to a postcolonial or Euro African economic and political landscape
