

A photograph of a dirt path leading through a forest. The trees are covered in autumn foliage, with shades of orange, yellow, and brown. The path is light-colored and leads towards a bright light source at the end of the path, creating a strong lens flare effect. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

God loves you simply because He has chosen to do so. He loves you when you don't feel lovely. He loves you when no one else loves you. Others may abandon you, divorce you, and ignore you, but God will love you always. No matter what!

Jenni Kirby grew up in Apartheid South Africa. As a young Coloured girl, she had been adversely impacted by Apartheid; she vividly recalls profound experiences. She angrily joined the Struggle. During the 1970s, she met a fellow white activist, and they fell in love. The young couple experienced rejection from all sides; it had still been against the law to be in a relationship across the colour bar. They eventually found themselves exiles in Britain, but there they encountered new challenges. In the UK, Jenni entered into the ministry as a Methodist minister, but she could never detach from her mother country. These memoirs are about her pilgrimage in seeking a better country; it is about relationships and being connected, about identity and rejection, the struggle between anger and love, and about the inner journey towards grace. It is a remarkable story, captivating and brilliantly written.
