Economic Transformation In Central Europe A Progreb Report:

Economic transformation in Central Europe Richard Portes,1994 Economic Reforms and Capital Markets in Central Europe Ken Morita,2017-11-30 Is the economic reform of Central Europe influenced by or an influence upon capital markets Where does globalization fit in Ken Morita s pioneering work investigates the relationship between the systemic transition of Central European economies and capital markets in particular the commodity futures markets and speculation Global Long-term Economic Growth and the Economic Transformation of Poland and Eastern Europe Stanisław Gomulka,2023 One of the characteristic facts concerning the catching up countries is the exceptionally large variation in their per capita annual rate of growth from about zero to about 10% The papers published in this monograph show that this rate is strongly dependent on the rate of investment the quality of the labour force and the quality of institutions The rate of investment is in turn dependent on the rate of domestic savings In Poland domestic savings are shown to have been and continue to be very low by international standards The trend rate of growth of about 3.7% has been about 2 pp higher than that of the most developed economies mainly thanks to the development of modern market institutions and a new private sector and partly thanks to foreign direct investments and a significant inflow of finance from the European Union EU The data also show that by far the least successful transformation in Eastern Europe has taken place in Ukraine Author s Introduction Our discussion is limited to the Technology Frontier Area TFA of the world The central question is how the area s innovation rate changes over time in the course of centuries The analysis indicates that the pattern of change of the innovation rate over time may be eventually hat shaped This Hat Shape Relationship is an empirical law that is given a theoretical interpretation It is in part a prediction based on the author s model of innovation and growth Its acceleration and steady growth segments correspond well to the past reality Its slowdown part is the central thesis of the book Transition, Cohesion and Regional Policy in Central and Eastern Europe Ruth Downes,2019-07-17 This title was first published in 2000 One of the most comprehensive overviews of regional development and policy emergence in the Central and East European countries to date this book focuses on economic and social cohesion bringing together a wide range of empirical research and discussion material East-Central European Economies in Transition ,1994 Distributed to some depository libraries in microfiche Transition, Regional Development And Globalization: China And Central Europe Ken Morita,Yun Chen,2010-02-10 Since the end of the Cold War developing a better framework to correctly recognize which direction globalization and the transition will take us has been necessary The transition economies of China and Central Europe in particular hold significant implications for East Asian integration and EU enlargement respectively This book examines the processes of transition regional development and globalization focusing on China and Central Europe and seeks to identify a new and stable international framework with improved outcomes for all Divided into three parts the book first analyzes several key economic issues concerning transition in China and Central Europe it then examines these issues from the viewpoint of international relations finally it considers potential future directions for China Japan US and EU It therefore constitutes an important contribution to our understanding of the ongoing process of globalization and ways to improve Sino Japanese EU American Central European economic relations

Transforming Post-Communist Political Economies

National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Task Force on Economies in Transition, 1998-03-02 This ground breaking new volume focuses on the interaction between political social and economic change in Central and Eastern Europe and the New Independent States It includes a wide selection of analytic papers thought provoking essays by leading scholars in diverse fields and an agenda for future research It integrates work on the micro and macro levels of the economy and provides a broad overview of the transition process This volume broadens the current intellectual and policy debate concerning the historic transition now taking place from a narrow concern with purely economic factors to the dynamics of political and social change It questions the assumption that the post communist economies are all following the same path and that they will inevitably develop into replicas of economies in the advanced industrial West It challenges accepted thinking and promotes the utilization of new methods and perspectives

Governing the New Europe Jack Ernest Shalom Hayward, Edward Page, 1995 Governing the New Europe provides a comprehensive and scholarly account of the changing political map of Europe as it emerges from the Cold War Exploring the variations of liberal democracy and market economy among the European states as well as current trends in these directions the contributors to this volume all leading authorities in European politics consider whether a common political model has begun to emerge out of historic European diversity Beginning with a discussion of the political economic and cultural development of Europe from a historical perspective the focus of the book shifts to an examination of the changing forms of European democracy and the move from public ownership and planning to privatization and deregulated competition Further essays analyze the challenge to national party systems and electoral performance from emerging social movements and organized interest groups Political and bureaucratic structures are also examined as is the new European constitutionalism reflected in the increasingly significant role of the judiciary Lastly attention is turned to several major themes in European politics the changing foundations of foreign and security policy the function of industrial champion firms and the retreat from the welfare state Primarily comparative in its scope Governing the New Europe does devote particular attention to specific major states as well as to the importance of the European Union to the political life of member and non member countries Neither exaggerating the common features of the patterns that have emerged in contemporary Europe nor capitulating to the complexity of enduring differences and instabilities between states Governing the New Europe will become one of the standard texts in its field Contributors Jack Hayward Jolyon Howorth Herbert Kitschelt Marie Lavigne Tom Mackie Michael Mezey Edward C Page Richard Parry Richard Rose Anthony Smith Alec Stone

Economies in Transition Wing Thye Woo, Stephen Parker, Jeffrey Sachs, 1997 In 1994 the Asia Foundation s Center for

Asian Pacific Affairs began a two year project to compare the transitions of selected East European and Asian economies from centrally planned communist systems to market economies The goal was to shed light on the transition process through an understanding of the underlying economic and institutional dynamics This volume is the culmination of that project The volume is divided into three parts In the first part an overview the editors review the authors findings and highlight major themes The second part looks closely at the transition process in seven Asian and East European economies China Vietnam Mongolia Russia Poland Hungary and the Czech Republic The third part contains six comparative studies that explore key elements of the transition process The papers incorporate feedback obtained from meetings with cabinet members and high government officials conferences and seminars in Prague Ho Chi Minh City Hanoi Beijing Ulan Bator and Washington D C Contributors Leszek Balcerowicz Barbara Blaszczyk Peter Boone Yuan Zheng Cao Bruce Comer Marek Dabrowski Georges de Menil Daniel C Esty Gang Fan Boris Federov Roman Frydman Carol Graham Stephen Parker Andrzej Rapaczynski James Riedel Jeffrey D Sachs Baavaa Tarvaa Vinod Thomas Gavin Tritt Adiya Tsend Enkhbold Tsendjav Joel Turkewitz Narantsetseg Unenburen Yan Wang Wing Thye Woo Reforming Planned Economies in an Integrating World Economy Barry P.

Bosworth, Gur Ofer, 2000-07-26 The still chaotic states of the former Soviet Union a growing China and the divergent nations of Eastern Europe are striving to radically transform their economies In their quest to become more integrated with the global economy they are making historic changes to move toward market based private enterprise systems In this book Barry P Bosworth and Gur Ofer provide a balanced assessment of the progress of integration among the formerly centrally planned economies So far the results of the reform process range from amazing success in China to economic and political disarray in the states of the former Soviet Union The authors outline the key issues that any successful reform program must address and the sequence in which these reforms should take place A volume of Brookings Integrating National Economies Series

Poland's New Capitalism Jane Hardy, 2009-07-20 This book explores the way that neoliberal policies have formed the basis of political transformation in Poland championed by both post communist and post Solidarity governments Poland was central to the historic changes that took place across Eastern Europe at the end of the Cold War It is the largest economy in the region and was at the forefront of opposition to communism Since then neoliberal policies have controlled the country This book assesses the impact of these policies the role of capital in the form of transnational corporations and foreign direct investment The revival of trade unions and growth of new social movements are also explored as they challenge Poland's new capitalism The Market Meets Its Match Alice Hoffenberg Amsden, Jacek Kochanowicz, Lance Taylor, 1998 Under free market shock therapy many economies of former socialist countries of Eastern Europe have declined Why has there been so much stagnation inflation and de industrialization and what can be done to produce a turnaround This book addresses these questions in revealing detail Reform of the Socialist System in Central and Eastern Europe Martin J. Bull, Mike

Ingham, 2016-07-27 This book analyzes the reform of the socialist system in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union Uniquely it adopts a multi disciplinary perspective which includes authors from both Western Europe and the former Communist world The volume contains analyses of the prospects for civil society economic reform and privatisation theories of economic transition and the role of the state political change and the persistence of former Communist parties the prospects for democracy in the former Soviet Union and gender aspects of labour market reform From Plan to Market -- Pattern of Transition Martha de Melo,Cevdet Denizer,Alan H. Gelb,Banco Mundial,1996 The Bulgarian Economy Derek C Jones,Jeffrey Miller,2019-01-22 First published in 1997 this volume examines how Bulgaria has been an early starter but a slow and often erratic mover in the path of stabilization and systemic transition This book provides a most useful account of the development to date and of the costs associated with Bulgarian strategy or lack of empirical analysis and theoretical reflections especially in comparison with other transition economies It will be of great interest to any scholar official or businessman involved not only with Bulgaria but more generally with post communist countries Lessons from the Economic Transition Salvatore Zecchini,Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,1997-02-28 Economists from eastern and western Europe and the US offer their views on the shortcomings and pitfalls in the transition policies applied so far and on what policies should be pursued to attain the result they favor Focusing mostly on Bulgaria Romania and Russia they examine the overall framework of the transition strategy the restructuring and development of the enterprise sector the unemployment problem and social issues and the integration of countries in the region into the world economy The 23 papers are revised from presentations at a May 1996 colloquium and comments and summaries of general discussion are included for each major topic No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Lessons from the Failure of the Communist Economic System Ladislav Ruscich,Stephen M. Sachs,2004-04-01 Why have the neoliberal economic programs aimed at transforming Eastern Europe to a market economy and democracy since 1989 not only experienced unanticipated difficulties but more importantly failed to achieve their expected progress Dr Ladislav Ruscich and Dr Stephen M Sachs offer a comprehensive and critical study that examines this specific question and concludes that the cultural and institutional conditions created by communism must be overcome in order to critique previous policies and propose a better direction Drawing on the experiences of Dr Ruscich who for many years was an important participant in the communist economic apparatus and who is also among the leaders attempting to reform it during the Prague Spring of 1968 this work corrects common misconceptions among mainstream economists about the workings of communist economies Lessons from the Failure of the Communist Economic System is a first hand expert account that provides useful economic lessons applicable to the first world concerning such topics as the role of power in the economy monopoly bureaucracy market culture and ethics to name a few Financial Sector Transformation Mario I. Blejer,Marko Skreb,1999-04-28 This book offers overviews of issues in banking sector reform and capital markets in Central and Eastern Europe China and Israel Continuities in Poland's Permanent Transition H. Wydra,2001-02-02 This book examines change in post 1989

Poland by linking it analytically to the continuity of Poland's past. It argues that the first reality of objective institutional change is underpinned by the continuity of second realities. Based on an interdisciplinary analysis of the Polish case, this study proposes a new conceptual framework for the study of transitional societies and revises standard assumptions in transitionology and democratization studies.

Environmental Regulation in Transforming Economies: The Case of Poland Piotr Jasinski, Helen Lawton-Smith, 2018-12-17. First published in 1999, the book is based on papers given at the final workshop of a research project into the evolution of environmental regulation in Poland undertaken as part of the UK's ERSC Global Environmental Change Programme. Other invited papers focused on the development of regulatory policy in transforming economies and in the UK. Furthermore, the book highlights the weakness of internal political processes in Poland and the important role played by foreign sponsored pressures whilst examining the divergence between the way environmental charges are supposed to operate and the ways in which they are implemented and enforced. Topics covered include the links between privatisation and the environment, the saline water problem in Upper Silesia, enforcement of and compliance with environmental charges, air pollution in Krakow, and the structure of the Polish environmental administration system.
