Rode, 2017-11-17 Academy Award winning director Michael Curtiz 1886-1962 whose best known films include Casablanca 1942 Yankee Doodle Dandy 1942 Mildred Pierce 1945 and White Christmas 1954 was in many ways the anti auteur. During his unprecedented twenty seven year tenure at Warner Bros he directed swashbuckling adventures westerns musicals war epics romances historical dramas horror films tearjerkers melodramas comedies and film noir masterpieces. The director's staggering output of 180 films surpasses that of the legendary John Ford and exceeds the combined total of films directed by George Cukor Victor Fleming and Howard Hawks. In the first biography of this colorful instinctual artist Alan K Rode illuminates the life and work of one of the film industry's most complex figures. He explores the director's little known early life and career in his native Hungary revealing how Curtiz shaped the earliest days of silent cinema in Europe before immigrating to the United States in 1926. In Hollywood Curtiz earned a reputation for explosive tantrums his difficulty with English and disregard for the well being of others. However few directors elicited more memorable portrayals from their casts and ten different actors delivered Oscar nominated performances under his direction. In addition to his study of the director's remarkable legacy Rode investigates Curtiz's dramatic personal life discussing his enduring creative partnership with his wife screenwriter Bess Meredyth as well as his numerous affairs and children born of his extramarital relationships. This meticulously researched biography provides a nuanced understanding of one of the most talented filmmakers of Hollywood's golden age.

He was later hired as a director by various studios mostly for ballet and musical shorts before being assigned to a number of commercially successful films. During his 30 year career he worked in several European countries yet it was in the U.S. he achieved his greatest success with Warner Brothers and 20th Century Fox. Ben Hecht's Theatre of Jewish Protest Garrett Eisler, 2025 Ben Hecht is most remembered as a famous Hollywood screenwriter and Broadway playwright but only recently has his extensive Jewish activism during the Holocaust and its aftermath received scholarly attention. Unlike other more expansive Hecht biographies this book focuses in depth on his Jewish political theatre drawing on extensive archival research of four dramas: We Will Never Die 1943 A Jewish Fairy Tale 1944 A Flag Is Born 1946 and The Terrorist 1947. Garrett Eisler's readings of these little known and out of print texts reclaim them as pivotal to the history of Jewish American drama being among the first works of U.S. theatre to address the Holocaust. The full texts of all four works are republished here for the first time along with production details and full performance histories Hecht introduced a new heroic Jewish identity to the American stage one that challenged popular stereotypes of villainy or weakness This powerful and still controversial body of work stands as a striking testament to the power of theatre to rise to the moment The book also features a supporting cast of famous collaborators on these projects including Paul Muni Edward G Robinson John Garfield Moss Hart Kurt Weill and a young Marlon Brando In their use of the stage to aggressively engage with history as it was happening the story of Hecht and his colleagues is a compelling case of artists who made a difference LIFE

William K. Klingaman,2019-02-19 The Darkest Year is acclaimed author William K Klingaman's narrative history of the American home front from December 7 1941 through the end of 1942 a psychological study of the nation under the pressure of total war For Americans on the home front the twelve months following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor comprised the darkest year of World War Two Despite government attempts to disguise the magnitude of American losses it was clear that the nation had suffered a nearly unbroken string of military setbacks in the Pacific by the autumn of 1942 government officials were openly acknowledging the possibility that the United States might lose the war Appeals for unity and declarations of support for the war effort in the aftermath of Pearl Harbor made it appear as though the class hostilities and partisan animosities that had beset the United States for decades and grown sharper during the Depression suddenly disappeared They did not and a deeply divided American society splintered further during 1942 as numerous interest groups sought to turn the wartime emergency to their own advantage Blunders and repeated displays of incompetence by the Roosevelt administration added to the sense of anxiety and uncertainty that hung over the nation The Darkest Year focuses on Americans state of mind not only through what they said but in the day to day details of their behavior Klingaman blends these psychological effects with the changes the war wrought in American society and culture including shifts in family roles race relations economic pursuits popular entertainment education and the arts Dark Victory Ed Sikov,2008-09-30 A

Michelangelo Capua,2015-02-13 During his 40 year career director producer Anatole Litvak 1902 1974 made films of all genres in Russia Germany England France and the United States His rootless background was cited by critics lamenting his lack of consistent style but it also added to his mystique as a chameleon like realisateur Litvak directed Hollywood greats like Edward G Robinson John Garfield Kirk Douglas Ingrid Bergman Vivien Leigh Sophia Loren Anthony Perkins Olivia de Havilland Yul Brynner Burt Lancaster Barbara Stanwick and many others He was twice nominated for Best Director by the Academy of Motion Picture Art and Sciences for The Snake Pit 1948 and for Decision Before Dawn 1951 These films along with Mayerling 1936 Sorry Wrong Number 1946 and Anastasia 1956 are considered classics but his pictures don't offer many clues about Litvak the man Apart from passing references to his wartime service as combat documentarian he never discussed his life in print allowing only brief interviews relating exclusively to his work This biography fills that void providing the first detailed portrait of an artist described by film historian Richard Schickel as an adept adaptable and prolific man the kind of director that Hollywood likes best

'Un-American' Hollywood Peter Stanfield, Frank Krutnik, Brian Neve, Steve Neale, 2007-12-27 The concept of un-Americanism so vital to the HUAC crusade of the 1940s and 1950s was resoundingly revived in the emotional rhetoric that followed the September 11th terrorist attacks Today's political and cultural climate makes it more crucial than ever to come to terms with the consequences of this earlier period of repression and with the contested claims of Americanism that it generated Un-American Hollywood reopens the intense critical debate on the blacklist era and on the aesthetic and political work of the Hollywood Left In a series of fresh case studies focusing on contexts of production and reception the contributors offer exciting and original perspectives on the role of progressive politics within a capitalist media industry Original essays scrutinize the work of individual practitioners such as Robert Rossen Joseph Losey Jules Dassin and Edward Dmytryk and examine key films including The Robe Christ in Concrete The House I Live In The Lawless The Naked City The Prowler Body and Soul and FTA

The Cool and the Crazy Peter Stanfield, 2015-04-08 In the 1950s Hollywood made a variety of sensational movies meant to capitalize upon current events moral panics and popular fads The Cool and the Crazy examines seven of the decade's key film cycles including short lived trends like boxing and juvenile delinquency movies as well as uniquely 50s takes on established genres like the Western Delivering sharp critical insights in jazzy accessible prose Peter Stanfield offers an appreciation of cinema as a pop medium unabashedly derivative faddish and ephemeral

Why Harry Met Sally Joshua Louis Moss, 2017-07-18 From immigrant ghetto love stories such as The Cohens and the Kellys 1926 through romantic comedies including Meet the Parents 2000 and Knocked Up 2007 to television series such as Transparent 2014 Jewish Christian couplings have been a staple of popular culture for over a century In these pairings Joshua Louis Moss argues the unruly screen Jew is the privileged representative of progressivism secular modernism and the cosmopolitan sensibilities of the mass media age But his her unruliness is nearly always contained through romantic union with the Anglo Christian partner This Jewish Christian meta narrative has recurred time and again as one of the most powerful and enduring although unrecognized mass culture fantasies Using the innovative framework of coupling theory Why Harry Met Sally surveys three major waves of Jewish Christian couplings in popular American literature theater film and television Moss explores how first wave European and American creators in the early twentieth century used such couplings as an extension of modernist sensibilities and the American melting pot He then looks at how New Hollywood of the late 1960s revived these couplings as a sexually provocative response to the political conservatism and representational absences of postwar America Finally Moss identifies the third wave as emerging in television sitcoms Broadway musicals and gross out film comedies to grapple with the impact of American economic globalism since the 1990s He demonstrates that whether perceived as a threat or a triumph Jewish Christian couplings provide a visceral easily graspable template for understanding the rapid transformations of an increasingly globalized world

Frances Farmer Peter Shelley,2014-01-10 Previous biographies of American actress Frances Farmer 1913 1970 have downplayed her professional achievements to emphasize her turbulent personal life including several police arrests and repeated confinements in a state mental hospital By focusing upon her acting career this book endeavors to restore her position as a significant Hollywood player of the 1930s 40s and 50s An analysis of her film radio and television work is offered as well as assessments of the three Frances Farmer biopics and the documentaries in which she is featured Each of her 16 films receives a chapter length discussion A very lengthy biographical chapter is included
