American Literature in Transition, 1970-1980

Kirk Curnutt, 2018-03-22 American Literature in Transition 1970-1980 examines the literary developments of the twentieth century's gaudiest decade. For a quarter century, filmmakers, musicians, and historians have returned to the era to explore the legacy of Watergate, stagflation, and Saturday Night Fever, uncovering the unique confluence of political and economic phenomena that make the period such a baffling time. Literary historians have never shown much interest in the era, however, a remarkable omission considering writers as diverse as Toni Morrison, Thomas Pynchon, Marilyn French, Adrienne Rich, Gay Talese, Norman Mailer, Alice Walker, and Octavia E. Butler were active. Over the course of twenty-one essays, contributors explore a range of controversial themes these writers tackled from 1960s nostalgia to feminism and the redefinition of masculinity to sexual liberation and rock n' roll. Other essays address New Journalism, the rise of blockbuster culture, memoir, and self-help, and crime fiction, all demonstrating that the Me Decade was nothing short of mesmerizing. Almost Futures

Thu-huong Nguyen-vo, 2024-06-11 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program. Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more. Almost Futures looks to the people who pay the heaviest price exacted by war and capitalist globalization, particularly Vietnamese citizens and refugees, for glimpses of ways to exist at the end of our future's promise. In order to learn from the lives destroyed and lived amid our inheritance of modern humanism and its uses of time, Almost Futures asks us to recognize new spectrums of feeling the poetic in the grief of protesters, dispossessed by land speculation, the allegorical in assembly line workers' laughter and sorrow, the iterant and intimate in the visual witnessing of revolutionary and state killing, the haunting in refugees writing on the death of their nation, and the irreconcilable in refugees' inhabitation of history. Object Lessons

Robyn Wiegman, 2012-01-11 A passionate advocate of identity studies and a keen reader of U.S. institutional politics, Robyn Wiegman turns her attention in Object Lessons to the critical practices and political ambitions of identity-based fields. In a series of case studies drawn from women's studies, queer studies, ethnic studies, and American studies, she examines the unspoken belief that better theory will produce progressive social change in order to consider the political desire that fuels current scholarly debate. Her metacritical analysis is neither a defense nor a dismissal of such political commitment but a sustained inquiry into the hope it generates, the thinking it inspires, and the conformity it inadvertently demands. Chaucerotics

Geoffrey W. Gust, 2018-07-12 Chaucerotics examines the erotic language in Chaucerian literature through a unique lens, utilizing the tools of pornographic literary theory to open up Chaucer's ribald poetry to fresh modes of analysis. By introducing and applying the notion of Chaucerotics, this study argues for a more historically nuanced and theoretically sophisticated understanding of the obscene content in Chaucer's fabliaux and Troilus and Criseyde. This book demonstrates that the sexually suggestive language of this magisterial Middle English poet could stimulate and titillate various literary audiences in late medieval England and even goes so far as to suggest that Chaucer might well be understood as the Father of English pornography for playing a notable liminal role in the development of porn as a literary genre. In making this case, Geoffrey W. Gust presents an insightful account of an important intellectual issue and opens up the subject of premodern pornography to consideration in a way that is new and highly provocative Cultural Erotics in Cuban America Ricardo L. Ortíz, 2006 Miami is widely considered the center of Cuban American culture. However, vital to the diasporic communities' identity, Miami is not the only or necessarily the most profound site of cultural production. Looking beyond South Florida, Ricardo L. Ortíz addresses the question of Cuban American diaspora and cultural identity by exploring the histories and self-sustaining practices of smaller communities in such U.S. cities as Los Angeles, Chicago, and New York. In this wide-ranging work, Ortíz argues for the authentically diasporic quality of postrevolutionary off-island Cuban experience. Highlighting various forms of cultural expression, Cultural Erotics in Cuban America traces underrepresented communities' responses to the threat of cultural disappearance in an overwhelming and hegemonic U.S. culture. Ortíz shows how the work of Cuban American writers and artists challenges the heteronormativity of both home and host culture. Focusing on artists who have had an ambivalent, indirect, or nonexistent connection to Miami, he presents close readings of such novelists as Reinaldo Arenas, Roberto G. Fernández, Achy Obejas, and Cristina García; the playwright Eduardo Machado; the poet Rafael Campo; and musical performers Albita Rodríguez and Celia Cruz. Ortíz charts the legacies of sexism and homophobia in patriarchal Cuban culture as well as their influence on Cuban revolutionary and Cuban exile ideologies. Moving beyond the outdated cultural terms of the Cold War, he looks forward to envision queer futures for Cuban American culture free from the ties to restrictive, indeed oppressive, constructions of nation, place, language, and desire. Ricardo L. Ortíz is an associate professor of English at Georgetown University.

Looking for the Other E. Ann Kaplan, 2012-09-10 What happens when white people look at non-whites? What happens when the gaze is returned? Looking for the Other responds to criticisms leveled at white feminist film theory of the 1970s and 1980s for its neglect of issues to do with race. It focuses attention on the male gaze across cultures as illustrated by women filmmakers of color whose films deal with travel. Looking relations are determined by history, tradition, myth, by national identity, power, hierarchies, politics, economics, geographical and other environment. Travel implicitly involves looking at and looking relations with peoples different from oneself. Featured films include Birth of a Nation, The Cat People, Home of the Brave, Black Narcissus, Chocolat, and Warrior Marks. Featured filmmakers include D.W. Griffith, Jacques Tourneur, Michael Powell, Julie Dash, Pratibha Parmar, Trinh T. Minh-ha, and Claire Denis.

Theory of the Image Ann Kibbey, 2005 A refreshing critique that offers a new paradigm for film studies.

Popular Culture Raiford Guins, Omayra Zaragoza Cruz, 2005-05 The selection of essays here is outstanding. The Reader is particularly strong in bridging between founding figures and cutting-edge work by newer writers. Henry Jenkins, MIT. An extraordinarily well-considered selection of articles and essays arranged with skill and style. Charlie Blake, University College Northampton. Popular Culture: A Reader helps students understand the pervasive role of popular culture and the processes that constitute it as a product of industry, an intellectual object of inquiry, and an integral component of all our lives. Telling Bodies Performing Birth Della Pollock, 1999-07-07 Birth stories Della Pollock tells us are everywhere and nowhere permeating and haunting our everyday lives In this remarkable volume Pollock explores the myriad ways in which men and women recount the ritual performance of giving birth Many of these stories Pollock observes rise out of the depths of terror flirting with disaster only to end with a profound sense of relief at what medical discourse calls a good outcome Others represent pain make counterclaims on reproductive technologies and suggest complex associations between maternity sexuality and body politics in the contemporary United States Pollock retells stories about some of the injustices that structure giving and telling birth finding there a reckoning with the unknown and unknowable Focusing on the performances of birth stories Pollock writes an intimate ethnography an account of listening body to body to stories that press the borders of cultural critique with virtuosity possibility desire and risk She draws on cultural criticism performance studies and narrative theory to unpack this long ignored practice Most striking however are the stories presented here unsanctioned bold fragmentary and often furtive they both unnerve and inspire even as they realize and resist cultural norms

Unwanted Advances Laura Kipnis, 2018-07-17 Feminism is broken the current attempts to protect women from sexual abuse on campus and on line Regulation is replacing education and women s hard won right to be treated as consenting adults is being repealed by well meaning bureaucrats In Unwanted Advances passionate feminist Kipnis find the object of a protest march by student activists at her university for writing an essay about sexual paranoia on campus In response she starts to question women s role in national debates over free speech and safe spaces She explores the astonishing netherworld of accused professors and students campus witch hunts rigged investigations and demonstrates the chilling effect of this new sexual McCarthyism on higher education Without minimizing the seriousness of campus assault Kipnis argues for more honesty a timely critique of feminist paternalism and the covert sexual conservatism of hook up culture

The Politics of Judgment Kennan Ferguson, 2007-02-01 Drawing on recent contributions to philosophy economics cultural studies feminism psychology and anthropology The Politics of Judgment demonstrates how modern political identities depend upon and are formed by aesthetic judgment
