Method and Morals in Constitutional Economics Geoffrey Brennan, Hartmut Kliemt, Robert D. Tollison, 2013-03-09 This Festschrift was presented in electronic form to Buchanan on the occasion of his eightieth birthday on October 3 1999 after dinner in Fairfax Virginia As one might have expected the response to our call for papers was voluminous In looking over the many contributions we felt that a published Festschrift was also possible and fitting for the eightieth birthday of so prodigious and influential a scholar as Professor Buchanan To that end we have assembled the following volume In selecting the papers to be included here we have basically tried to choose those papers which in some way bear on Buchanan's contributions Perfectly good papers about issues not related to Buchanan's research agenda or not referring directly to Buchanan's work were not included Space constraints did not allow universal coverage so choices had to be made It should be stated clearly that these were our choices based on the criterion that the contribution be relevant to Buchanan's work Buchanan had nothing whatsoever to do with the selection of papers for this volume Once choices had been made we arranged the papers by subject matter ranging from various aspects of Buchanan's work in economics political science philosophy and related areas to some more personal recollections of Jim as a professor friend and colleague Including the latter material was also our decision and this probably represents a choice with which Jim would not have agreed We think however that the reader will find these pieces interesting and informative

Fides and Secularity Emilio Di Somma, 2018-11-15 This book wishes to talk about two main topics the Canadian political philosopher Charles Taylor and faith Taylor in his philosophical arguments on religion and secularity has adopted what I call the great prejudice on religion and secularity the two belong to utterly different spheres of human mind and sociality In this prejudice faith is used as a synonym of religion or belief and is understood as something that does not belong to the sphere of secularity My argument contradicts precisely this common belief Is faith more of an anthropological attitude towards reality than a religious one Can we criticize Taylor's philosophy on these grounds To develop my argument I will attempt to develop a dialogue between continental and Anglo American philosophers and theologians in the hope of convincing the readers that we should change radically the way we discuss faith religion and secularism
