Bonhoeffer's Reception of Luther Michael P. DeJonge, 2017 This study considers the influence of Martin Luther's theology on Dietrich Bonhoeffer with particular reference to justification ecclesiology the doctrine of the two kingdoms and political ethics

Doctrine, Dynamic and Difference Pieter de Witte, 2012-03-29 One of the most divisive issues in Western Christianity since the Reformation is the question of how humans are justified by God In 1999 after many decades of ecumenical dialogue Lutherans and Roman Catholics have declared that this issue of justification by faith is no longer a cause of division between them One of the fascinating features of this Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification JDDJ is that it expresses a differentiated consensus on justification The method of differentiated consensus is generally regarded as an important methodological step forward in the ecumenical dialogue It has been used and referred to in ecumenical documents published after 1999 But what are its meaning and implications This study attempts to clarify the method of differentiated consensus by 1 investigating the process of doctrinal rapprochement which led up to the JDDJ 2 examining the way the consensus takes shape in the document itself 3 analyzing arguments offered by critics and advocates of the official dialogue and 4 reflecting on the concept of doctrinal difference Dictionary of Luther and the Lutheran Traditions, 2017-08-22 In the five hundred years since the publication of Martin Luther's Ninety Five Theses a rich set of traditions have grown up around that action and the subsequent events of the Reformation This up to date dictionary by leading theologians and church historians covers Luther's life and thought key figures of his time and the various traditions he continues to influence Prominent scholars of the history of Lutheran traditions have brought together experts in church history representing a variety of Christian perspectives to offer a major cutting edge reference work Containing nearly six hundred articles this dictionary provides a comprehensive overview of Luther's life and work and the traditions emanating from the Wittenberg Reformation It traces the history theology and practices of the global Lutheran movement covering significant figures events theological writings and ideas denominational subgroups and congregational practices that have constituted the Lutheran tradition from the Reformation to the present day

Martin Luther and the Shaping of the Catholic Tradition Nelson H. Minnich, Michael Root, 2022-01-14 The relation of the Catholic Church to the Reformation that Luther set in motion is complex The Reformation had roots in the late medieval Catholic tradition and the Catholic reaction to the Reformation altered Catholicism in complex ways both positive and negative A conference entitled Luther and the shaping of the Catholic tradition held at The Catholic University of America with thirteen Catholic Orthodox and Protestant speakers

Bucher,2003 Examine Luther s doctrinal hermeneutic The Ecumenical Luther investigates Luther s definition of doctrine and its application in three key ecumenical encounters Luther s 1523 discussion with the Unitas Fratrum his engagement in the eucharistic controversies and the 1529 Marburg Colloquy and his 1537 Smalcald Articles Bucher argues that Luther gradually developed a doctrinal hermeneutic for determining whether a particular church teaching is an article of faith obligatory for all Christians His doctrinal hermeneutic consisted of two canons scriptural and evangelical that served as interpretive lenses through which he judged whether a doctrine is necessary for salvation Luther applied his doctrinal hermeneutic to ecumenical discussions to ascertain and ensure that only articles of faith would serve as a basis for unity

Mapping the Differentiated Consensus of the Joint Declaration Jakob Karl Rinderknecht, 2016-10-12. This book uses the insights of cognitive linguistics to argue for the possibility of differentiated consensus between separated churches. The Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification, signed by the Lutheran World Federation and the Roman Catholic Church in 1999, represents the high water mark of the twentieth century ecumenical movement. It declares that the sixteenth century condemnations related to justification do not condemn the teachings of the partner church. Some critics reject the agreement, arguing that a consensus that is differentiated is not actually a consensus. In this book, Jakob Karl Rinderknecht shows that mapping the cognitive blends that structure meaning can reveal underlying agreement within apparent theological contradictions. He traces Lutheran and Catholic positions on sin in the baptized, especially the Lutheran simul iustus et peccator and the Catholic insistence that concupiscence in the baptized is not sin. He demonstrates that the JDDJ reconciles these positions and therefore that a truly differentiated consensus is possible.

Theological Renewal for the Third Millennium Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2022-08-12. Amos Yong has stated that Veli-Matti Karkkainen has become one of the more important theologians to be reckoned with in our time. This becoming has developed over the course of many decades with prolific contributions in essays, monographs, lectures and other mediums. The goal of this book then is to offer a curated selection of Karkkainen's essays for both new and established readers of Karkkainen. This volume offers an accessible introduction to Karkkainen's diverse contribution for readers who are only familiar with his popular survey texts or are new to his work overall. And yet for those familiar with his theology, this volume provides insights into the journey his theological contributions have taken over the last fifteen years and serves as a kind of intellectual storyboard leading into his five volume constructive systematics. In sum, this book seeks to offer a wide-ranging taste of Karkkainen's trajectory that will inspire more research into his work and ever more attention to his important constructive contributions to global twenty-first century theology.

Luther@500 and Beyond ATF Press, 2019-09-13. The Luther 500 anniversary may be behind us, but Luther stands ahead of us in many ways. The essays in this volume by an international group of scholars begin with a contextual discussion of Luther's definitive contribution to the Wittenberg Reformation and its significance for us today. New light is shed on old issues across a range of topics. But these essays do not stay in the past. Many also engage critically with contemporary issues in Luther interpretation and a few boldly trace the trajectory of Luther's reformational theology into the future.

The Reformation Steven M. Studebaker, Gordon

L. Heath, 2021-04-16 Martin Luther's nailing of the Ninety Five Theses on the church door at Wittenberg was a pivotal moment in the birth of what would become known as the Reformation. More than five hundred years later, historians and theologians continue to discuss the impact of these events and their ongoing relevance for the church today. The collection of essays contained in this volume not only engages the history and theology of this sixteenth-century movement but also focuses on how the message and praxis of the Protestant reformers can be translated into a post-Christendom West.

Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political, social, cultural, and religious process. Most historians agree, however, that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church, decadent and irrelevant in many ways, that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion. Among these reforming religious and theological forces, the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one. It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther (1483-1546) that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond. Today, Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia, Papua New Guinea, Madagascar, and Surinam. The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues, historical developments of Lutheranism, worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement, and activities, worship, and liturgy, spirituality, social ethics, inter-religious and Jewish relations, Lutheranism and the arts, theology, and important representatives of Lutheranism. This is done through a detailed chronology, an introductory essay, an appendix of Lutheran Churches, a bibliography, and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism.

Who Do I Say That You Are? William Schumacher, 2010-01-04 The question of what it means to be a human creature lies at the heart of contemporary wrestling with anthropology, and especially anthropology from a theological perspective. Through both historical and systematic engagement with the so-called Finnish school of Tuomo Mannermaa, this study explores and assesses the anthropological dimension of their theology of theosis or deification. Mannermaa initiated a minor revolution in Luther studies and in contemporary Lutheran theology by interpreting Luther's doctrine of justification to be a close analog to the Eastern Orthodox doctrine of theosis, but his ecumenical interests led him to minimize or overlook key themes in Luther and sharp distinctions between Luther and Orthodox theologians. Mannermaa's colleague Simo Peura then developed this thesis with specific reference to anthropology in a way reminiscent of the sixteenth-century reformer Andreas Osiander. On closer inspection, the project of Mannermaa and his Finnish colleagues fails to understand adequately both Luther's sources and his own theological development. In this study, a theological anthropology, which is more consistent with Luther's theology, is developed: an anthropology which is determined by God's address to his human creatures, what God himself says we are and what he makes us by that word. Such an answer to the anthropological

Lutheran and Catholic Reconciliation on Justification John A. Radano, 2009-07-28 After centuries of estrangement between Lutherans and Catholics new ecclesial relationships began at Vatican II and continued to develop during the following decades. In this broader context Lutheran and Catholic Reconciliation on Justification traces the evolution of the 1999 Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification. While describing the steps that led to the Declaration and showing the Lutheran initiatives indispensable for making those steps, John Radano pays particular attention to the Holy See's contributions.
