From Emperor To Citizen Volume One:

From Emperor to Citizen Puyi, 1964 From Emperor to Citizen Yi P'U (Emperor of China), 1964 From Emperor to Citizen Yi P'U (Emperor of China), 1964 Scottish Mandarin Shiona Airlie, 2012-10-01 Colonial administrator writer explorer Buddhist and friend to China's last emperor Sir Reginald Johnston 1874-1938 was a distinguished sinologist with a tangled love and family life that he kept secret even from his closest friends Born and educated in Edinburgh he began his career in the colony of Hong Kong and eventually became Commissioner of the remote British leased territory of Weihai in northern China He travelled widely and during a break from colonial service served as tutor and advisor to Puyi the deposed emperor As the only foreigner allowed to work in the Forbidden City he wrote the classic account of the last days of the Qing Dynasty Twilight in the Forbidden City Granted unique access to Johnston's extensive personal papers once thought to be lost Shiona Airlie tells the life of a complex and sensitive character whose career made a deep impression on 20th century China Gold Warriors Peggy Seagrave, Sterling Seagrave, 2020-05-05 In 1945 US intelligence officers in Manila discovered that the Japanese had hidden large quantities of gold bullion and other looted treasure in the Philippines President Truman decided to recover the gold but to keep its riches secret These combined with Japanese treasure recovered during the US occupation and with recovered Nazi loot would create a worldwide American political action fund to fight communism This Black Gold gave Washington virtually limitless unaccountable funds providing an asset base to reinforce the treasuries of America's allies to bribe political and military leaders and to manipulate elections in foreign countries for more than fifty years From emperor to citizen : the autobiography of Aisin-Gioro Pu Yi. 1, 1964 China Voyager William J. Haas, 2016-09-16 A biography of an important but little known American scientist that evokes the issues of religious and secular beliefs and the evolution of Chinese scientific and educational institutions during the early 1900s Hua i Hsüeh Chih, 1971 Contains bibliographies and book reviews Constructing Empire Bill Sewell, 2019-02-15 Civilians play crucial roles in building empires Constructing Empire shows how Japanese urban planners architects and other civilians contributed often enthusiastically to constructing a modern colonial enclave in northeast China their visions shifting over time Japanese imperialism in Manchuria before 1932 developed in a manner similar to that of other imperialists elsewhere in China but the Japanese thereafter sought to surpass their rivals by transforming the city of Changchun into a grand capital for the puppet state of Manchukuo putting it on the cutting edge of Japanese propaganda Providing a thematic assessment of the evolving nature of planning architecture economy and society in Changchun Bill Sewell examines the key organizations involved in developing Japan's empire there as part of larger efforts to assert its place in the world order This engaging book sheds light on evolving attitudes toward empire and perceptions of national identity among Japanese in Manchuria in the first half of the twentieth century China Resurrected Frans-Paul van der Putten, 2025-06-12 China's rise to superpower is seemingly a modern phenomenon but it has a long history This book follows China's geopolitical transformation on the world

stage from struggling to defend herself against the British in the Opium Wars to rivalling the United States for supremacy. What started as a response to Europe's colonial influence has gradually become China's quest to take a leading role on the world stage. But how did this happen? And what kind of actor is China as a global great power? The answers to these questions lie in how China has been shaped by its changing relationships with major world powers over the last two centuries. Arguing that a series of military defeats in the Opium Wars, Boxer Crisis and Japanese occupation led to a deep-rooted national sense of geopolitical vulnerability, van der Putten shows how this imbalance of power has resulted in Chinese distrust and uncertainty even after it ceased to be prey to imperialist powers. Tracing China's relations with other major powers over the last 185 years, China Resurrected shows how they have influenced the way in which China itself has become a leading power and what this means for its relations with the West. Eastern Horizon, 1965. Asia Literate Schooling in the Asian Century. Christine Halse, 2015-04-10. Globalization, migration, transnational movements and the development of the tiger economies of Asia have led education leaders and policy makers around the world but particularly in Australia, the USA, Canada and New Zealand to view schools as key sites for developing globally competent Asia-literate citizens who have the capabilities to live, work and interact with the peoples, cultures and societies of Asia. In what has been dubbed the Asian Century, nations are increasingly seeking to transform their schooling policies, curricula and teaching workforces to engage with the growing influence of the peoples, cultures and societies both within and beyond Asia. This is the first book to subject to critical scrutiny and analysis the concepts, policies and practices of schooling involved in building intercultural relations with the diverse contemporary manifestations of Asia. It brings into dialogue scholars who are at the forefront of current thinking, policy and practice on Asia-related schooling and contributes to a broader international debate about the future shape of intercultural schooling in a global world. Asia Literate Schooling in the Asian Century offers chapters on Learning Asia, In search of a new narrative, Asia Literacy as Experiential Learning, Professional Standards and Ethics in Teaching Asia Literacy, The Feasibility of Implementing Cross-Curricular Studies of Asia, Deparochialising Education and the Asian Priority, A Curriculum Re-Imagination. This book will appeal to scholars and practitioners in Education and is suitable as a reference for teacher education courses. It will also interest scholars specialising in Asian Studies. Comment, 1965. Far Eastern Economic Review, 1964. T.L.S., 1965. 田中道雄 Scott K. Ling, 1975. Eastern World, 1965. Chinese Studies in History, 1986. The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1979. Contemporary Authors CONTEMPORARY., 1981.
