Neville,2009 The essays in this collection start with the premise that although race like class and gender is socially constructed all three categories have been shaped profoundly by their context in a capitalist society Race in other words is a historical category that develops not only in dialectical relation to class and gender but also in relation to the material conditions in which all three are forged In addition to discussing and analyzing various dimensions of the African American experience contributors also consider the ways in which race plays itself out in the experience of Asian Americans and in the very different geopolitical environments of the British Empire and postcolonial Africa Contributors are Pedro Caban Sundiata Keita Cha Jua David Crockett Theodore Koditschek Scott Kurashige Clarence Lang Minkah Makalani Helen A Neville Ibitola O Pearce David Roediger Monica M White and Jeffrey Williams The Bloomsbury Companion to Marx Andrew Pendakis,Imre Szeman,Jeff Diamanti,2018-12-27 There are very few figures in history that have exerted as much and as varied an influence as Karl Marx His work represents an unrivalled intervention into fields as various as philosophy journalism economics history politics and cultural criticism His name is invoked across the political spectrum in connection to revolution and insurrection social justice and economic transformation The Bloomsbury Companion to Marx is the definitive reference guide to Marx s life and work Written by an international team of leading Marx scholars the book offers comprehensive coverage of Marx s life and contexts sources influences and encounters key writings major themes and topics and reception and influence The defining feature of this Companion is its attention to the new directions in Marxism that animate the theoretical scientific and political sides of Marx s thought Gender and the growing importance of Marxist feminism is treated as equally important to clarifying Marx today as traditional and diverse categories of critique such as class capital and mode of production Similarly this Companion showcases the methodological and political importance of Marxism to environmentalist politics Finally the volume examines in detail non European Marxisms demonstrating the centrality of Marxist thought to political movements

White on White/Black on Black George Yancy, 2005-03-25 White on White Black on Black is a unique contribution to the philosophy of race The book explores how fourteen philosophers seven white and seven black philosophically understand the dynamics of the process of racialization Combined the contributions demonstrate different and similar conceptual trajectories of raced identities that emerge from within and across the racial divide Each of the fourteen philosophers who share a textual space of exploration name blackness whiteness revealing significant political cultural and existential aspects of what it means to be black white Through the power of naming and theorizing whiteness and blackness White on White Black on Black dares to bring clarity and complexity to our understanding of race identity

Spectres of 1919 Barbara Foley, 2010-10-01 A look at the violent Red Summer of 1919 and its intersection with the highly politicized New Negro movement and the Harlem Renaissance With the New Negro movement and the Harlem Renaissance the 1920s was a landmark decade in African American political and cultural history characterized by an upsurge in racial awareness and artistic creativity In Spectres of 1919 Barbara Foley traces the origins of this revolutionary era to the turbulent year 1919 identifying the events and trends in American society that spurred the black community to action and examining the forms that action took as it evolved Unlike prior studies of the Harlem Renaissance which see 1919 as significant mostly because of the geographic migrations of blacks to the North Spectres of 1919 looks at that year as the political crucible from which the radicalism of the 1920s emerged Foley draws from a wealth of primary sources taking a bold new approach to the origins of African American radicalism and adding nuance and complexity to the understanding of a fascinating and vibrant era

Race in the Schools Judith R. Blau, 2003 Judith Blau's disturbing study presents strong evidence that our schools assumed by many to be an equalizing force in U S society are in fact racialized settings that reproduce white advantage to the detriment of all students Drawing on rich longitudinal databases Blau explores the values activities and educational experiences of a sample of young people born a decade or so after the 1964 Civil Rights Act was signed into law She focuses on topics that are both important in students lives and central in schooling attitudes toward integrity and cheating getting into trouble interracial relations learning and going to college Her remarkable findings challenge many assumptions long held by researchers and policymakers Race in the Schools combining an accessible style sophisticated methodology and clear policy relevance is a seminal study of the pervasive consequences of race in the U S education system
