He Shines In All That's Fair:

He Shines in All That's Fair Richard J. Mouw, 2002-08-23 How do Christians account for the widespread presence of goodness in a fallen world? Different theological perspectives have presented a range of answers to this fundamental question over the centuries. In He Shines in All That's Fair, Richard Mouw brings the historic insights of Calvinism to bear on this question and reinterprets them for a broader audience at the turn of the twenty-first century. Mouw examines long-standing Reformed arguments between those who champion the doctrine of common grace and those who emphasize an antithesis between the church and the world. Defenders of common grace account for the goodness in the world by insisting that God's grace goes beyond salvation to more general gifts of beauty, virtue, and excellence to all human beings, including those who do not believe in God. Those who reject the doctrine of common grace, on the other hand, emphasize the fallenness of the world and the need for the church to maintain a dramatic contrast to it. These divergent theological perspectives, while seemingly remote and abstract, lead to questions with very practical implications: What common ground do Christians share with those outside the faith? How should Christians treat their non-Christian neighbors? How should Christians relate to the world around them? Does God disapprove when Christians form close friendships with people who are of the world? Ought Christians to identify with the joys and sorrows of those who do not confess Christ as their Savior and Lord? In the course of this book, Mouw looks at these topics, connecting the larger theological discussions to pressing issues in contemporary society. He insists that we have much to learn from thinkers who have rejected the idea of common non-saving grace, but he also defends the traditional common grace teachings, showing how they provide an important basis for wrestling with key challenges in present-day culture. Ultimately, Mouw argues forcefully for a Calvinism that is capable of standing in awe before the mysteries of God's gracious dealings with all human beings and indeed the whole creation. Presented as the 2000 Stob Lectures at Calvin College and Calvin Theological Seminary, these soundly reasoned, elegantly written chapters offer an updated, robust understanding of common grace that will be of great value to anyone interested in the relation of church and culture.

Follow Me Daniel Thomas, 2024-10-03 Follow Me is a unique contribution of Mr. Daniel Thomas to the devotional literary world and history of the Mar Thoma Church in North America. His ardent efforts are appreciated since he brought together the thoughts of great literary geniuses, the contributions of great church leaders, and the legacies of great missionary warriors from different epochs of history. It was an ambitious task; it was a good discipline, and has turned out as a great contribution. He has done everything possible to point to the great Master or Rabbi of human civilization, Jesus Christ. Jesus called his disciples, saying, "Follow me." This call resonates through the biblical world of God's call of the Patriarch Abraham, the call of Moses to liberate the People of God from slavery from Egypt. God's call continues through prophets, priests, judges, and kings. Rt. Rev. Dr. Abraham Mar Paulos, Diocesan Bishop. Theistic Evolution J. P. Moreland, Stephen C. Meyer, Christopher Shaw, Ann K. Gauger, Wayne Grudem, 2017-11-15 Many prominent Christians insist that the church must yield to contemporary evolutionary theory and therefore modify traditional biblical ideas about the creation of life They argue that God used albeit in an undetectable way evolutionary mechanisms to produce all forms of life Featuring two dozen highly credentialed scientists philosophers and theologians from Europe and North America this volume contests this proposal documenting evidential logical and theological problems with theistic evolution making it the most comprehensive critique of theistic evolution yet produced

A Church for a Secular World Marinus De Jong,2025-09-25 The relationship between the Church and the world has been a subject of debate since the Church s earliest days Stanley Hauerwas with his emphasis on the Church as polis has made a significant contemporary contribution one that has also faced strong criticism This study examines the distinctive insights of second generation neo Calvinist theologian Klaas Schilder 1890 1952 on this issue Neo Calvinism is renowned for its development of Reformed theology particularly in this area and Schilder builds on this tradition with a critical eye Engaging with the increasing secularity of the twentieth century he carefully interacts with Karl Barth s writings while refining his own perspective In doing so Schilder s position comes close to the Anabaptist stance of Hauerwas yet remains firmly rooted in the Reformed understanding of creation

Exploring Protestant Traditions W. David Buschart,2009-09-20 Protestant is shorthand for a spreading family tree of church and theological traditions Each tradition embodies a historically shaped perspective on the beliefs practices and priorities that make up a Christian community Whether you are an insider to one tradition a hybrid of two or three or as many Christians today an outsider to all Exploring Protestant Traditions is a richly informative field guide to eight prominent Protestant theological traditions Lutheran Anabaptist Reformed Anglican Baptist Wesleyan Dispensational and Pentecostal Clearly and evenhandedly W David Buschart traces the histories of each tradition explains their interpretive approaches to Scripture and identifies their salient beliefs As a result you will gain a sense of what it is to believe and worship as a Reformed or Pentecostal Christian who the traditions heroes are and where the theological accents are placed Charts displaying the denominational representatives of each tradition and bibliographies mapping the path for further explorations add to the value of this guide This is a book that seeks to receive rather than evaluate to listen and understand rather than judge or correct His is a model of theological hospitality that encourages you to open your doors to the varied ways in which Protestantism has taken root in history and human society Some things take time like coming to know a religious tradition But Exploring Protestant Traditions is an excellent place to start

The Friend, 1907 The Challenges of Cultural Discipleship Richard J. Mouw, 2011-11-21 Richard J Mouw is well known for his incisive views on the intersection of culture and Christianity and for his efforts to make the thought of major Dutch theologian Abraham Kuyper accessible to average Christians In this volume Mouw provides the scholarly backstory to his popular books as he interprets applies expands on and at times even corrects Kuyper s remarkable vision for faith and public life In thirteen essays Mouw explores and develops the Kuyperian perspective on key topics in Christian cultural discipleship including public theology sphere sovereignty education creation and more He deftly articulates an ecumenically enriched neo Calvinist or neo Kuyperian perspective that appropriates and contextualizes the ideas and insights of this important theologian and statesman for new challenges in Christian thought and service

The Transforming Fire of Divine Love John H. Armstrong, 2025-03-01 Most Bible readers know God is love 1

John 4 8 16 And most have heard the words of John 3 16 God so loved the world perhaps the best known verse in the entire Bible But few readers realize that these are perhaps the most daring verses in all the Scripture Why They tell us who God is and why we can trust him Yet very few Christians realize how much of what they believe about the nature of God is rooted in ideas foreign to divine love How did this happen What can be done to change how we can relate to the God who is perfect and inexhaustible love John Armstrong shares a deeply personal story of his long slow journey to know and experience God as a compassionate and loving Father As a pastor trained in evangelical theology he came to know and experience the teaching of the whole church about God thus the story he tells will inform how you can know the God who is amazing love This readable primer will help you develop a doctrine that can free you from guilt fear and many misconceptions we have about God You will see that what you believe about God will truly affect everything else you believe Scripture Commentary
