He Speaks Softly:

He Speaks Softly-LP Bob Benson, 1986-03 He Speaks in the Silence Diane Comer, 2016-01-05 He Speaks in the Silence is about Diane Comer's search for the kind of intimacy with God every woman longs for. It is a story of trying to be a good girl of following the rules of longing for a satisfaction that eludes us. Disappointed with all Diane had been told was supposed to fulfill her, she begged God in desperation to give her more. And He did. But first He took her through a trial so debilitating it almost destroyed what little faith she had. He let her go deaf. Using vivid parallels between her deafness and every woman's struggle to hear God, this book shows women not only how Diane as a deaf woman hears in everyday life but also how she can learn to listen to God in the midst of her own loud life, finding intimacy with God and the deep soul satisfaction she longs for.

Blue Skies, Green Hell Marilyn Lazzari-Wing, 2012-08-08 Blue Skies Green Hell a thriller written by a bush pilot's wife is a riveting tale set in the 1950s when pioneers of the sky flew single engine aircraft over unforgiving wilderness and impenetrable jungle in Venezuela. Marilyn and Frank live in a place called the last frontier on the Orinoco River where he establishes a multi aircraft service that flies supplies and medicine to remote and inaccessible communities. Together they challenge the odds and take the exhilaration of flying to new heights. Their world is fierce weather with no weather reports, aircraft with limited range, radios and planes with six basic instruments. A search and rescue effort ends when they make a forced landing in no man's land. A flight to Miami turns sour as their twin engine C 46 conks out over the Caribbean. Best friends die in fiery crashes. A stone age Indian appears where he shouldn't be. This is drama from the cockpit of vintage aircraft.

The Justus Scrolls Paul David Morris, 2013-03-14 Rejected by God, called to an uncommon path, the eleven apostles cast lots to determine whom the Holy Spirit would pick to replace Judas Iscariot. He must be someone who had been with Jesus the whole time. That left either Joseph bar Sabbas called Justus or Matthias. The stones were cast and the lot fell to Matthias. Even so, Justus wouldn't be denied his dream. He had mingled among the disciples for more than three years. He had been close to Jesus, held private conversations with him, and had laughed with him. He'd slept around the same campfires, visited the same homes, and eaten at the same tables. Now Justus would chart a new path. He would reveal everything he knew about his Lord from the viewpoint of a privileged witness. Justus began to write. What was it like to be near Jesus in everyday situations or to see him in action in his greatest moments? Did Jesus have a childhood best friend? How did he relate to his fish-breathed disciples? What did he feel when the crowd cried out for his death? Justus logged

all of this in a series of scrolls and began a journey to house the treasure at the great library in Alexandria Egypt Perhaps someday they would be seen
