From El Greco to Pollock Baltimore Museum of Art, 1968      The Bloomsbury Handbook to Ageing in Contemporary Literature and Film Sarah Falcus, Heike Hartung, Raquel Medina, 2023-06-29 Across more than 30 chapters spanning migration queerness and climate change this handbook captures how the interdisciplinary and intersectional endeavor of Ageing studies has shaped contemporary literary and film studies In the early 21st century the literary study of age and ageing in its cultural context has come of age it has come to supplement and challenge a public discourse on ageing seen mainly as a political and demographic problem in many countries of the world Following a tripartite structure it looks first at literary and film genres and how they have been shaped by knowledge about age and ageing incorporating both narrative genres as well as poetry drama and imagery The second section includes chapters on key themes and concepts in Ageing Studies with examples from film and literature The third section brings together case studies focussing on individual artists national traditions and global ageing Containing original contributions by pioneers in the field as well as new scholars from across the globe it brings together current scholarship on ageing in literary and film studies and offers new directions and perspectives

From El Greco to Pollock Gertrude Rosenthal, 1968      Transforming Traditions in Modern Chinese Painting Jason C. Kuo, 2004 Modern Chinese painting embodies the constant renewal and reinvigorations of Chinese civilization amidst rebellions reforms and revolutions even if the process may appear confusing and bewildering It also demonstrates the persistence of tradition and limits of continuities and changes in modern Chinese culture Most significantly it compels us to ask several important questions in the study of modern Chinese culture How extensively can cultural tradition be reinterpreted before it is subverted At what point is creative reinvention an act of betrayal of tradition How has selective borrowing from Chinese tradition and foreign culture enabled modern Chinese artists to sustain themselves in the modern world By focusing on the art of Huang Pin hung 1865 1955 particularly his late work this book attempts to provide some answers to these questions      Aging, Death, and the Completion of Being David D. Van Tassel, 2016-11-11 While the problems of aging are being studied with microscope computer and questionnaire as a medical social and economic challenge these essays introduce the humanistic perspective The assumption behind this work is that in history literature folklore and art we have the record of centuries of human experience to enhance our present understanding of aging old age and death Growing old is a process that occurs in every person every minute every hour that passes But if aging does not begin on the day of retirement at the age of sixty five what is the definition of old age Is it chronologically physiologically mentally or culturally determined Old age may not be a phase of life as easily identified as adolescence As our population continues to grow older we are ever more in need of greater sensitivity to the joys and tragedies of old age In recent years however our view of old age has been clouded by our negative feelings about death Old age has become inextricably associated with death It was not always so until a lower infant mortality rate better nutrition and a higher standard of living so greatly increased our chances of surviving into old age death was recognized as a threat at every stage of life This volume brings together twelve eminent scholars from various humanistic disciplines to trace the origins of our present attitudes and to identify the models and myths of old age in our culture The historians in the group ask how old people were treated in past societies Literary scholars and art critics discuss the effects of aging on the later works of authors and artists and art as a source of solace inspiration and revelation to the aged A philosopher explores a theme shared by all that the way one ages and dies is a function of the way one has lived Contributors John Demos Leon Edel Erik H Erikson Leslie Fiedler Tamara K Hareven Robert Kastenbaum Robert Kohn Juanita M Kreps Peter Laslett Francis V O Connor Robert F Sayre

Retrospection and Revision in Modern and Contemporary Art, Literature and Music Mette Gieskes, Mathilde Roza, 2024-01-03 This interdisciplinary book investigates the various ways in which North American and European modern and contemporary artists authors and musicians have returned to earlier works of their own engaging in inventive revivals and transformations of the past in the present The book is distinctive in its focus on such revisits as well as in the diversity of art forms under review in addition to visual art the book explores fiction poetry literary criticism film rock music and philosophy This scope together with the time span covered in the book from the 1850s to the twenty first century allows for a broad view on retrospection and revision The case studies presented here offer a multifaceted exploration of the widely different goals to which practitioners of the arts have made retrospection and revision functional against the background of cultural social political and personal forces

Art After the Bomb Darrell D. Davisson, 2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1.3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9/11 to teach us about Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding Art Digest Newsletter ,1969 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1975 Aging and Old-Age Style in Günter Grass, Ruth Klüger, Christa Wolf, and Martin Walser Stuart Taberner,2013 Explores the performance of aging in the late style of Günter Grass Ruth Klüger Christa Wolf and Martin Walser Demographers say that by the year 2060 every seventh person in Germany will be aged eighty or older and every third person over sixty five The prediction for other Western countries is scarcely different Indeed the aging society is seen by some as a graver threat than even global warming with potentially unmanageable tensions relating to intergenerational relationships work and benefits and flows of people This book explores the representation and performance of aging in recent late style German language fiction It situates the authors chosen as case studies Günter Grass Ruth Klüger Christa Wolf and Martin Walser in their biographical and social contexts and explores the significance of their aesthetic figuring of aging for debates raging both in Germany and internationally In particular the book looks at gender generations and trauma and their impact on how writers narrativize aging Finally it examines the timeliness of these different representations and late style performances of aging in the context of the shift of social political and economic power away from the declining societies of the West to the ascendant societies of the East Stuart Taberner is Professor of Contemporary German Literature Culture and Society at the University of Leeds Aging, Creativity and Art Martin S. Lindauer,2012-12-06 Aging Creativity and Art A Positive Perspective on Late Life Development explores the strengths and opportunities of old age as these are manifested by the accomplishments of aging artists late artistic works and elderly arts audiences The book draws on scholarship in the humanities primarily in art history examines mainly paintings and painters both historical and contemporary reviews empirical research on creativity and cognition predominantly from psychology and gerontology and presents the author's original studies including surveys of art historians questionnaires completed by aging artists and arts audiences and experiments involving judgments of art by laypersons The research presented in Aging Creativity and Art A Positive Perspective on Late Life Development suggests that creativity continues into the later years higher order mental abilities related to creativity like imagination and problem solving persist until late in life and the elderly's physical sensory mental and interpersonal competencies may be enhanced by engagement with the arts This work interrelates the disciplines of science the humanities and the arts to form a synthesis that builds on the strengths of the methods of quantification of science the emphasis on the individual in the humanities and the expressive and intuitive modes of communication in the arts Aging Creativity and Art A Positive Perspective on Late Life Development critically examines the psychology of creativity cognitive development and gerontology and will be of interest to a wide range of professionals and students in these fields Visions of Aging Amir Cohen-Shalev,2009 Explores movies on old age by old filmmakers and movies on old age by younger artists This title focuses on the cinematic representation of ageing from within and examines the ways ageing is viewed from the outside It is suitable for students and scholars of cinema humanistic gerontology psychology of art and the sociology of old age      Manet and Modern Beauty Gloria Groom,2019-06-25 This stunning examination of the last years of douard Manet s life and career is the first book to explore the transformation of his style and subject matter in the 1870s and early 1880s The name Manet often evokes the provocative heroically scaled pictures he painted in the 1860s for the Salon but in the late 1870s and early 1880s the artist produced quite a different body of work stylish portraits of actresses and demimondaines luscious still lifes delicate pastels intimate watercolors and impressionistic scenes of suburban gardens and Parisian caf s Often dismissed as too pretty and superficial by critics these later works reflect Manet s elegant social world propose a radical new alignment of modern art with fashionable femininity and record the artist s unapologetic embrace of beauty and visual pleasure in the face of death Featuring nearly three hundred illustrations and nine fascinating essays by established and emerging Manet specialists a technical analysis of the late Salon painting Jeanne Spring a selection of the artist s correspondence a chronology and more Manet and Modern Beauty brings a diverse range of approaches to bear on a little studied area of this major artist s oeuvre      Vigée Le Brun Joseph Baillio,Katharine Baetjer,Paul Lang,2016-02-15 Elisabeth Louise Vig e Le Brun 1755 1842 was one of the finest eighteenth century french painters and among the most important women artists of all time Celebrated for her expressive portraits of French royalty and aristocracy and especially of her patron Marie Antoinette Vig e Le Brun exemplified success and resourcefulness in an age when women were rarely allowed either Because of her close association with the queen Vig e Le Brun was forced to flee France during the French Revolution For twelve years she traveled throughout Europe painting noble sitters in the courts of Naples Russia Austria and Prussia She returned to France in 1802 under the reign of Emperor Napoleon I where her creativity continued unabated This handsome volume details Vig e Le Brun s story portraying a talented artist who nimbly negotiated a shifting political and geographic landscape Essays by international scholars address the ease with which this self taught artist worked with monarchs the nobility court officials and luminaries of arts and letters many of whom attended her famous salons The position of women artists in Europe and at the Salons of the period is also explored as are the challenges faced by Vig e Le Brun during her exile The ninety paintings and pastels included in this volume attest to Vig e Le Brun s superb sense of color and expression They include exquisite depictions of counts and countesses princes and princesses alongside mothers and children including the artist herself and her beloved daughter Julie A chronology of the life of Vig e Le Brun and a map of her travels accompany the text elucidating the peregrinations of this remarkable independent painter      The Encyclopedia of Adulthood and Aging, 3 Volume Set Susan K. Both Worlds at Once Amir Cohen-Shalev, 2002 Both Worlds at Once is a study of works of art conceived and produced late in their creators careers It pronounces an alternative to the mainstream life span creativity research which has in general adopted a decline perspective to the fruits of old age Amir Cohen Shalev argues that this age decrement approach misses what the artists themselves tried to do in old age which is often to develop a new form that allows them to thrive on ambivalence Against the bleak predictions of developmental psychology and folk wisdom this book focuses on old age as a unique stage of creative activity

Beyond Minimalism Enoch Brater, 1990-12-27 Beyond Minimalism explores Beckett's drama of the 70s and 80s examining the ways in which play text and performance merge through the playwright's poetic idiom Beginning with Not I and continuing through Catastrophe and What Where Brater examines the plays not only as texts but also as theater pieces Discussing the technical and aesthetic demands that productions like Footfalls and Rockaby make on actor director and spectator Brater clarifies the essential relationship between Beckett's achievement in the context of the breakdown of genre performance poetry and the electronic intrusion of the recorded voice as a new theatrical convention In the course of his analysis Brater demonstrates how Beckett's late style in the theater both continues and clarifies the dramatic lyricism that is the hallmark of earlier works such as Endgame and Waiting for Godot
