From Curriculum To Learning Studies In The Sociology Of Educational Knowledge:

Curriculum and the Specialization of Knowledge Michael Young, Johan Muller, 2015-09-07 This book presents a new way for educators at all levels from early years to university to think about curriculum priorities It focuses on the curriculum as a form of specialised knowledge optimally designed to enable students to gain access to the best knowledge available in any field Papers jointly written by the authors over the last eight years are revised for this volume It draws on the sociology of knowledge and in particular the work of Emile Durkheim and Basil Bernstein opening up the possibilities for collaborative inter disciplinary enquiry with historians philosophers and psychologists Although primarily directed to researchers university teachers and graduate students its arguments about specialised knowledge have profound implications for policy makers

The Curriculum of the Future Michael F. D. Young, 1998 In this important book the author looks back on the knowledge question What knowledge gets selected to be validated as school knowledge or as part of the school curriculum and why is it selected Looking forward Young discusses how most developed countries have high levels of participation in post compulsory education but still use curricula designed for a time when only the elite pursued further education He argues the need to rethink post 16 education to shift focus onto vocational education school work issues and lifelong learning

Emerging Perspectives from Social Realism on Knowledge and Education Graham McPhail, Richard Pountney, Leesa Wheelahan, 2024-10-28 This book brings the key ideas and concepts of social realism to bear on current debates in the fields of knowledge and curriculum The key concern of this collection is to highlight matters related to knowledge and the influence these dimensions have on the formation of curricula pedagogy identity and equity in educational contexts Presenting new perspectives on the place of various types and forms of knowledge in contemporary education this book explores two central questions what type of knowledge is most important to include in a curriculum and what is meant by disciplinary knowledge The chapters use empirical examples to illustrate how the issues play out on a global stage interweaving the social justice concern of equitable access to disciplinary knowledge throughout In particular the authors address the emerging theorisation of issues related to the decolonisation of curricula the recontextualisation of non traditional knowledge into the curriculum and teacher education Offering new philosophical and theoretical perspectives this book will be of interest to researchers scholars and students examining the fields of knowledge and curriculum and the sociology of education more broadly

International Encyclopedia of Education , 2009-04-17 The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological societal and institutional change in recent years making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science Unequalled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage International Encyclopedia of Education Third Edition succeeds two highly successful previous editions 1985 1994 in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty first century reader Under development for five years this work encompasses over 1 000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field Education is a multidisciplinary and international field drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework with 1 500 contributors representing over 100 countries capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field A totally new work revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta sections and articles Developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia Web enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study Incorporates ca 1 350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning demography and social change globalization and adult learning to name a few Offers two content delivery options print and online the latter of which provides anytime anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect as well as multimedia content including audio and video files

Knowledge and Music Education Graham J. McPhail, 2022-08-05 Knowledge and Music Education A Social Realist Account explores current challenges for music education in relation to wider philosophical and political debates and seeks to find a way forward for the field by rethinking the nature and value of epistemic knowledge in the wake of postmodern critiques Focusing on secondary school music and considering changes in approaches to teaching over time this book seeks to understand the forces at play that enhance or undermine music's contribution to a socially just curriculum for all The author argues that the unique nature of disciplinary derived knowledge provides students with essential cognitive development and must be integrated with the turn to more inclusive student centred and culturally responsive teaching Connecting theoretical issues with concrete curriculum design the book considers how we can give music students the benefits of specialised subject knowledge without returning to a traditional past

Geography, Education and the Future Graham Butt, 2011-03-17

Knowledge and the Study of Education Geoff Whitty, John Furlong, 2017-05-08 In the English speaking world university Schools of Education are usually heavily involved in the professional preparation of teachers Yet in England and the USA in particular the role of universities in teacher education has increasingly seemed under threat as alternative providers of training have come on the scene often with the overt encouragement of governments This book which is based on a project that explored how the study of Education is configured in different countries makes visible the different knowledge traditions that inform university teaching and research in Education around the world The extent to which these are related to the training of teachers is shown to vary historically and comparatively The book consists of a substantial introduction by the editors which identifies 12 major knowledge traditions in the study of education and classifies these as Academic Knowledge Traditions such as Sciences de l'education Practical Knowledge Traditions like that practised in Normal Colleges and Integrated Knowledge Traditions including the currently fashionable concept of Research informed Clinical Practice This introduction is followed by contributions on the nature of Education as a field of study in six countries

Australia China France Germany Latvia and the USA authored by established experts from each of those jurisdictions There are also chapters that provide useful conceptual frameworks for understanding the dimensions on which the various traditions in the study of Education differ as well as those that compare the nature of Education along specific dimensions in different countries The book concludes with a discussion in the light of these contributions of future prospects for the field of Education The book will appeal to students teachers and researchers in Education and is intended to encourage less parochial thinking about the nature of Education as a field of international study Routledge Encyclopaedia of Educational Thinkers Joy A. Palmer Cooper,2016-05-20 The Routledge Encyclopaedia of Educational Thinkers comprises 128 essays by leading scholars analysing the most important influential innovative and interesting thinkers on education of all time Each of the chronologically arranged entries explores why a particular thinker is significant for those who study education and explores the social historical and political contexts in which the thinker worked Ranging from Confucius and Montessori to Dewey and Edward de Bono the entries form concise accessible summaries of the greatest or most influential educational thinkers of past and present times Each essay includes the following features concise biographical information on the individual an outline of the individual s key achievements and activities an assessment of their impact and influence a list of their major writings suggested further reading Carefully brought together to present a balance of gender and geographical contexts as well as areas of thought and work in the broad field of education this substantial volume provides a unique history and overview of figures who have shaped education and educational thinking throughout the world Combining and building upon two internationally renowned volumes this collection is deliberately broad in scope crossing centuries boundaries and disciplines The Encyclopaedia therefore provides a perfect introduction to the huge range and diversity of educational thought Offering an accessible means of understanding the emergence and development of what is currently seen in the classroom this Encyclopaedia is an invaluable reference guide for all students of education including undergraduates and post graduates in education or teacher training and students of related disciplines

Knowledge-building Karl Maton,Susan Hood,Suellen Shay,2015-10-08 Education and knowledge have never been more important to society yet research is segmented by approach methodology or topic Legitimation Code Theory or LCT extends and integrates insights from Pierre Bourdieu and Basil Bernstein to offer a framework for research and practice that overcomes segmentalism This book shows how LCT can be used to build knowledge about education and society Comprising original papers by an international and multidisciplinary group of scholars Knowledge building offers the first primer in this fast growing approach Through case studies of major research projects Part I provides practical insights into how LCT can be used to build knowledge by enabling dialogue between theory and data in qualitative research bringing together quantitative and qualitative methodologies in mixed methods research relating theory and practice in praxis conducting interdisciplinary studies with systemic functional linguistics Part II offers a series of studies of pressing issues facing knowledge building in education and beyond encompassing diverse subject areas including physics English cultural studies music and design educational sites schooling vocational education and higher education practices of research curriculum pedagogy and assessment both education and informal learning contexts such as museums and masonic lodges Carefully sequenced and interrelated these chapters form a coherent collection that gives a unique insight into one of the most thought provoking and innovative ways of building knowledge about knowledge building in education and society to have emerged this century This book is essential reading for all serious students and scholars of education sociology and linguistics

On the Theory of Content Transformation in Education Tomáš Janík, Jan Slavík, Petr Najvar, Tereza Češková, 2024-03-21 This volume presents a novel theoretical micro analytical model the 3A Methodology for assessing the quality of school education Drawing on philosophers as well as theoretical and pedagogical traditions from European and American contexts the authors construct a model that is relevant to teachers researchers and teacher educators regardless of cultural setting The chapters explain the 3A Methodology as a specific research tool developed to study classroom situations in the form of case studies revealing findings that demonstrate prototypical failures didactic formalism that threaten to compromise the quality of learning as well as prototypical didactic virtues that verifiably support students learning Ultimately building on the distinction of three modes of existence of educational content the intersubjective the subjective and the objective modes the book helps rediscover didactics as a transdisciplinary theory of content transformation and contributes to the improvement of teaching and learning in the classroom long term This volume will be of interest to scholars researchers and postgraduate students working in school education educational psychology and didactics more broadly Teacher educators and school administrators may also find the book of interest Chapters 1 3 and 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
