From Idea To Matter Nine Sculptors:

From Idea to Matter Edward Albee, 2000 From Idea to Matter brings Edward Albee America's foremost playwright to the visual arts stage. The book documents a unique collaboration between Albee and the Anderson Gallery to bring together the work of nine contemporary sculptors: John Beech, John Duff, David Fulton, Barry Goldberg, David McDonald, Richard Nonas, Mia Westerlund Roosen, Jonathan Thomas, and Paul Whiting. Albee has selected the artists, chosen the work, and designed an exhibition installation. From Idea to Matter contains full color images of the artists' work, an introduction by Albee, an insightful conversation between Albee and Harry Rand, art historian from the Smithsonian Institution, and an in-depth discussion of the artists' work by Rand. Edward Albee has been visiting museums, art galleries, art studios, and collecting art for the past 40 years, developing a strong personal visual opinion and aesthetic. His approach to the curatorial process can be compared to the artists' dedication to their sculpture and is equally sure and confident. The Cambridge Companion to

Edward Albee Stephen Bottoms, 2005-07-21 Edward Albee, perhaps best known for his acclaimed and infamous 1960s drama Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? is one of America's greatest living playwrights. Now in his seventies, he is still writing challenging, award-winning dramas. This collection of essays on Albee, which includes contributions from the leading commentators on Albee's work, brings fresh critical insights to bear by exploring the full scope of the playwright's career from his 1959 breakthrough with The Zoo Story to his recent Broadway success The Goat or Who is Sylvia (2002). The contributors include scholars of both theatre and English literature, and the essays thus consider the plays both as literary texts and as performed drama. The collection considers a number of Albee's lesser-known and neglected works, provides a comprehensive introduction and overview, and includes an exclusive original interview with Mr. Albee on topics spanning his whole career. Contemporary Gay American Poets and Playwrights Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2003-06-30

Gay presence is nothing new to American verse and theater. Homoerotic themes are discernible in American poetry as early as the 19th century, and identifiably gay characters appeared on the American stage more than 70 years ago. But aside from a few notable exceptions, gay artists of earlier generations felt compelled to avoid sexual candor in their writings. Conversely, most contemporary gay poets and playwrights are free from such constraints and have created a remarkable body of work. This reference is a guide to their creative achievements. Alphabetically arranged entries present 62 contemporary gay American poets and dramatists. While the majority of included writers are younger artists who came of age in the post-Stonewall U.S., some are older authors whose work has continued or persisted into recent decades. A number of these writers are well known, including Edward Albee, Harvey Fierstein, and Allen Ginsberg. Others, such as Alan Bowne, Timothy Liu, and Robert O'Hara, merit wider recognition. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography, a discussion of major works and themes, an overview of the author's critical reception, and primary and secondary bibliographies. The Natalie and Irving Forman Collection Albright-Knox Art Gallery, Karen Lee Spaulding, 2005 The gift of Natalie and Irving Forman of their stellar art collection of monochrome works of art 161 paintings and sculpture and 127 works on paper constitutes a remarkable contribution to the permanent collection of the Albright Knox Art Gallery It is the single largest gift to be donated at one time to the museum and is particularly noteworthy for its relevance and significance to the Gallery's collection of abstract art This volume celebrates that magnificent gift documents the painting and sculpture collection and marks the exhibition that honors the Formans generosity on view at the Albright Knox Art Gallery May 6 July 3 2005 Book jacket
