Leadership and Succession in the Soviet Union, Eastern Europe, and China Martin McCauley, Stephen Carter, 2016-07-08 First Published in 1986 The papers in this volume were originally delivered at a series of seminars held at the School of Slavonic and East European Studies University of London between January and May 1984 The inspiration for the scheme was the Soviet succession struggle of 1982 but further reflection indicated that the problem of elderly leaderships and the apparent absence of legitimate succession mechanisms applied to nearly all communist systems East-West Economic Relations in the Changing Global Environment Bela Csikos-Nagy, David G. Young, 1986-09-29 UNDOC, Current Index, 1986 Energy in Europe Thomas G. Lampe, 2024-12-02 First published in 1986 The Bulgarian Economy now with a new preface by the author traces the rapid growth of the Bulgarian economy throughout the twentieth century It also notes the obstacles Bulgaria has faced in bringing about industrial development in a small relatively poor country where in the early twentieth century agriculture predominated It explores the difficulties which have arisen because of the unusual domination of a relatively isolated capital city Sofia over the rest of the country. It examines the effects of Bulgaria's being on the losing side in three wars. An abrupt change in economic strategy and management came with the Communist accession to power in 1944 and with the simultaneous reorientation from close ties with Germany to close ties with the Soviet Union. The book shows however that significant state control had appeared well before this transition and that there is much in common between the pre and post war periods. It goes on to emphasise economic growth and structural change in the post war period and the unusually large role of foreign trade. The reforms which have taken place since 1960 are accorded a separate final chapter.
