Jewish and Christian Scriptures James H. Charlesworth, Lee Martin McDonald, 2010-07-29 The Idea of Israel in Second Temple

Judaism Jason A. Staples, 2021-05-20 In this book Jason A Staples proposes a new paradigm for how the biblical concept of Israel developed in Early Judaism and how that concept impacted Jewish apocalyptic hopes for restoration after the Babylonian Exile Challenging conventional assumptions about Israelite identity in antiquity his argument is based on a close analysis of a vast corpus of biblical and other early Jewish literature and material evidence Staples demonstrates that continued aspirations for Israel's restoration in the context of diaspora and imperial domination remained central to Jewish conceptions of Israelite identity throughout the final centuries before Christianity and even into the early part of the Common Era He also shows that Israelite identity was more diverse in antiquity than is typically appreciated in modern scholarship His book lays the groundwork for a better understanding of the so called parting of the ways between Judaism and Christianity and how earliest Christianity itself grew out of hopes for Israel's restoration Dictionary of Jesus and the Gospels Joel B. Green, Prof. Jeannine K. Unfamiliar Selves in the Hebrew Bible Reed Carlson,2022-01-19 Spirit possession is more commonly associated with late Second Temple Jewish literature and the New Testament than it is with the Hebrew Bible In Unfamiliar Selves in the Hebrew Bible however Reed Carlson argues that possession is also depicted in this earlier literature though rarely according to the typical western paradigm This new approach utilizes theoretical models developed by cultural anthropologists and ethnographers of contemporary possession practicing communities in the global south and its diasporas Carlson demonstrates how possession in the Bible is a corporate and cultivated practice that can function as social commentary and as a means to model the moral self The author treats a variety of spirit phenomena in the Hebrew Bible including spirit language in the Psalms and Job spirit empowerment in Judges and Samuel and communal possession in the prophets Carlson also surveys apotropaic texts and spirit myths in early Jewish literature including the Dead Sea Scrolls In this volume two recent scholarly trends in biblical studies converge investigations into notions of evil and of the self The result is a synthesizing project useful to biblical scholars and those of early Judaism and Christianity alike     Christian Origins and the Establishment of the Early Jesus Movement Stanley E. Matthew's Presentation of the Son of David H. Daniel Zacharias,2016-12-01 H Daniel Zacharias presents a literary critical analysis of the Gospel of Matthew and its interaction with Davidic tradition and use of Davidic typology Throughout the narrative the evangelist makes pervasive use of Davidic tradition from the Old Testament in his portrayal of Jesus This begins from the first verse and the declaration that Jesus is the Son of David and culminates in Jesus usage of Psalm 22 s Davidic lament on the cross Davidic material is present throughout Matthew in allusion in specific citations in thematic material In addition Matthew makes use of Davidic typology numerous times with David as type and Jesus as anti type Zacharias shows how the use of Davidic material presents to the reader a scripturally grounded redefinition of what it means for Jesus to be the Son of David not as a violent militant leader as some expected but as a physical descendant of David a healing shepherd and a humble king Within the Gospel Matthew utilizes Davidic typology to show how the Son of David even has similar experiences as his royal predecessor Even David s own words from the psalms are utilized as testimony to the legitimacy of Jesus as the Davidic Messiah

Christian-Jewish Relations Through the Centuries Stanley E. Porter,Brook W. Pearson,2004-12-19 Christian Jewish relations have had changing fortunes throughout the centuries Occasionally there has been peace and even mutual understanding but usually these relations have been ones of tension often involving recrimination and even violence This volume addresses a number of the major questions that have been at the heart and the periphery of these tenuous relations through the years The volume begins with a number of papers discussing relations as Christianity emerged from and defined itself in terms of Judaism Other papers trace the relations through the intervening years And a number of papers confront issues that have been at the heart of the troubled twentieth century In all these papers address a sensitive yet vital set of issues from a variety of approaches and perspectives becoming

Soon, 2025-05-19 Speculation around the health of Paul the Apostle has been present since soon after his death Recently scholars have understood Paul to be disabled but have been wary of isolating precisely what his disabilities may have been or whether they are important for understanding his writings This book is the first full length study of Paul the Apostle and disability Using insights from contemporary disability studies Isaac Soon analyses features of Paul s body in his ancient Mediterranean context to understand the ways in which his body was disabled Focusing on three such ancient disabilities demonization circumcision and short stature this book draws on a rich variety of ancient evidence from textual sources and epigraphy to ancient visual culture to analyze ancient bodily ideals and the negative cultural effects such deviant persons generated The book also examines Paul s use of his own disabilities in his letters and shows how disability is not subsidiary to his thought but a central aspect of it This book also provides scholars with a new method for uncovering previously unrecognized disabilities in the ancient world Last of all it critiques the latent ableism in much New Testament scholarship which assumes that the figures of the early Jesus movement were able bodied      The Strength Needed to Enter the Kingdom of God Giuseppe G.
